that the above are true copies from the Minutes of the Court of Ordinary of the Granting of Marria

The Hon^{ble} Judge Nichols. I am writing you at night. I am in the city of New York.

I am very old - born in the year ~~1752~~ ¹⁷⁵¹ the tenth of Nov^r - now within a few days of being eighty one years of age - much enfeebled - and much of a cripple - my little property greatly less
- due - when young and hearty - I could not think of petitioning my Country to put me on the pension list. But now, I stand greatly in need of Assistance - I enter the Army when very young - under the Command of Col. White - who commanded the fourth Georgia Battalion - He gave me a brevet Com^{mission}
- as second Lieutenant - I was in the Battle of Red Bank Liberty County - when General Lincoln was killed - also Capt. Stedman, and a few privates - Col. White commanded on that day - I was in the Action at Brice Creek under the Command of General Ashmun - Number were killed and many down - endeavouring to swim longer boats - to make their escape.

When General Montague met his Army at a place call^d Sheldon near ~~South~~ ^{South} Carolina - he had one call - I waited on the General - he ask^d me if I had not relatives in Savannah - I told him I had - and had seen son to believe - the two young ^{men} were both Officers in the British Army - He said he wish^d me to go to Savannah and act as a spy - I would hear my Cousins conversation - and could inform him - by Rich^d Quinn who had charge of two large rice plantations - seven or eight miles above Savannah - who would forward the intelligence by a faithful Negro - who Quinn had sent to him General Montague two or three times - After being in Savannah - two or three Months - My Cousins treated me with coldness - and I thought look^d suspicious at me - I thought it high time to make my escape - I mention^d to them - that I had a thought of going up to old Mr. Nightingale and spending eight or ten days - they said I might do so - the next Morning I started - that Evening got him to put on a cross the river to Quins - and Quins put on ashore in Carolina - at a place call - the Union - there belonging to that old patriot Jonathan Bayon - I kept my self conceal - here and there - until General Wain took the river for Savannah - I saw General Jackson Men on this day - I saw a small command to way lay the river - and if any boats past - take them if could - I took a sailing boat with two white Men and two Negroes.

I was at the siege of Savannah - the whole of the siege under the command of General Lincoln and the Court - De Etouffe - I saw within my petition and within my secret Commission - four or five weeks ago - but have been no answer.

Dear Judge - please to befriend me - by writing the Gentlemen a who has to pay 10 Evolutionary passions for me - And if you think proper to enclose him this letter you can do so. When you obtain an answer - please inform my son Lucius by the next mail.

Comr of Pension's

Dear Sir

I wish to know
to what Service Col Thomas Wylly was attached. He belonged & was engaged in the service in Georgia & received a pension which I understand was paid up to 1846. The only child of his widow (the widow surviving him several years & then dying) wishes to apply for a right of her mother for the pension which was due her mother.

Will you be kind enough to give the desired information, & all the proofs that may be considered necessary.

Please address James A. Goldsboro
Troupville Georgia, for whom benefit
I write, He having married the only daughter of Mrs Wylly.

Very Respectfully

Thomas Wylly, R. 11535

Honorable Richard B. Russell, Jr.
United States Senator
Atlanta, Georgia

My dear Senator:

Reference is made to your letter of July 23rd, in which you request, instead of photostatic copies, an official report containing the information found in pension claim, R. 11535, based upon service of Thomas Wylly in the Revolutionary War.

All papers in the above noted claim have been examined and the following data found.

Thomas Wylly was born October 10, 1762, "in the Island of Tortold". He stated that his parents (names not given) died when he was very small and that his uncle, Richard Wylly, "in a manner raised" him.

On November 1, 1778, Thomas Wylly was appointed second Lieutenant in the Fourth Georgia Battalion commanded by Colonel J. White. He served under Captain Dennis, his entire service amounting to about five years, during which time he was deputy quartermaster under Quartermaster General Richard Wylly (his uncle) and acted as spy for General Moultrie, was in battles of Medway Church and Brier Creek, during the siege of Savannah he was on the outskirts and was in a skirmish at Dorchester, South Carolina.

He stated that he did not serve in the War of 1812 as he married "just at that time" and that he then lived ten or twelve miles from Puryesburg, South Carolina, name of wife not given.

He was allowed pension on his application executed July 10, 1843, at which time he was living in Effingham County, Georgia. He signed his application as Thomas Wylly, Senior.

Thomas Wylly died May 31, 1846.

It was stated by one James O. Goldwire in 1855 that the Revolutionary War soldier, Thomas Wylly married about April, 1817, Sarah Goldwire, the widow of James Little Goldwire. No authentic record of this marriage was furnished. Said Sarah was referred to as the last wife of Thomas Wylly and she died April 1, 1849. The name of the former wife of Thomas Wylly was not given.

Thomas Wylly stated in 1844 that he had a son, William C., then living in Savannah, Georgia.

James Little Goldwire (referred to above) was born May 20, 1775, and was married December 28, 1796, by Rev. John Goldwire (relationship of John Goldwire not shown) to Sarah King who was later the wife of Thomas Wylly.

James Little Goldwire and Sarah had the following children:

Ann Morel Goldwire	born November 27, 1797.
Sarah Eliza "	" March 5, 1799.
Jane Mariah "	" December 21, 1800.
A daughter "	" April 13, 1802.
Caroline "	" October 17, 1803.
A son "	" May 10, 1805.
William "	" August 18, 1806.

One James O. Goldwire whose post office address in 1855 was Troupville, Lowndes County, Georgia, married May 8, 1833, Miss Mariah Jane Goldwire (she was born December 21, 1800, and her name was written as Jane Mariah on the family record given above). Both James O. Goldwire and Mariah Jane Goldwire were living in Effingham County, Georgia, at the time of their marriage. James O. Goldwire stated in 1856 that his wife, Mariah Jane, was the daughter and only heir-at-law of Sarah Wylly.

The names of following children of James O. Goldwire and Mariah Jane appear:

Greene Carruthers Goldwire (daughter)	born January 30, 1834.
John William King "	" September 16, 1835.
Sarah Frances "	" October 22, 1837.

The following family data also appear: William George, son of George and Carolina King, born September 3, 1822.

In 1855 one Thomas M. Boston stated that he married Rebecca A. Goldwire, a relative of the family, and that she was then dead.

The papers in this claim contain no further data relative to the family of Thomas Wylly.

Very truly yours
