I, H. C. Roughton of said County and State, being now of sound and disposing mind and memory, but recognizing the frailty and uncertainty of human life and wishing to arrange my business affairs, before too am called by Almighty God to go the way of death - do make and publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills made by me.

Item 1: I will and direct that all my just debts be paid in full and that my receive a decent and christian burial suitable to my means and station in life and conformable with my faith in my Lord and Saviour - Jesus Christ.

Item 2 After the payment of my aforesaid indebtedness, I give bequeath devise to my beloved wife, during her life or widowhood all of my property - real, personal and choses in action - with full power of disposition in my said wife; that is to say, she may sell or otherwise dispose the whole or any part of my estate or change the investments, upon obtaining the written consent of my brothers, B. C. Roughton and J. H. Roughton and my brother in law W. A. Gallaher.

Item 3 After the death of my wife or her intermarriage, I give and bequeath all my estate that shall then remain unto my children, share and alike.

Item 4: It is my will and desire that each of my children upon their arrival at the age of (21) twenty one, to receive from my estate the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000⁰⁰) in cash.

Item 5: It is my will and desire, that should my wife die leaving no child-by me, that my estate shall be equally divided among the children of B. C. Roughton, J. H. Roughton and Bettrude B. Gallaher, that is to say the children of each my brothers and sister to receive one third of my estate.

Item 6: I nominate and appoint my wife as the executrix of this my last will and it is my desire and request that in the management and disposition of my estate she shall advise and consult with my brothers B. C. and J. H.
Roughton and my brother in law W. A. Gallaher and act for the best interest of all the beneficiaries herein named.

Item 7: Upon the death or intermarriage of my wife I nominate and appoint all my said brothers and brother in law as executors in her stead to

H. C. Broughton Cont.

W. M. Garner.

Georgia
Washington County

July 11, 1896

I, Washington Moses Garner being in feeble health of body but of sound disposing mind knowing that it is appointed for all men to die and wishing to make some disposition of the effects that God has laid in my hands, do make this my last will and testament.

- 1st That all just debts that may be outstanding against me at the time of my death shall be paid so soon as may be convenient after my death.
- 2nd It is my will that all the property of which I may be possessed at the time of my death shall remain in the hands of my beloved wife Claudy A. Garner during her natural life of which she is to have full and entire control which she is to use for the support of herself and that of our children, all of which are to share in the same so far as their support is concerned as long as they may remain together. But if any one of the children should see fit to leave or should become lawfully married it is my will that my wife Claudy A. Garner shall be allowed to give off to each child or children as may be disposed to leave her any amount of property that she can conveniently spare, provided however that she shall not give to any one child a larger amount than will be left to each and all the remaining ones.
