P R E F A C E.

It will, doubtless, be a source of satisfaction to those who are interested in the present work, including a large number who are not subscribers to it, to know that at length more than one-half of the Marriages recorded in the Registers of the county of Cornwall up to the year 1812 are now in print, and that there is a well-grounded hope of the present work being brought to a successful issue within a reasonable space of time.

The present volume deals with six parishes on or near the eastern border of the county, and exhausts all the available material in that direction. There is, however, reason to believe that by the time the returns of western parishes, which are in various stages of preparation, have been issued, a fresh supply will be forthcoming from that quarter.

In the preface to the last volume attention was called to the valuable work of Mr. G. Jasper Nicholls in making an index to the Exeter Transcripts. To Mr. Nicholls we are indebted for those portions of the prefatory notes of the several parishes in this volume which deal with those Transcripts.

It may be a convenience for subscribers to have the following alphabetical index to the parishes, the Marriages of which have been printed in the present series, with the number of the volume in which they are contained :—

Cornwall Parish Registers.

Marriages at Boyton,

1568 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Marriage record of Boyton is defective. Such Marriages as have been preserved up to 1812 are contained in a well bound and well preserved volume with parchment leaves. The lists appear to be fairly complete from 1568 to 1671, the Commonwealth Marriages being given with considerable detail prefaced by a statement that the marriage contract had been previously published on three successive market days in the market-place of Launceston. The gaps 1671 to 1692 and 1719 to 1738 are unaccountable. For the period 1754 to 1812 the weddings were probably entered in accordance with Hardwicke's Act in a separate volume which has been lost. As far as possible the defects have been supplied from the Bodmin Transcripts. Mr. G. Jasper Nicholls, LL.B., however, reports transcripts at Exeter for the years 1611, 1624, 1630, 1632, 1670, 1672, 1673, 1737-40, 1800, 1803, also for two years between 1629 and 1638 signed by Edmund Sharpland, and he suspects the existence of a continuous series from 1774 to 1812, but these have not been examined.

The Rev. T. Taylor and the Rev. F. Thomas have copied the parochial entries, which are printed by leave of the Rev. T. Walters, M.A., Vicar of Boyton.

Marriages at Linkinhorne,

1576 to 1812.

NOTE.—The first volume of the Linkinhorne registers has suffered from damp and is in a very dilapidated condition. It gives Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials from 1576 to 1723, the record being somewhat irregular and some years being missing towards the end. The entries in this volume are perversely entered in alphabetical order of the bridegrooms' Christian names. This futile arrangement, which may also be found in the older Kalendars of some of the Courts of Probate has not been disturbed in the present work because it enables the original to be consulted more readily. The second volume, in excellent preservation, contains Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 1725 to 1812.

Besides the above there is a fragment of a small book, marked O, without cover, of which several leaves are missing, which gives entries from 1692 to 1725 approximately. There is also a small book of affidavits relating to burials in woollen.

The following list of the Marriages, printed by permission of the Rev. C. C. C. Bosanquet, M.A., Vicar of Linkinhorne, has been extracted by Mrs. J. H. Glencross, who has also collated it with the Bodmin Transcripts.

Mr. Nicholls' examination of the Exeter Transcripts shows that there are Linkinhorne Transcripts for the years 1611, 1623, 1633, 1642, 1663, 1664, 1665, 1672, 1737-1740 inclusive, and for a year not stated but prior to 1642.

Marriages at St. Mellion,

1558 to 1812.

NOTE.—The first volume of the St. Mellion registers contains Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 1558 to 1751. It has been rebound, and although some portions of it are indecipherable, the greater part of it is in good preservation. The second volume gives Baptisms and Burials from 1751 to 1812, and Marriages from 1751 to 1753 inclusive. The third volume contains Marriages only, from 1754 to 1812, entered in accordance with Hardwicke's Act.

Mrs. Glencross has extracted the Marriages hereunder given by the kind permission of the Rev. F. T. Wintle, M.A., Rector of St Mellion.

