Mr. Newman,
Ordinary N. C.

H. C. Roughton.

Georgia
Washington County

I, H. C. Roughton of said County and State, being now of sound and disposing mind and memory, but recognizing the frailty and uncertainty of human life and wishing to arrange my business affairs, before too am called by Almighty God to go the way of flesh - do make and publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills made by me.

Item 1: I will and direct that all my just debts be paid in full and that my receive a decent and christian burial suitable to my means and station in life and conformable with my faith in my Lord and Saviour - Jesus Christ.

Item 2: After the payment of my aforesaid indebtedness, I give bequeath devise to my beloved wife, during her life or widowhood all of my property - real, personal and choses in action - with full power of disposition in my said wife, that is to say, she may sell or otherwise dispose the whole or any part of my estate or change the investments, upon obtaining the written consent of my brothers, R. C. Roughton and J. H. Roughton and my brother in law W. A. Gallaher.

Item 3: After the death of my wife or her intermarriage, I give and bequeath all my estate that shall then remain unto my children, share and to alike.

Item 4: It is my will and desire that each of my children upon their arrival at the age of (21) twenty one, to receive from my estate the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000⁰⁰) in cash.

Item 5: It is my will and desire, that should my wife die leaving no child-by me, that my estate shall be equally divided among the children of C. Roughton, J. H. Roughton and Bettrude B. Gallaher, that is to say the children of each my brothers and sister to receive one third of my estate.

Item 6: I nominate and appoint my wife as the executrix of this my last will and it is my desire and request that in the management and disposition of my estate she shall advise and consult with my brothers, R. C. and J. H.
Roughton and my brother in law W. A. Gallaher and act for the best interests of all the beneficiaries herein named.

Item 7: Upon the death or intermarriage of my wife I nominate and appoint my said brothers and brother in law as executors in her stead to
