

William Webster

I William Webster, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this as my last Will and Testament.

I consign my body to the ground, whence it came, and my soul to God, who governeth them.

Item second. I desire my just debts be all paid.
I give and bequeath to my son Richard D Webster - One hundred acres of land, to be taken from this end and to include the buildings.

Item Third. I desire the remainder of my estate to be divided in accordance with law - and I hereby appoint my sons James D Webster and Richard D Webster as my Executors, to carry out this my last Will and Testament.
In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, seal this the fourth day of September 1881.

W. Webster (Seal)
mark

Signed in the presence of us, and by us in the presence of each other

H. S. Hollisfield

A. S. Carter

W. C. Doolittle

Washington Court of Ordinary
October Term 1881.

Proctor came in open Court at this regular Term Just. H. S. Hollisfield and W. C. Doolittle, who being duly sworn depose and say, that they saw William Webster sign and publish, the within as his last will and Testament, while of sound and disposing mind. That they witnessed the same for him at his request and in his presence and of each other, and that the same was executed voluntarily by him on the day it purports to have been executed, and that A. S. Carter likewise signed the same as a witness at the request of the testator in his presence in his presence and in our presence.

Horatio S. Hollisfield
W. C. Doolittle

Subscribed before me in open Court October Term 1881.
3 Oct 1881

M. Newman
Ordinary W. C.