We do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true and correct will of the within named J. S. Brownlow and so far as we know or believe & that we were well & truly eye wit to the signing of the same with the signs of the testator. So help me God.

Georgia
White County } I'm person came before me Jm Quillian who on oath says he wrote the will of L.S. Brownlow deceased & that the said Brownlow in appointing his executor first appointed J. H. Brownlow but upon the excuse of J. H. Brownlow that his health was not good he appointed J.S. Brownlow in his place & that accounts for the erasure or blot in the name of the executor & that this change was made at the instance of the said L.S. Brownlow while he was in his proper & right mind to make a will.
