I know all men by these presents, that I Horatio N. Hollifield of Sanderville Washington County, Georgia, being in good health and of sound mind do make this my last will and testament.

All of my estate Real and Personal Property of which I may die seized and possessed of I devise bequeath and dispose of in the manner following: Wit:

I desire that all my just debts be paid as soon as convenient or possible by my Executor out of my Estate.

I give and bequeath to my wife Clara P. Hollifield a life interest in the whole of my property estate. She to have the uses and income derived therefrom in such manner as she may see fit, first paying the taxes upon it, keeping up the fire insurance policies and doing all needed and necessary repairs, the remainder to be hers to do with as she pleases.

Upon the death of my wife, I desire my estate to be divided into two equal parts, and give and bequeath one of these portions to my daughter Chas. Annis Lunn for and during her life and a her death should she had children living to be divided among them.
The other half or remaining portion of my estate, I give and bequeath to my son Doct H. P. Hollifield for and during his life - and at his death to his children should he have any. If he has no children in life, then to be given to the children of my daughter Chas. Annis Lunn, and should my daughter's children be dead I desire her portion in which she has a life estate to go to my next children if he has any in life, and if the children of my daughter be dead and my son have no children, then I desire my estate in which my son and daughter had a life interest to be given to the children of my brother Fred Simonsen N. Hollifield.

I nominate and appoint my wife Clara P. Hollifield as Executor of this my last Will and Testament and the accepting the
