State of Georgia }
Washington County }

In the name of God Amen
Thomas G Duggan of the County and State aforesaid Knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, and desiring to make a disposition of the worldly goods, with which it has pleased God to bless me, I hereby make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following to wit:

First I do by will and desire that all my just debts be paid by my Executors as soon after my death as circumstances will admit Second - My will and desire is that all my property (after my debts are paid) both real and personal (including my life insurance policy) remain in the hands and control of my wife, Mathe G Duggan that she use the same in such way as she may think best that she may children off of it, that she give as she thinks best to any one of the children at any time, that she sell my property that is personal, and send it as she think best, and if she desires to do so that she will the property as she pleases, at her death.

Should my wife Mathe G Duggan die during my will then I desire my property and a personal belonging to my estate to be equally divided between all my children, both those now born, and those hereafter to be born -

I hereby appoint my wife Mathe G Duggan Guardian of the person and property of each one of my children both those born, and those that may hereafter be born, giving her entire authority to me interest and manage their funds as she may think best

I hereby appoint my wife Mathe G Duggan Executor of this my last will and Testament. Signed this December 15th 1877
