I, William R. L. Carter of said county and State do hereby make, ordain and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all others heretofore made by me.

Item 4th I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Lydia, one third of all my estate, real and personal.

Item 2^d I give devise and bequeath to my beloved daughter Rebecca Wilson likewise one third of all my estate real and personal.

Item 3. I give devise and bequeath to the heirs of my daughter Sarah Frances Johnson likewise one third of all my estate real and personal; each child of said Sarah Johnson to share each and each alike and equally in this said distribution of the third of my real and personal estate.

Item 4th It is my desire that this division should be made most equitably, that is, the bequests as declared in Items 1st, 2^d and 3^d of Item 3rd.

Item 5th I hereby constitute and appoint to Henry Wilson, husband of my beloved daughter Rebecca, Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal
this 15th day of February 1884

Albert Cooper

State of Georgia
Washington County.

In the name of God, Amen.

I, Albert Cooper of said County and State, being advanced in years and in ill health, feel it my duty to make a provision for the support and distribution of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me. I therefore make this last Will and Testament.

Item 1st I commit my body to the earth to be buried in my friends as a Christian, and ever I trust will return to God who gave it for it have been in the resurrection.

Item 2nd Let all my honest debts be paid.

Item 3rd I desire that all my property, both real and personal, shall remain undistributed until each of my children shall have reached the age of majority.

Item 4th Should either my daughter Emma W. or Annie B. reach the majority, their claims for a subsistent out my estate shall cease, as I hope they have a home, and I submit to their husbands and I make a caveat for either of my sons Andrew J., John C., Charles E., Ennis A. & William C.

Item 5th I empower my exorbitant heirs after named to sell or convey each of my personal property, so as to provide for the carrying on of the business of the farm and the comfort and support of the minor children.

Item 6th I desire that my wife Sarah C. shall have a home and support out of the proceeds of produce made on my lands during her life or until the distribution hereinafter named.

Item 7th When my youngest son William C. shall have reached and my daughter Emma W. and Annie B. shall have married, then I desire that a distribution of all my property take place; each of my children and my wife Sarah C. sharing alike, provided my wife Sarah C. be allowed to
