Preface.

INCREASING efforts of Parish Register and other Societies, and of individuals—notably Mr. W. P. W. Phillimore, who is attacking the Marriage Registers with such conspicuous vigour—to rescue from the ravages of time and human frailty, by means of the Printing Press, the unique and invaluable information contained in our Parish Registers, render it very desirable that without delay a Record, which can be kept annually up to date, of what has been done in this direction, should be obtainable by those for whose ultimate benefit these endeavours are being made. This Index is intended to provide such a Record, and, if its continued existence be desired, it is proposed to reprint periodically, at intervals of not less than 3 years, and to issue an annual Supplement in intervening years, containing a list of those Registers which have been printed, in part or whole, during the preceding twelve months.

To render it of the proper utility, in saving both the time and temper of those who may refer to it—

- (i) the Parishes are arranged topographically, according to County ;
- and (ii) mere Extracts, which do not profess to note every Entry in the corresponding part of the Parish Register, are rigidly excluded.

The absence of either, or both, of these essentials has been a serious drawback to the usefulness of most lists hitherto published.

An altogether new feature of this Index is that it contains references to certain important Public Libraries, where copies of the Printed Registers may be found. It was originally my intention to refer in this way only to the Libraries at the British Museum, and the Guildhall, in London, and I am indebted to Mr. C. W. Sutton, Chief Librarian of the Manchester Public Library, which possesses such a fine collection of these productions, for the suggestion to extend this feature of the work to leading Provincial Libraries: moreover, it is due to his kind and valuable help that it has been possible to make the work entirely reliable in its references to the magnificent Library under his care, and give greater completeness to the Index generally. In the same connection I gratefully acknowledge assistance received from Mr. T. W. Hand, of the Leeds Public Library, as also from Mr. H. M. Wood, B.A., Hon. Sec. and Treas. of the Durham and Northumberland Parish Register Society, who has such an intimate knowledge of these matters in the case of the Northern Counties, and has himself transcribed not a few of their Parish Registers, while my list of printed Non-Parochial Registers owes many items to the kind and ready help of the Rev. George Eyre Evans, of Aberystwith, the great authority on these Records, and energetic transcriber of many of them.

It will be gratifying to me to receive encouragement from Librarians to extend still further the references to British Public Libraries.

The Index also contains a list of unprinted Transcripts, accessible in the Public Libraries, which the kind co-operation of their respective Librarians has enabled me to make more or less complete, and may, if time permit, be supplemented with a list of printed Registers, other than Church Registers.

It only remains to add, in conclusion, that I shall be glad to be informed of all errors and omissions, and to be kept promptly posted up with all the work that is being done in the way of printing Church Registers, so that it may be duly notified in the Annual Supplement.

GEORGE F. MATTHEWS.
