INTRODUCTION

Following the practice adopted in Volumes XV and XVI, the book now issued consists of a number of registers from adjacent parishes grouped together for convenience of reference. These three volumes include fifteen registers, and with those of Robert Hall and Hornby given in Volume IV, cover practically the whole of the northern part of Lancashire down to the River Ribble, the only exceptions being Goosnargh, Fernyhalgh, and Alston Lane, which will probably be included in the next volume of Lancashire registers along with Preston.

It is very unfortunate that the old mission of Ulverston, which represented all Lonsdale north of the sands, cannot produce any register older than the one now printed. Fr Thomas Daniel alias West, S.J., who was a well-known historian and genealogist, was in charge of this mission from 1767 to 1779, and it seems hardly credible that he did not keep a register ; but although every effort has been made to find one in various likely places, the search has so far proved fruitless.

A similar attempt at Thurnham was more fortunate, and resulted in the finding of a burial register not previously known to be in existence.

As the archdiocese of Liverpool contains some sixty old registers, all of which are now transcribed, whilst the diocese of Salford may yield about twenty more, some of which are also ready, and the total number printed is only twenty-one, it will be seen that there still remains much to be done for Lancashire alone.

Subscribers in the County Palatine, however, cannot expect to have any more work done at the expense of the Society for some time ; but as it is extremely desirable that these records should be preserved ere it is too late, it is to be hoped that when the present war is over, some effort may be made locally to collect funds for this purpose.

J. P. SMITH.

It seems only right to add that the cost of printing to the Society has been appreciably lightened by the payment by Mr W. B. S. Smith of £55, being £50 promised by his father, the late Mr William Smith, and an addition of his own.

JOSEPH S. HANSOM,
HON. SECRETARY.

THE CATHOLIC REGISTERS OF ST. MARY OF FURNESS, ULVERSTON, LANCASHIRE. 1812-1842.

HISTORICAL NOTES BY JOSEPH GILLOW.

Ulverston.

Ulverston is a parish in the hundred of Lonsdale, north of the Sands, Union of Ulverston, county palatine of Lancashire, 16 miles north-west by west of Lancaster. It is one of the manors within the Liberty of Furness, which on the erection of the abbey in 1127 was presented by Stephen, Earl of Boulogne, afterwards King of England, to the Cistercian monks as a part of the endowment of that foundation. When the first public Catholic chapel since the Reformation was erected in Ulverston about the opening of the nineteenth century, it was dedicated to the patroness of Furness, St. Mary, and the foundation-stone was brought from the abbey. Previous to this time the Faith in this district had been preserved through the ministration of priests sheltered in the houses of local gentry, briefly indicated by the following notices :

Kirkby Hall,

in the parish of Kirkby Ireleth, four and a half miles south-west of Ulverston, was the seat of the ancient Catholic family of Kirkby till it was seized early in the eighteenth century by the mortgagees of Col. Roger Kirkby, who had apostatised about the time of the Oates Plot. The mansion was a low strong structure of dark red stone, in the Tudor style, and an upper room served as a chapel, the walls being covered with ancient frescoes and black-letter inscriptions still existing. A small sacristy adjoined, and an opening in the corner of the chapel now leads to what has been supposed to be a secret hiding-place, though it looks as if it had been used as a confessional (C.R.S., vi, 339-40 ; Lord Burghley's Map of Lancashire, 1590, p. 2). There is no record preserved of the names of the priests who served this interesting pre-Reformation chapel, which is now only accessible through a hole in the ceiling of the passage below. On a cubical stone, probably part of a sundial, lying in front of the hall, long since converted into a farmstead, are the arms of the Kirkbys and Lowthers, the other two sides being inscribed with the initials of Roger Kirkby and his wife Anne, daughter of Sir John Lowther, of Lowther Castle, with the date 1639, and the initials of their four sons and eight daughters.

Hampsfeld Hall,

a venerable mansion in East Broughton, parish of Cartmel, was for some generations after the reign of Elizabeth a seat of the staunch Catholic family of Thornburgh (or Thornborough), but when they ceased to reside there is not recorded. The manor eventually passed into Protestant hands, and is now a farmhouse (C.R.S., vi, 251-3). The Thornburghs, through the families of Musgrave, Fitzwilliam, Plantagenet, and De Warren, traced their descent from William the Conqueror (Burke, Extinct Baronetage, 1838, p. 425).

Bigland Grange, in the same parish of Cartmel, was the seat of a junior branch of the Biglands, of Bigland Hall, in the township of Upper Holker, and was a missionary station till about the close of the seventeenth century (C.R.S., vi, 253).

