The petition of Aquilla Burroughs and Joseph Anderson Executors of the last Will and Testament of William Lee deceased humbly sheweth that Thomas Lee on the first day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three was indebted to William Lee in the full and just sum of thirty pounds Sterling, equal to the sum of one thousand and twenty eight Dollars and fifty seven cents and seven pence the said Thomas detains from your petitioners. In this, in that whereas the said William in his life time, before the said first day of January in the year aforesaid, at the special instance and request of the said Thomas, paid to one Frederick Lee Sons in the life time of the Frederick, the full and just sum of ten pounds equal to forty two Dollars, eight pence, being part of the said thirty pounds in consideration of which payment so made by the said William in his life time to the said Frederick in his life time, at the special instance and request of the said Thomas, the said Thomas undertook and promised and agreed to pay to the said William in his life time, the said sum of ten pounds equal to forty two Dollars and eighty five cents, and to your petitioners since the death of the said William, when he should be then made required, and your Petitioners further state, that the said Thomas Lee detains from your Petitioners the further sum of him by him

153 equal to eighty five dollars & seventy one cents, it being a sum of money due and owing to the said William in his life time by the said Thomas, for and on account of the Tract of Land, wherein the said Thomas now lives and in which said Tract of Land was sold to the said Thomas, by the said William at the sum aforesaid being still due and owing on the day aforesaid, & the said Thomas in consideration of the sum, undertook and promised and agreed to pay the said William in his life time, and to your Petitioners since the death of the said William, that he would pay the aforesaid sum of money when he should be therein required, but the said Thomas regardless of the promises so as aforesaid made hath not paid the aforesaid three several sums of money making in the whole amount the sum of thirty five dollars & seventy one hundred and twenty eight dollars and fifty seven cents, to the said William in his life time, at the time he was frequently required, nor hath he paid them or any of said sums to your Petitioners, since the death of the said William, but the same he should be compelled and pay hath altogether refused and will not refuse to the damage of your Petitioners three hundred dollars, and of your Petitioners being in the case, their letters to the same to pay.

The Petition of James Moore humbly sheweth that Jonathan Cochran is indebted to your petitioner in the sum of ninety six dollars, 80 cents, that your petitioner on the twenty sixth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety eight entered into an agreement with Jumia R. Price, George White, and James Peabody to build a meeting House near Moore's old Mill on the corner of the said for the sum of two hundred and ninety dollars, that of ten the said agreement entered into, the engaged on Jonathan Cochran, and Isaac Cochran to aid in building the said meeting House each to have one third of the said sum of one hundred and ninety dollars, and of our petitioner also the other third, and your 280/ Petitioner states that when the aforesaid Jew maids, George 2 James opened their note for the payment of the said sum upon hundred and nine by Dollars, that your Petitioner wrote thereon, and made it payable to George then he came, drawing it, immediately on the then made payable to him to your Petitioner in to the said Office, that the House was by agreement to be built, on or before the 15th day of December then next, that your Petitioner and the said Jonathan & Isaac, did immediately proceed to erect the said Building, and furnished the whole, except weather boarding from the plates down, which could not be done then for the want of plank. That your Petitioner left the state for a small time, and returned in time to assist in finishing the said House by the time stipulated, But intending to inform and defend your Petitioner, then refused to pay your Petitioner, to do any thing more & did then claim the balance of the work, and the said Jonathan men and the whole amount of the money due for the said House and to today refuse, to pay your Petitioner any thing for his work, and labour, in and about the said Building House from which deceitful and fraudulent conduct, of the said Jonathan, your Petitioner on the 1st is informed and that sustained damage to the amount of one hundred and fifty Dollars. And whereas also the said Jonathan took on the same day and year aforesaid, was indebted to your Petitioner in other moneys six Dollars & fifty six cents money for the said House then had had and received to the use of your Petitioner, and being so indebted in consideration thereof afterwards, took, on the same day and year aforesaid said indebtedness and then and then forthwith promising of your Petitioner to have been, the last mentioned sum of money when he should be otherwise afterwards required of the said Jonathan of the indebted and frequently reminded he hath not paid the said sum of money or any part thereof, your Petitioner the sum of one hundred
