In the name of God Amen.

I John McGehee said State and County being of some what advanced age and great bodily affliction, and being admonished that I must shortly depart this life deem it right and proper, both as respects myself and my connection that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind providence has blessed me, so therefore make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills, or codicils heretofore made by me.

Item 1 I desire and direct, that my body be buried in a decent and christian like manner, suitable to my circumstances and Condition in life, my soul I trust shall return to rest with god who gave it, as I hope for eternal Salvation, through merits and atonement of the blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, whose religion I have professed, and as I humbly trust enjoyed for twenty five years.

Item 2 I desire and direct, that all my just debts be paid without delay, by my Executors herein after appointed, and that no payment to my creditors shall be delayed in any way.

Item 3 I give and bequeath and desire to my beloved niece Elizabeth Taylor all the property both real and personal of every description, of which I may be seized or possessed, to the use of herself and her heirs for ever, and she is to have the entire management, contrall and disposition, of said property after I shall have departed this life, and should she hereafter intermarry with any person, I desire and direct, that the property herein bequeathed and its issue shall remain free from the disposition of her said husband and shall not be taxed and equity be subject to the payment of the debts of any husband with whom she may hereafter intermarry.

Item 4 I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved niece Elizabeth Taylor Executor, and my worthy Ethelred S. Turner Executor of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this 23 day of March in the Year 1854
