Court of Ordinary
October Term 1884.

I John J. Smith do swear, that I as well as William A. Smith and Oliver S. Williams, saw the within named Henry Cox sign and publish the within paper as his last Will and Testament, that I subscribed the same as a witness thereto at the special instance and request of the said Henry Cox in his presence, as did also the said Oliver S. Williams and William A. Smith, that the said Henry Cox signed the same freely and voluntarily and was at the time of each signing of sound and disposing mind and memory.

Christopher C. O'Reilly.

State of Georgia
Washington County

In the name of God, amen

I, Christopher C. O'Reilly of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, knowing that I must shortly depart this life, do it right and proper both as respects myself and relatives, that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me. I do therefore make this my last Will and Testament.

First: I desire and direct, that my body be buried in a decent and Christianlike manner, suitable to my circumstances in life. Thy soul I trust shall return to rest with God, who gave it, as I hope for salvation through the merits and atonement of the blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Second: I desire that all my just debts be paid without delay by my Executors hereinafter named and appointed.

Third: I give and bequeath to my beloved brother Simon O'Reilly of the city of Dublin, Ireland, and my beloved sister Annie A. O'Reilly of the city of New York, all my property, both real and personal, which and what ever it may be to share and share alike for their own use and benefit.

Fourth: I hereby constitute and appoint my friends John J. Dunn and Edward A. Sullivan, Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

This August 26th 1884.
