

and J. H. Cone, saw the above named John Robertson, sign and publish the foregoing paper as his last Will and Testament; that I subscribed the same as a witness thereto, at the special instance and request of the said John Robertson and in his presence as did also Jesse A. Nelson and Richard Cone; that he said John Robertson signed the same freely and voluntarily, and was at the time of such signing of sound and disposing mind and memory.

W. J. Robison

Sworn to and subscribed before me
December 1st 1890.

Me Notary
Ordinary &c.

Ernest L. Roughton.

George
Washington County.

I, E. L. Roughton of said County, and State being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last Will and Testament.

Item First. I give, bequeath and devise to my sister Sarah A. Roughton, all my real and personal property, consisting in money notes and accounts.

Item Second. I hereby constitute and appoint my brother A. L. Roughton for Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

This 9th day of December 1890.

E. L. Roughton

Signed, declared and published by E. L. Roughton as his last Will and Testament in the presence of the the subscribers, who subscribe our names hereto in the presence of said Testator at his instance and request and of each other, he signing in our presence and we signing in his presence.

Andrew J. Carter

W. J. Rynum

William A. English.

George
Washington County.

I, W. J. Rynum do swear, that I as well as Andrew J. Carter and William A. English saw the within named E. L. Roughton sign and publish the within paper as his last Will and Testament; that I subscribed the same as a witness thereto at the special instance and request of said E. L. Roughton and in his presence, as did also Andrew J. Carter, and William A. English, and that the said E. L. Roughton signed the same freely and voluntarily, and was at the time of such signing of sound and disposing mind and memory.

W. J. Rynum

Sworn to and subscribed before me December 29th 1890.

Me Notary, Ordinary &c.