Suitable for this market, and the subscriber returneth his sincere thanks to his friends for the support he has met with, & hopes by his constant attendance, to calls, and the exertions used to keep generally assorted genuine medicines—still to receive their encouragement; while he will make it the interest of ALL, by vending on the most reasonable terms possible. He particularly calls the attention of Physicians wishing to lay in their supplies for the ensuing season, those of his regular customers and others, to embrace an early opportunity so to do, as the nature of our situation render it particularly difficult to keep our stocks entire at all seasons; and all orders sent to merchants of this city, inclined to favour me, will be gratefully received, and punctually attended to, on the best terms.

Chas. C. Dunn.

REGIMENTAL ORDERS.

In pursuance of General Orders from the Commander in Chief, dated Head Quarters, 24th January, 1815, all the troops composing the 2d Regiment of Georgia Cavalry, will hold themselves in readiness to rendezvous at a moment's warning, at such places as may hereafter be pointed out, completely equip'd, to act as Dragoons or Mounted Infantry, as the occasion may require. The Captains will be permitted to fill their troops from the 3d and 3d classes of the militia, and such as cannot be equip'd as Cavalry will provide themselves with a good firelock fit for actual service.
Commanding officers of troops are ordered to make correct returns of the present state of their respective corps to the adjutant without delay.

By order of

Lieut. Col. WILLIAMS,

2d Regiment Georgia Cavalry

ROBt WATKINS, Adjutant.