Mr. G. Jasper Nicholls reports the existence of St. Mellion Transcripts at Exeter for the years 1609, 1610, 1623, 1624, 1626, 1631 (bis), 1664, 1665, 1672, 1673, 1737-1740. He also presumes that omitting the year 1803 a continuous series will be found there from 1774 to 1812. The Bodmin Transcripts have been examined and have supplied the additions and corrections given below in italics.

Marriages at Morwinstow,

1558 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Morwinstow registers are exceptionally well preserved and practically complete from 1558 up to the present time. The earlier entries in the first volume were copied into it in or about the year 1607 by the Rev. Richard Earle who probably succeeded the Rev. Thomas Kempthorne as Vicar, having two years previously married his daughter Katherine. This volume gives Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 1558 to 1695. The second volume continues the record of Marriages to the year 1775 and of Baptisms and Burials to 1777. Both of the above volumes were rebound in 1877 at the cost of Mr. Edward Shearme, of Stratton. The third and fourth volumes, containing Marriages only, entered according to the prescribed form cover the periods 1754-1775 and 1775-1812 respectively. There is therefore a duplicate record of Marriages from 1754 to 1775.

Mrs. Glencross has copied the Marriages for the present work by leave of the Rev. Herbert Lynne Jones, M.A., Vicar of Morwinstow.

At Exeter Mr. Nicholls reports an unusually large number of Morwinstow transcripts. These are for the years 1597-1602, 1612-1614, 1620, 1623-1625, 1630, 1638, 1664, 1665, 1668, 1671, 1672, 1737-1740, probably for the period 1774-1812, also for a year between 1610 and 1620, for a year between 1630 and 1640, and for a year unknown.

Marriages at South Petherwyn,

1656 to 1812.

NOTE.—The following list of the South Petherwyn Marriages has been extracted by the Rev. P. T. Pulman, B.C.L., Vicar of South Petherwyn with Trewen, and is printed by his permission. Both parishes having been formerly peculiars of the Bishop of Exeter, there are no transcripts of their registers at Bodmin. An examination of the returns preserved at Exeter has been made by Mr. G. Jasper Nicholls, LL.B., and has revealed the existence of South Petherwyn transcripts for the years 1608, 1609, 1625, 1629, 1638, 1662-1672 inclusive, 1682-1691 inclusive; South Petherwyn and Trewen transcripts for the years 1673-1681 inclusive, 1692-1706 inclusive, 1737-1758 inclusive, and for the year 1783. There is also a return for the year 1635 which is probably from South Petherwyn. The transcripts for the period 1737-1740 are contained in the bundles of the Bishop's peculiars and not, as in the case of other parishes, in the general bundles.

Marriages at Pillaton,

1557 to 1812.

NOTE.—The earlier portion of the first volume of the Pillaton registers is very regularly written by a scholarly hand, but after the year 1620 the writing is so bad as to be almost indecipherable. This volume gives Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 1557 to 1754. From the latter date up to 1812 the Marriages are entered in a separate volume. For the present work MRS. J. H. Glencross has extracted the Marriages which are printed by the kind permission of the Rev. Richard Hocking, rector of Pillaton.

At Exeter there are Pillaton transcripts for the years 1612, 1614, 1619, 1624, 1633, 1635 1663, 1665, 1670, 1672, 1673, 1688, 1737-1740, and probably for the period 1774-1812 with the exception of the year 1803.

VOLUME I.

“A Booke of Register contayninge the names of all them that have byne Christned Maryed and Buryed within the Parish of Pillyton from the fourteenth daye of Apryell in the yeare of our Lorde God one thousand fyve hundred fite and Seven.”

Marriages at Roche,

1578 to 1812.

NOTE.—The earliest Register at Roche is a fragment, much dilapidated and hard to decipher. It has been transcribed with great care by Mr. W. H. L. Shadwell, and the transcript, bound in vellum, has been presented by him to the parish. This Register dates from the year 1578 to the year 1708. The second volume supplies Marriages from 1710 to 1754, and the third, Marriages from 1754 to 1812. These have been copied by Mrs. Glencross, and are printed by permission of the Rev. A. Low, A.K.C., Rector of Roche, and Rural Dean of St. Austell.
