G. Augustus Varbatten

State of Georgia }
 Washington County } In the name of God Amen:

I G. Augustus Varbatten being of Sound mind disposing memory and memory knowing that it is appointed unto all men to die deem it right and proper both as respects my family and myself that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind providence has blessed me. I do therefore make this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and annulling all others by me heretofore made.

First I desire and direct that my body be buried in a decent and Christian like manner suitable to my circumstances and condition in life. My soul I commit to God who gave it.

Secondly: I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid without delay by my Executors hereinafter named and appointed.

Thirdly: I desire and direct that my wife Mary Jane shall become unrestrained should she desire to marry again and in case she marries, I desire and direct that all my property both real and personal shall be equally divided between my said wife and children share and share alike.

Fourthly: Should my wife Mary Jane remain a widow then I give bequeath and devise to her the said Mary Jane all my property both real and personal and choses in action with full power to manage and control the same as she may see proper to do for the support and maintenance of herself and our children (having all confidence in my beloved wife) for and during her natural life, and at her death such property as shall remain shall go to my children share and share alike in fee simple.

Fifthly: I nominate and appoint my beloved wife sole guardian of my children provided she remain unmarried. In case my said wife marries again or departs this life during the minority of my children or any one of them, I desire that the law shall confer the guardianship of the person and property of said children as may be selected and named James W. Smith and Joseph S. Daniel Executors of said William H. Armstrong and and to the man in whom integrity and high moral character I have the utmost confidence and beg that they discharge this duty for me to the best of their ability, and select such a Guardian for my said children as will protect their interest, and rear them up in the fear of God, and educate them to become useful members of society.

The only restriction I place upon their selection is that no future line band of my said wife Mary Jane shall become the Guardian of my said children.
Sixthly I nominate and appoint my beloved wife sole executrix of this my last Will and Testament
