

George W. H. Whitaker

Georgia
Washington County.

Know all men by these presents: That I George W. H. Whitaker of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and realizing that I have only a short time to live on this earth, desire to make this my last Will and Testament.

Item 1st It is my will and desire that my body be buried in a respectable iron pine casket, and that my clothes that I now wear be used as the burial suit, and that my body be laid by the side of my mother in the cemetery in Sandersville Ga.

Item 2nd It is my will and desire that my just debts be promptly paid by my Executor.

Item 3rd It is my desire that my office and practice be sold in a lump if possible my private paper alone reserved.

Item 4th That all the accounts on my books from January 1st 1893 be placed in the hands of a collector for a speedy collection.

Item 5th After all my debts are paid, the residue if there be any, to be equally divided among my children.

Item 6. I desire that my son James H. Whitaker have all my clothing.

Item 7. I hereby nominate and appoint my son James H. Whitaker as my Executor and that he neither be required to give bond or security.

Geo. W. H. Whitaker

This the 18th day of February 1896.

Signed, declared and published by George W. H. Whitaker as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us the subscribing witnesses, who subscribe our names hereto, in the presence of the testator (at his instance and request) and of each other, he signing in our presence and we signing in his presence.

J. S. Camp.

J. C. Evans.

P. R. Taliaferro

Judge C. C. & C.

Georgia
Washington County.

J. S. Camp do swear that I as well as P. R. Taliaferro and J. C. Evans, saw the within named George W. H. Whitaker sign and publish the within paper as his last Will and Testament; that I subscribed the same as a witness thereto, at the special instance and request of the said George W. H. Whitaker and in his presence, as did also P. R. Taliaferro and J. C. Evans; that the said George W. H. Whitaker signed the same freely and voluntarily, and was at the time of such signing of sound and disposing mind and memory.

J. S. Camp.

Sworn to and subscribed before me

This 4th day of April 1896.

157

M. Newman, Ordinary W. C.