

(ch)

whole of Estate then remaining to be equally distributed among my three last named children viz. Polly, William, & Fanny. And I have further directed, by these my last and before said will, that I do hereby declare and affirm that my friend and friend Charles Richard Stephen Emerson, and my wife Mary, have been living on the said last will and testament, and have been acting and selling of said all other lands, tenements and things, and signing and confirming the same as my last will and testament, and I hereby certify that I have been at all times and on all occasions they this month day of April, eighteen hundred and thirty one, and in the thirty eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

Witness my hand and seal of office, in presence of Kinder Hoffman
 John Still
 Robert Nathan

Mark Harrison
 Judge of the Superior Court
 Georgia
 County of Warren
 Court of Ordinary, November 1817
 Remains of office in open Court.

Kinder Hoffman and Robert Nathan are being duly sworn, depose and testify, "that they saw the within named Mark Harrison, who being duly sworn, he in their presence, at a meeting, to be his last will and testament, and at the time of his doing so, was in his senses, of sound and disposing mind & memory, and that his wife and son were present at the same, as a witness together with themselves; and being in his presence, they at his request in the presence of each other, all became witnesses, and signed and subscribed in their own and respective names, and the said will was written."

The following is the best and non-objectionable Bill of Mark White, late of Warren County, deceased, as sworn by the Justices of the Court of Ordinary, to be made of public Records and to be held, deemed and established as the last will and testament of the said deceased viz.

Georgia
 Warren County. I personally appeared before me, John Harrison, who being duly sworn, depose and testify, that William White, late of the County aforesaid, who departed this life on the second of this present month, to his life time, and in his last illness, and in my opinion in his proper senses, and on my to be his last will in the following verbal disposition of his Estate, (viz.) "He first gave to each of his three sons, viz. William, a share each, that is a share apiece - To his three daughters, Fanny, & Mary, & William, he gave one hundred dollars to each, that is one hundred dollars apiece - To his four daughters, he gave his body to be. Fanny, Peggy, Emily, & Mary. The rest and residue of his Estate, he gave & gave a equal distribution to his children all. Shown to before me, one of the Justices of the Peace of the said County of Warren, the seventh day of February 1818.

(ch)

George Harrison
 Warren County. I personally appeared Lewis Wright before me, one of the Justices of the Peace of the said County, and after being duly sworn, depose, that he heard the above named William White, which is deceased, in his life time say, that his last will was to the amount of the above said last will. Shown to before me, one of the Justices of the Peace of the said County, the seventh day of February 1818.

State of Georgia, in
 Warren County. I personally appeared before me, Rebecca Burdett, who being duly sworn, depose, that she heard the above named William White, in his life time say, "that his last will was to the amount of the above said last will, and was deceased before me a Justice of the Peace of the said County, the seventh day of February 1818."

Examined and she appeared in full & open Court in Warrenton, in Warren County, the Second day of March in the year 1818 and sworn to be made of public Record.

John Harrison
 John Harrison

Warren Co. GA Wills 1810-1829
 www.georgiapioneers.com