Court of Ordinary, January Term 1885.

In open Court came Alexander Moffet, an 'honest and sagacious' man, who testified that he saw Alfred E. Greenway sign, publish and declare his within paper as his last Will and Testament, in his presence and also of W. E. Hoke and M. Newman, the witnesses, at his request, and subscribed their names hereto in the presence of Testator and of each other, and that he said Alfred E. Greenway at the time of making said Will was of sound and disposing mind and memory, and under no influence whatever.

Jonas D. Hartley Contd.

Georgia

Washington County

Court of Ordinary April Term 1885.

J. W. J. Chalmers do swear, that I as well as Claudius Garner and Marion Garner, saw the within named Jonas D. Hartley sign and publish the within paper as his last Will and Testament, that I subscribed to come as a witness thereto at the special instance and request of said Jonas D. Hartley and in his presence, as did also Claudius Garner and Marion Garner; that He said Jonas D. Hartley signed the same freely and voluntarily and was at the time of such signing of sound and disposing mind and memory.

Ordinary Prob.

H. H. Newsome.

State of Georgia

Washington County.

H. H. Newsome of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last Will and Testament.

Item 1st. I give, bequeath and devise to my son George H. Newsome, for and during the term of his natural life, and at his death to his children now or hereafter to be born, begotten of his present wife Ella Newsome all that Tract or parcel of land lying in the State and County aforesaid, adjoining lands of J. C. Withers, W. H. Hunt, Lawrence, Mrs. Rebecca Newsome, and other lands of mine, containing five hundred acres more or less and known as the Home place being the place whereon I now reside.

Item 2^d. All the balance and remainder of my estate real and personal I leave to be distributed among my lawful heirs according to the laws of distribution in said State, except that as since George H. Newsome shall not share any portion of said remaining estate, that shall have for his full share and interest in my estate, the said five hundred acres of land bequeathed to him in the first item of this Will subject to the remainder therein mentioned.

This January 25th 1883.

Signed, declared and published by H. H. Newsome as his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us the subscribers, who subscribe our names hereto in the presence of said Testator, at his instance and request, and in the presence of each other, he signing in our presence, and we signing in his presence.
