

Chattilda Brown

I, Chattilda Brown of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last Will and Testament.

Item first: I give bequeath and devise to my true sons David Brown, Shillord J. Brown and Robert L. Brown in trust for the use and benefit of my daughter Sarah E. Brown, during the said Sarah E. Brown's life and at her death, the title to vest in David Brown, Shillord J. Brown and Robert L. Brown the following property to wit:
All of my lands. Stock of all kinds, and household and kitchen furniture to their own proper use benefit and benefit.

Item second: I hereby constitute and appoint my sons David Brown, Shillord J. Brown and Robert L. Brown Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

This the 5th day of January 1885
Chattilda E. Brown

mark

Signed, declared and published by Chattilda Brown as her last Will and Testament, in the presence of us the undersigned, who subscribe our names hereto in the presence of said Testator (at her instance and request) and of each other, her signing in our presence, and we signing in her presence.

William Cato
J. J. Amason
Davis Michler.

Georgia
Washington County

Court of Ordinary, August Term 1885.

Personally appeared before me in open Court, William Cato, J. J. Amason, and Davis Michler, who being duly sworn said: that they saw Chattilda Brown sign and publish the within paper as her last Will and Testament, and that we subscribed the same as witnesses hereto at the special instance and request of the said Chattilda Brown and in her presence and in the presence of each other, and that the said Chattilda Brown signed the same freely and voluntarily and was at the time of such signing of sound and disposing mind and memory.

William Cato.
J. J. Amason
Davis Michler.

Subscribed and subscribed before me
This August 3rd 1885.

J. Newman
Ordinary N.C.