

PHOTOCOPY FROM

Wilkes

COUNTY Ord

COURT

BK. OR VOL. NO:

DATES: 1815-50

PAGE NO:

Loose Estate Records - John Favor, Jr.

Georgia Department of Archives & History

DATE MADE: APR 23 1976 DR. 241 BOX 69

Estate of John Favor Sr., 1833, Wilkes Co.

www.georgiapioneers.com

Georgia
Miller County, ^{to the} Honorable William H. Chapman
Judge of the superior Court of the Western Circuit in said State & Chancery practicing,

Cum hinc Campaining, I come unto you and honor your orators Thoma-Favor, Henry Favor and Sanders W.
Favor that John Favor late of said county, and father of your orators, departed this life in this State some time in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty, leaving behind him his widow Mary Favor, and issue of your orators, the following children, to wit: John Favor, son of William Favor of the State of Alabama Sarah Favor, married to Daniel Jackson wife of said Daniel Jackson, is dead without any administrator or executor; - Mathew Favor of Wilkes county, Member Favor of Monroe county, Georgia, Junior, issue deceased, that he under the children of said John Favor Senior, he said during his life, a daughter Elizabeth who before the death of said John Favor, was deceased, leaving the following children, and grand children of said John Favor Senior, to wit, Edmund Echols of Alabama, William Echols Julia Echols married to Paul Echols of Alabama, Sam Allen Echols of Wilkes, Mary, who was married John Hammett of Guilford

Yathum Echols of Tallapoosa Co. Ga. that said children & widows of said John Senior dec'd, and the said grandchildren were the only heirs and distributees of said John Senior dec'd. That said Mary Favor since the death of said John Senior, has departed this life intestate, and that your Orator Thomas James has since administered on her estate. That John Favor, ^{Junior} during his lifetime, was the guardian of your Orator, and took into his possession the property of your Orator. That John Favor, Junior and William Favor of Miller county, administrators of the estate of said John Senior dec'd. That said John Junior took the principal contract and management of the affairs of said John Senior; that said John Junior has since departed this life intestate; that said William and one John Wynn of Oglethorpe county have administered on the estate of said John Junior.

That said John Favor Senior left a considerable estate, real and personal, or with in part appears by exhibit hereto annexed, marked A, and which your Orator prays may be taken & accounted as a part of this ~~the~~ bill of complaint; - that said administrators of said John Senior, have and his negroes, sold the same, and received the interest on the money of his estate.

amount of two thousand dollars, or some other large sum; that said John junior while he was the guardian of said complainant's received as hire of negroes, rent of land, and interest on money, one thousand dollars or some other large sum; that all the children of said John senior, were advanced in the life time of said him, to the amount of one thousand dollars, each or some other large and considerable sum; and that said Orator received nothing in the way of advancement; they being minors at the time of the death of their intestate that said Orator Thomas Faver Orson son of said John senior, the year that he died, and that his services for which said intestate had agreed to pay him, were worth two hundred dollars, or some other large and considerable sum, and for which he never has received anything. That he has frequently demanded it of the Admistrators since the death of the said John senior.

That said Orator further shews unto your Honor that at the time of the said John senior's death he has and was possessed of considerable money in cash of which no return was made to the Court of said County by the Adm-istrators after said death that said Adm-istrators after said intestate's death sold said land and negroes belonging to said intestate estate to the amount of three thousand dollars or some other large sum and of which no return has been made and no account given by said Administrators.

our estate further I leave unto our Honor, that since the death of said John Favor administrator and guardian as aforesaid, they have often and in a friendly manner brought said Myron and Mattheu administrators as aforesaid, to pay over to your estate what might be justly due them on account of their distributive shares in the estate of their father, that came to the hands of his administrators, on to the hands of said John Favor junior, guardian as aforesaid, and they hope, that they would have paid over the same as in justice and equity they should have done, but, your Honor it seems is, may it please our Honor, they the said administrators, have refused to come to an account with your estate, and pay over to them their distributive shares in said estate, as in justice and equity they should have done -

(GAF.) The Tender Consideration is long and, or as much as any estate are remedied in the premises by the strict rule of the common law, and can only be relieved in a court of equity, where matters of this sort, are cognizable and relivable.

To the court therefore, that to said William Favor, David and John's heirs and assigns.

an 11th

Nathan Faver, Reuben Faver, John Wynn, and Nathan Faver administrators, of one said, Edward Echols, William Echols, Delila Echols and Appling and wife Delila, have Echols, John Harriet, and wife Mary, and Nathan Echols, may full time and perfect annuities to all and singular the premises, as fully as if the same were here again repeated and they thereto particularly in testimony. and that they may more particularly set forth and state, whether said John Faver have did not depart this life a state, and whether his estate was administered on a state, and whether he did not leave the property state, and what other property he left, whether the negroes were not hired out, and the land, rented, and for how many years, and what amount. whether each of the children (or some of them) and which of them, were not advanced by said intestate in his life time, and to what amount. and whether said Crator, Thomas Faver did not die as a (Ct.) state, and whether he was not to have been said for the same by said John Faver, deceased, to have much. and what was the worth of his land as it was sold by said state Thomas as aforesaid - and whether there was any money left by said John, son, of which no record was and particularly of the amount due to the state by the negroes of said state - and what was the Georgia To William Faver Sarah Jackson Wilkes County Mathew Faver executor of the Estate of John Faver William Faver and George Delila Faver Executors of the said Estate of John Faver Mathew Faver and Sarah Jackson Administrators of the said Estate of John Faver

For Certain Causes, arising before us in Chancery, we command & strictly enjoin you and each of you that notwithstanding any process now or hereafter issued against you or any of you by the Court of Chancery to the effect that you hold in & for the County of Wilkes on the fourth Monday next then due there to answer all and singular the matters and things above specified in the foregoing Bill of Complaint & further to submit to a trial by and before such order & decree of the Court as to our said Court shall seem agreeable to Equity & Justice and this you may in no wise omit under the penalty of one thousand Dollars

Witness the Honorable William F. C.
Craig, Judge of said Court this 19th day of June 1883.

John D. Lyon Clerk