Holker Hall,

in Lower Holker, in the parish of Cartmel, facing Ulverston across the water, was a large irregular erection forming two sides of a quadrangle, and from Reformation times was the residence of the descendants of Christopher Preston, second son of Sir Thomas Preston, of Preston Patrick and Under Levens, co. Westmorland, and the Manor of Furness Abbey and Holker Park, co. Lancaster. The family remained staunch to the old Faith till the apostacy of Thomas Preston, of Holker Hall, who took that step with a view to acquiring the estates of his distant relative, Sir Thomas Preston, of the Manor of Furness, 3rd and last Bart., some time after that gentleman joined the Society of Jesus in 1674. In this expectation, after years of litigation, he was partially successful, being rewarded by the Government with a long lease of the whole estate. Sir Thomas survived this unjust forfeiture of his vast estates, and died a lay-brother at Watten in 1709 (C.R.S., vi, 236-8). Holker Hall, which passed to the ducal family of Devonshire as related under Furness, is now the seat of Lord Richard Cavendish, brother to the present Duke. Though the secret chapel and priests' hiding-places can no longer be traced, it is understood that the old mansion is incorporated in the present noble structure.

Furness Abbey,

in the parish of Dalton, six miles south-west from Ulverston, after the dissolution in 1537 was retained by the Crown, but apparently leased to John Preston, of Preston and Under Levens, co. Westmorland, till in 5 James I it was purchased—with Holker and other extensive estates—by his son Thomas. He took up his residence at the abbey in a manor-house—still existing as the Furness Abbey Hotel—which he constructed on the north side of the church, at a distance of about 320 feet, where the vale is narrowest, near the principal entrance of the great enclosure, and on the site of—and probably incorporating a portion of—the abbot's quarters (West, Antiquities of Furness, 1774, preface). Henceforth it became known as the Manor of Furness, and the Prestons, who were staunch recusants, continued to reside there till Sir Thomas Preston, 3rd and last Bart., after the death of his second wife, the Hon. Mary Molyneux, daughter of Caryl, 3rd Viscount Molyneux, June 6, 1673, decided to renounce the world and embrace a religious life. He therefore went over to Flanders, and entered the Society of Jesus at Watten, June 28, 1674, as a scholastic novice, under the alias of Saville, but having scruples regarding the priesthood owing to his having been twice married, never could be induced to take holy orders, and so remained a formed-scholastic till his death at Watten, May 27, 1709, aged 66 (Foley, Records S.J., vii, 631). The loss of his only son Francis in 1672 had no doubt greatly influenced him in this resolution. He settled his estates in Westmorland and Northamptonshire, as well as certain properties in Lancashire, including that of Park Hall in Quernmore, on his two infant daughters, Mary and Anne. The former subsequently married William, Lord Herbert, 2nd Marquis of Powis, and the latter became the wife of Hugh, 3rd Lord Clifford of Chudleigh.

During the Oates Plot it was asserted that Sir Thomas had become a Jesuit priest, and had settled Furness Abbey and manor upon the Society.

His distant relative and namesake of Holker then apostatised, succeeded in circumventing the prior claims of the Prestons of Cockerham to the estates, and endeavoured by every means in his power to get the Crown to confiscate them as given to superstitious uses. After some years, and at enormous expense, he induced the Government to declare the forfeiture, whereupon he brought influence at court to represent his services to the State, and obtained from the Crown, first a long lease, and ultimately the possession of the whole estate. In 1690 he obtained a seat in Parliament for Lancaster, but died in London Jan. 31, 1696, leaving an only daughter and sole heiress, the wife of William Lowther, of Marske, co. York, and thus the Prestons of Holker became extinct in the male line. Her husband was created a baronet in the following year, and his grandson, Sir Thomas Lowther, 3rd and last Bart., devised all the estates inherited from the Prestons to his cousin, Lord George Augustus Cavendish, second son of the 3rd Duke of Devonshire, and he, dying unmarried in 1794, devised them to the Devonshire family, who now possess them.

The story of the Furness estates having been settled on the Jesuits was quite untrue. Sir Thomas Preston made a private disposition of his estate, etc., and some moneys were ordered to be paid to certain individuals, more or less of a religious character, amounting to no very great sum. These are specified in the "Articles of Agreement" between the trustees, Lord Carrington, Caryl Lord Molyneux, Richard Walmesley, and Robert Dalton, dated Nov. 8, 1677, now in the archives of the Earl of Sefton at Croxteth. He had, indeed, also secured three small farms comprising about 60 acres for the foundation of a noviciate for the English Province, but that being impracticable in England, the income was for many years devoted to the assistance of the Catholic missions in the Furness district. Two of these farms were in the parish of Dalton, and the other in the parish of Urswick. In 1711 they were vested in trust for the Society in the name of Lady Catherine Stourton, the heiress of the Walmsleys of Dunkenhalth, and in later years in the family of Petre. Out of the proceeds of the sale of this property at different periods, a sum of upwards of £1,500 was eventually expended upon the chapel and presbytery at Ulverston (Gibson, Lydiat Hall, pp. 46-7).

