I Henry Cox of said State and County being of advanced age, and knowing full & most shortly depart this life, and desiring it right and proper, that I should make a disposition of my property - I do therefore make this my last Will and Testament, revoking all others heretofore made by me.

1st Item. I give bequeath and devise to my wife Mary for and during her natural life only - twenty acres of my plantation on which I reside, said twenty acres to include all the improvements now occupied and used by me and such land as she may wish adjacent to said improvements.

2nd Item. I also give and bequeath in like manner during her natural life, all my personal effects consisting cattle, hogs, corn fodder, meat plantation, plunder generally, gun, household and kitchen furniture.

3rd Item. At the death of my wife Anne all the above named property to revert to my son Gordon but his heirs with all heirs that may have or may acquire hereto during the life of said wife Anne.

4th Item. After cutting off twenty acres of land for my wife, there remained one hundred and eighty six acres of land, but of this I want my burial expenses and such other debts that I owe or that may come against my estate to be paid and the remainder to be divided equally among my first wife's children or their heirs.

5th Item. I hereby constitute and appoint Mr. B. Cox and Wm A Smith Executors, of this my last Will and Testament.

Christopher C. O'Reilly.

State of Georgia
Washington County

In the name of God. Amen

I, Christopher C. O'Reilly of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, knowing that I must shortly depart this life, do give and proper both as respects myself and relatives, that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me. I do therefore make this my last Will and Testament.

First: I desire and direct, that my body be buried in a decent and Christianlike manner, suitable to my circumstances in life. My soul I trust shall return to rest with God, who gave it, as I hope for salvation through the merits and atonement of the blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Second: I desire that all my just debts be paid without delay by my Executors hereinafter named and appointed.

Third: I give and bequeath to my beloved brother Simon O'Reilly of the city of Dublin, Ireland, and my beloved sister Annie A. O'Reilly of the city of New York, all my property, both real and personal, wherever and what ever it may be to share and share alike for their own use and benefit.

Fourth: I hereby constitute and appoint my friends John C. Sumner and Edward A. Sullivan, Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

This August 26th 1864.
