

In the name of God, Amen.

I Elizabeth Mills of the county of Washington and State of Georgia being of sound and disposing mind and memory and being otherwise fully and lawfully advised, with full power to do so, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, with nothing as before by me at any time heretofore made, of my worldly estate I dispose of as follows, after satisfying funeral expenses and any accounts set forth hereinafter.

1st To the children of my deceased son James Jefferson I bequeath and devise each and every his children of my said son such sum of money as may be necessary to support them.

2^d To my natural children William Mills, John, Maria, Adeline, Eliza, David, John, George, John, Charles, John, David, and Rebecca Mills I bequeath each of them my worldly possessions to share each equal and entire.

3^d It is my wish that my body be buried in the usual ground at Washington County.

4th As to my property and all my goods by me of my household and personal estate and to my son William Mills has been given a ring, brooch and saddle, I wish these things to be disposed of, and that my three youngest sons, John, Charles and Rebecca I bequeath the same to the settlement of, balance of my estate, there to be shared each and each alike.

In witness whereof I the said Elizabeth Mills to this my will and testament of the one part of mine hand and seal of said date, the 21st day of December 1881.

Elizabeth Mills

My said deceased husband and I have by above named Elizabeth Mills as her last Will and Testament to provide for me, and as my agent and attorney of each other, have subscribed my name as witnesses.

John, Nathan
Lucas, Nathan Jr.
J. M. Johnson

Witness to above Will.

I Elizabeth Mills being of sound and disposing mind add this codicil to above Will signed, witnessed and published on 21st December 1881, reciting only so much of said Will as relates to the bequest herein made to my daughter Adeline, William, John, Charles, John, David, John, George, John, Charles, John, David, and Rebecca Mills, I bequeath to her the sum of One Hundred Dollars, above I bequeath to my son and daughter the sum of One Hundred Dollars each.

Elizabeth Mills

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Elizabeth Mills as her last Will and Testament, which Will was dated December 21st 1881, and signed in presence of us, who at the time of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto, the 21st day of December 1881.

Nathan Weather, John Weather Jr.