

James Fulgham

Georgia Washington County

I James Fulgham residing in the County and State before written being in good health and of sound mind do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following

First - I leave to my beloved wife Jane ~~Fulgham~~ all the property of which I may be possessed at the time of my death after the payment of my just debts, during her natural life, of which I wish her to have full control in order to her support and the bringing up of our children.
Second, In the event of any one or more of our children becoming of mature age or of their being lawfully married, she will be at liberty to give off to any such child or children any amount that she may be able to spare provided however that she may not give to any one of said children an amount greater than a distribution share to each and all of them.

Third, At the death of my wife Jane ~~E.~~, all of my property is to be equally divided between all of our children.

Fourth, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved brother John Fulgham Executor to this my last will and testament.

Signed and sealed this 6th day of February 1868

John Williams

State of Georgia

Washington County In the name of God Amen

I John Williams of said State and County being of advanced age but of sound and disposing mind and memory, knowing I must shortly depart this life; sum it right and proper as respects my family and myself, that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me, I do therefore make this my last will and testament freely revoking and correcting all others by me hitherto made.

First Item. I desire and direct that my body be buried in a decent and Christian like manner, on the place where I now reside suitable to my circumstances and condition in life, My soul I trust shall return to rest with God who gave it, and I hope for salvation through the merits and atonement of the blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Second Item. I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid without delay by my executors, herein named and appointed.
