

Nathan J. Batts.

Georgia

Washington County

I, Nathan J. Batts a citizen of said State and County do make and publish the following as my last Will and Testament.

I give, devise and bequeath all my entire property, which I may have at my death to my wife, Eliza Batts for and during her life and at her death to my sister, Ella Batts, in fee simple.

I have nominated and appointed J. J. Stinson Executor of the my last Will and Testament.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal.

This October 21st 1879.

Nathan J. Batts J.S.

Signed, sealed, declared and published by Nathan J. Batts as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us the undersigned who subscribed our names hereto in the presence of said testator, at his special instance and request and in the presence of each other.

This October 21st 1879.

Court of Ordinance April Term 1880.

Before me came J. B. Jordan, sworn as a witness to the within writing, purporting to be Nathan J. Batts' last Will and being duly sworn says that he with David Stinson and J. L. Warthen, at the request of J. J. Batts and in his presence, did attest as a witness to the within writing as J. J. Batts will; that the same were signed and published by J. J. Batts in their presence as an last Will; that he was at the time of said attestation and signing, in himself of sound and disposing mind and memory; that he executed the within paper voluntarily.

J. B. Jordan.

Subscribed and sworn to before me

This April 4th 1880.
