

Mrs Nancy Smith.

Georgia
Washington County

In the Name of God Amen

I Nancy Smith wife of John P. Smith late of said County do hereby being desirous to settle my worldly affairs, which I have brought to be done make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills by me at any time heretofore made. And first of all, I commit my soul to God who have it, and my worldly estate I dispose of as follows.

First: I give all my estate both real and personal to Nellie & Wells and her children, that she now has or may have. Said estate to be used by them and for them and not to be sold or disposed of in no way until the youngest child that she may have, shall become of age.

In witness whereof, I the said Nancy Smith to this my last Will and Testament of the above, have set my hand and seal this 5th day of October 1863. And I hereby appoint Geo. P. Wells as the Executor of my Will.

Nancy Smith

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the abovesaid named Nancy Smith as her last Will and Testament in presence of us, who at her request in presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto.

Leticia E. Wilson of Washington County

Julia A. English of Washington County

Geo. P. Wells of Washington County

Georgia
Washington County

County of Ordinance December Term 1867.

I, William A. English do hereby certify that I as well as Leticia E. Wilson and Julia A. English saw the within named Nancy Smith sign and publish the within Will, as her last Will and Testament; and I subscribed the same as a witness hereto at the special instance and request of the said Nancy Smith and in her presence, as did also Leticia E. Wilson and Julia A. English. That the said Nancy Smith signed the same freely and voluntarily and was at the time of such signing of sound and disposing mind and memory.
