Samuel Wilbourn
Edward B. Thomas } Award.

We the arbitrators chosen by Samuel Wilbourn and Edward B. Thomas to arbitrate and settle a dispute between them as it respects a load of cotton and other things, the the property of Samuel Wilbourn which had been entrusted to the care and management of said Thomas do award that in our best judgment, there appears to be a balance of cash remaining in the hands of Edward B. Thomas, which should of right be paid over to Samuel Wilbourn say the sum of two hundred and seventy eight dollars and sixty nine cents, and that the said Thomas shall pay to the said Wilbourn, the above sum on or before the eighteenth instant or in default of payment a thing made by that day, the said Thomas shall pay the additional sum of fifty dollars and seventy three cents being an allowance of twenty five cents damages, for detaining the monies of said Wilbourn contrary to contract &c. And that upon the fulfilment of this Award, all differences agreeable to an Arbitration Bond, entered into by the Parties the 26th day of January 1803. And that upon a failure of the said Thomas, this Award together with the said Bond is to be returned to the Inferior Court.

We here by our hand & seals this 4th Febry 1803.

Witness Inferior Court March Term 1803.

In this case Plaintiff bound himself to pay the award as entered up in the judgment of the Court to which

Court in for Defendant objected for the following reasons - 1st That there was no suit between the Parties commenced at the time said motion was made or said and not under a Rule of this Court, consequently it is contrary to the tenor in fact & meaning of the Law of the Land, That the Arbitrators transacted the business of their Arbitration, as much as they thought proper themselves to apportion damages here and or damages, because the Defendant unjustly detained money belonging to the Plaintiff, which is unjust, illegal and contrary to good conscience -

Ordered that the Clerk of the Inferior Court pay to Major Benjamin Porter Esquire the neat proceeds of a Stage Wagon sold by Thomas Porter Esq. for four dollars twenty & a half cents -

Ordered that a Tax be levied on the County of North for the present year say the year (1803) for the Court house & Jail the Poor, Bridge &c. &c. equal to one fourth of the General Tax. And that the additional Tax of one eighth of the General Tax be levied, for paying Jailors Wages, commissaries and Clerk &c. &c. -

Ordered that the Tax collectors for the years 1802 & 1803 - pay the amount of the County Tax to the Clerk of the Inferior Court -
