PREFACE.

The Bishop of St. Germans, in the charge delivered by him as Archdeacon of Cornwall in April last, gave a carefully prepared and succinct account of Parish Registers and their history. Those who are so fortunate as to possess a copy of his Lordship's charge would do well to preserve it for the purposes of reference, for it would be difficult within so small a compass to obtain a better digest of the subject. The words of encouragement and of appreciation which he bestowed upon the present series call for our dutiful acknowledgments. We are grateful to him for calling attention to this work and for commending it to the notice of clergy and laity alike. It is a work which, as the Bishop pointed out in his charge, has gone steadily forward for nearly eight years, and yet shows no signs of deterioration or collapse. On the contrary, the Editors have every hope, so long as the measure of support is continued, that the useful work of printing all the Parish Registers will be brought to a successful conclusion. While it would be untrue to say that the issue of the twelve volumes has been unattended with anxiety and disappointment, it is a matter for congratulation that there has been no opposition to the work, although some in its inception imagined there would be, and what difficulties there have been, have been passive rather than active. The clergy, to whose kindness we are indebted for permission to copy and print about 70,000 marriages, have done what probably no other body of men would have done. They have not only tolerated but encouraged our frequent visits. They have dispensed hospitality freely and generously. They have placed their registers at our service. And they have done all this with a tact and a delicacy which has left us with the most pleasant recollections.

In the present volume are contained all the Gwinear marriages up to 1812, a collation of the published Gulval marriages with the Bodmin transcripts; also those marriages solemnized at Madron, Morvah and Penzance which follow upon those recorded in the volume published by Mr. G. B. Millett in 1877. It seems, on the whole, more likely to meet the wishes of subscribers that the contents of this volume should consist of matter which is entirely original than of matter some of which has already appeared in print, especially when it is remembered that both the Gulval Registers published by Messrs. W. Bolitho and G. B. Millett, and also the Madron volume referred to, can still be obtained. The present volume is smaller by a few pages than some of its predecessors owing to the difficulty of procuring a western parish with the requisite number of entries. In the next, which will probably consist of western parishes, it may be possible to make compensation for this. Subscribers will be glad to know that Mr. Charles F. Cole, of Meudon Vean, who copied the Mawnan entries, has finished Budock and has undertaken St. Gluvias for us. The Editors will be glad to welcome similar assistance in other parts of the county.

Cornwall Parish Registers.

Marriages at Madron,

1674 to 1812.

NOTE.—For reasons which are sufficiently explained in the Preface it has seemed superfluous to reprint here the Marriages contained in Volume I. The Marriages in that volume (which has been carefully repaired and is in excellent order) are from 1571 to 1677. From the latter date to 1700 there is a hiatus in the parochial record, which in the following list is partly supplied by the Bodmin Transcripts. Volume II., well preserved and legible throughout though the binding is somewhat decayed, contains Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, from 1700 to 1736. Volume III. resembles Volume II. and continues the record of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 1737 to 1755. Volume IV. gives the Marriages for Madron and Morvah in the form prescribed by Hardwicke's Act from 1754 to 1800. Volume V. is a continuation of Volume IV. up to 10 September, 1810. Volume VI. is a transcript, on parchment, of all the entries contained in Volume V. together with the legally attested entries from 10 September, 1810, to the end of the year 1812.

The following list of the Marriages has been made by the Rev. T. Taylor, by permission of the Rev. William Borlase Tremeneere, M.A., Vicar of Madron with Morvah, and with his consent it is now printed.

Marriages at Morvah,

1617 to 1772.

NOTE.—The earliest Morvah Register is in excellent preservation. The leaves are of parchment. It contains marriages from 1617 to 1763, Baptisms from 1653 to 1812, and Burials from 1655 to 1812. The entries from 1617 to 1704 are all in the same handwriting. A note at the end of the marriages states that "for marriages in Morvah from 1754 to 1813, see Madron Register." The Rev. W. B. Tremenhore, M. A., Vicar of Madron and Morvah, has given permission for the printing of the marriages, which have been extracted for the purpose by the Rev. T. Taylor.

Gulval.

NOTE.—There are, at Bodmin, transcripts of Gulval Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, for the following years :—1674, 1681, 1683, 1684, 1686, 1687, 1690, 1693-1697, 1700, 1701, 1703, 1704, 1708, 1710, 1711, 1713-1716, 1719-1727, 1729-1736, 1741-1772. Hereunder are given the results of a collation of Messrs. Millett and Bolitho's Gulval Registers, with the transcripts. The variations are remarkably few, and witness alike to the care with which the register was kept and to the accuracy of the published volume.

The Bodmin Transcript reads :—

Marriages at Gwinear,

1560 to 1812.

NOTE.—Volume I. of the Gwinear Registers contains Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials, from 1560 to 1736. It is quite legible throughout, but the outer edges of some of the leaves are much worn and in places are defective. Volume II. is in good condition, and gives Baptisms and Burials, from 1737 to 1812, and Marriages from 1737 to 1755. Both of these volumes require to be repaired and rebound. Volume III. gives the rest of the marriages up to 1812, in the form prescribed by Hardwicke's Act. The Rev. T. Taylor has copied the marriages, and they are here printed by permission of the Rev. Arthur J. Perry, M.A., Vicar of Gwinear.
