Ordinary No.

Eschiram D Jordan

State of Georgia

Washington County

I, Eschiram D Jordan of the County and State aforesaid being of sound age but of weak and declining mind and memory and knowing that I must shortly depart this life, I do hereby make myself and my family and I desire make a disposition of the property both real and personal with which as those Providence has blessed me. I do therefore make this my last Will and Testament having revoking and annulling any and all other Wills by me heretofore made.

I give my soul to Almighty God, who gave it, and trust that it may repose with him in peace.

I give my will and desire, that all my just debts of law, should be paid by my Executors herein after named, as well as all expenses attending my last illness and burial.

And I do give devise and bequeath all of my real estate, consisting of the plant ation on which I now reside in said County to my daughter Catherine and Orville and my grandson James Brown to be partitioned and divided as follows: I direct my plantation to be divided into two tracts by a line beginning at Big Creek on the Chocomaug and Thompson bridge road, running the road westerly to a point where the road forks of the sign board, and where the public road ofenalls intersects the public road leading to Wilson's farm along the Linton road to a set of bare logs as the pond field date: thence along a fence running northwesterly to a farmhouse then marked by D. E. Chambers at my instance and request, as a pen and set line, continuing on as nearly a straight line as practicable to a red oak corner within twenty or less feet of a road, now leading from my residence to a field known as the old big pine grounds, thence a straight line through the old field to a small gum corner, starting Linton Hall's line at the corner of my fence near the Linton road and near the public road running by my residence through to J. J. Smawick. This said small gum corner is located in seventy five or one hundred yards of the fork of the Linton road and the road leading to my residence to J. J. Smawick. The line from beginning to pen and set above described, was pointed out to me by my friends D. E. Chambers and Linton Hall and at certain points marked by them at my instance and request on or about Christmas the 23^d of December 1889.

I will and direct that that portion of my late lying east of the above described line and adjoining lands of Harman Fields, H. A. Smithfield and Abby Carter and D. E. Chambers shall go and become the property of my beloved daughter Catherine Jordan to have and to hold the same in fee simple.

The portion of the late lying west of the foregoing described line and adjoining lands of William Shering, Thos James Hall, Milner and Linton Hall, I will and direct and bequeath to my beloved daughter Orville Brown and my beloved grandson, J. James Brown, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike, to have and to hold the same in fee simple.

Item 4th It is my will and I so direct that at my death, a reasonable years support shall be set apart out of my personal effects to my daughter Catherine.

In addition I will and bequeath to her - the said Catherine - my horse Bill, all the cattle which she claims and all the furniture, both household and kitchen, which she claims. Also all the beds and bedding which she claims, also my tobacco.

Item 5th I will and bequeath to share with one cow and calf to be selected from the drove by my daughter Catherine.

Item 6th It is my will and I so direct, that all other property, of which I was the owner and possessed, shall be sold by my Executor as soon as practicable after my death, and after deducting therefrom the sum necessary to pay all my just debts and personal expenses, the residue shall be equally divided between my son Cyprian and my daughter Orville and Catherine.

Item 7th Should I die before my old faithful horse, Jack, it is my will and desire that my daughter Catherine shall take and care for him as long as he shall live.

Item 8th I hereby nominate and appoint my nephew Charles D. Jordan as the Executor of this my last will and Testament.

C. D. Jordan

This 26th December 1889

Signed, sealed, delivered and published as his last will and Testament in presence of the witnesses in the presence of the testator at his dwelling and request and in presence of each other in the last names named.

I, William A. Coe of said State, County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last Will and Testament.

Item First: I do hereby give, give and direct that at my just debts repaid by my Executors herein after named.

Item Second: It is my Will and I so direct that at my estate, both real and personal, after the payment of my debts, are the amount requisite for a decent Christian burial, shall be held together in my Executors until my youngest child George Watkins Coe shall reach his majority, if he should live to reach it, that is to say my estate shall not be sold for distribution until a decision between my heirs is made until my youngest child shall become of legal age. But this provision is not intended to deprive my Executors the right and privilege to sell for reinvestment, or for any other reasonable and legal purpose, which in her judgment may appear wise and proper but they are at liberty to do so, either at public or private sale, without an order of Court, having in view always the best interests of my estate, and the welfare of the legatee under this my last Will and Testament.

Item Third: Should the condition of my estate and family admit my Executors are authorized, as each of my children become of lawful age or shall marry to turn over to him or her as the case may be such an amount of property as in her judgment she may be able to share without serious detriment to my estate, the same to be charged up against each child as an advancement to be taken in deduction from his or her share in the final distribution of my estate.

Item Fourth: That my Executors are authorized to use so much of my estate in the education of my minor children as in her judgment she may see proper and equal.

Item Fifth: I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Susan Coe my executrix of this my last Will and Testament. To have full and entire authority of my estate, and the guardianship of the person of my minor children during her life time, or until she can marry, unless she should die in which
