

In the name of God: Amen.

State of Georgia
Washington County.

I Burrell Chester of the State and County aforesaid, being weak in body, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, deeming it proper that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me, do make this my last Will and Testament, revoking all others heretofore made by me.

Item First: It is my will and desire that at my death my Executor hereinafter named shall sell such of my property as may be necessary to pay all my just debts.

Item Second: I give, bequeath and devise my estate and property, real and personal as follows, that is to say. To my daughter Rebecca A Morris I give the plantation upon which I reside in said State and County upon the waters of Big Ochopee containing about eighty acres more or less: I also give and bequeath to my daughter Rebecca A Morris all the household property of whatever kind I may die possessed of consisting of one black horse, one wagon one cow and calf and one yearling plantation tools, cotton, cottonseed, corn, fodder, oats and potatoes, household and kitchen furniture that remain unsold after my just debts have been paid.

Item Third: It is my will and desire, that when my grand children Dora Chester Mary Chester, Eric Chester, Emma Chester and Elizabeth Chester children of my deceased William C Chester, shall receive from my Executor to be paid out of my estate the sum of Twenty Dollars in cash. This to be paid each one as he or she arrives at the age of Twenty one years.

Item Fourth: I appoint George W Morris of the State and County aforesaid, the husband of my daughter Rebecca, Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal and published and declared this instrument as my Will, this 28 day of October 1883.

Burrell C Chester (S)
