Know all men by these presents, that I, Samuel J. Palmer, do hereby certify that I am a married man and in good health and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament.

and do hereby bequeath and give all my real and personal property which I shall die seized and possessed of at the time of my death, to be divided at the time of my decease, to be used and enjoyed and disposed of as follows:

I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Sarah, with the following property named.

All the lands, to-wit: a lot of land in the town of Brown as the town records suggested to be One hundred acres more or less, also one lot of land in the town of Harrison, being a part of the land in the town of East Harrison, and the land adjoining said lot from lands of John Harrison on the West, together with all the above named lands and also one acre and all my cattle and pigs, one wagon, one buggy and all my house hold and kitchen furniture and farming utensils of every kind.

The above named property to remain the property of my wife Sarah during at my death, during her natural life or widowhood and at her death or intermarriage to belong to my son William J. Smith and my daughter Rose Belle Smith. This devise and bequest is made in full and in lieu of dower.
At my death, after paying of my debts and funeral expenses, the remainder of the property to be divided equally between all the rest of my children.
And I hereby do nominate and appoint George H. Smith and my wife Harriet Smith to be Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof, I the said William J. Smith, have to this my last Will and Testament subscribed my name and affixed my seal the day and year above written.