Owing to the Manor's isolated position from the civil and ecclesiastical authorities of the county, the Prestons did not suffer persecution on account of their Faith as severe as Catholics in other parts of Lancashire. John Preston, of Furness Abbey, appears in Lord Burghley's Map of Lancashire in 1590, but the significant cross is not attached to his name. In 1569 he had been high sheriff of the county, an office which his son Thomas filled in 1585, and does not seem to have been highly regarded by the council in consequence of his lack of severity towards Catholics. The latter's son, Thomas, who died at the Manor in 1604, married a daughter of that redoubtable Catholic, John Westby, of Mowbreck Hall, the brother-in-law of Vivian Haydock, "the fugitive," and the intimate friend and connection of Cardinal Allen (C.R.S., xv, 220). His son, John Preston, appears in the recusant rolls from their commencement till his death, March 27, 1643. In the report of a spy to the Government respecting the great pilgrimage to Holywell on St. Winefrid's Day, 1629 (C.R.S. iii, 108; Foley, Records S.J., iv, 534-5), it appears that among the assembly was Mr. John Preston, of the Manor, whom the spy says "hath two priests at his house, viz. Michill and Sefton." We also catch some few years earlier a glimpse of priests at the Manor in the MS. poem (apud me) by Fr. Laurence Anderton, S.J., alias "John Brekeley, Priest," otherwise called "silver-mouthed Anderton," on the occasion of the marriage of Mr. Preston's daughter Agnes with Christopher Anderton, of Lostock Hall. It seems probable that Fr. Anderton passed some of his missionary career at the Manor before he went to Lytham Hall about 1625 (C.R.S., xvi, 421). There were usually two or more priests residing at the Manor, but the names of only a few—though fairly consecutive—can be discerned through the mists of those terrible days of persecution. The following are those discovered :

Rev. John Michell, a native of Yorkshire, probably son of John Michell, of Crossley, Esq., passed M.A. at Oxford but being converted left the University and went to Douay College, where he was admitted Aug. 11, 1576. He was ordained deacon at Cambrai April 6, priest Sept. 19, said his first Mass at Douay Oct. 18, 1577, and having accompanied the collegians to Rheims in March, left there for the English mission Aug. 27, 1578 (Douay Diaries). He is mentioned in the report of a spy under date Jan. 20, 1593, as being in Lancashire (Dom. Eliz., xxxiii, n, 64). He was one of the assistants to the Archpriest, William Harrison, in 1619 (C.R.S., x, 175) ; and when Dr. William Bishop was consecrated to the see of Chalcedon and created Bishop of England and Scotland in 1623, Mr. Michell was elected one of the first sixteen archdeacons of the Chapter erected by the Bishop (Old Chapter Records MSS.). As previously related, he was one of Mr. John Preston's chaplains at the Manor in 1629, and probably died about that time. His confrère at the Manor was—

Rev. John Sefton, who must have passed at college under another name, as he is not identified in the diaries, was apparently still at the Manor in 1631, at which date his name is found in the notes of addresses by Dr. John Southcote (C.R.S., i, 115). In 1654 he is met with exercising his duties at Stockenbridge Hall (C.R.S., xv, 50), after which he disappears from sight.

Dom. John Dionysius Huddleston, O.S.B., born April 15, 1608, at Farington Hall, in Leyland Hundred, co. Lancaster, being the second son of Joseph Huddleston, of that place and Hutton John, co. Cumberland, Esq., by Eleanor, daughter of Cuthbert Sisson, of Kirkbarrow, co. Westmorland, Esq., is said to have been educated at Douay College, and ordained a secular priest, though his name does not appear in the published diaries. He is also said to have served as a volunteer in the royal service during the civil wars, but if he did so there can be little doubt that it was in the position of chaplain. From his Obituaries, edited by the present writer, C.R.S., i, 123-32, it is most probable that he resided at The Manor for some years between 1637 and 1645 as one of the chaplains to John Preston, who died in 1643, and his son and heir, Sir John Preston, created a baronet April 1, 1644, who raised a regiment at his own expense in defence of his sovereign, was fatally wounded whilst at its head in an engagement in Furness, and died in 1645. At this period Mr. Huddleston had probably left Furness, for he does not record Sir John's death in his Obituary. Subsequently—at what date is unknown—Mr. Huddleston joined the Benedictine Order, and was professed on the mission, was stationed at Somerset House, the palace of the queen-dowager, and reconciled Charles II to the Church on his deathbed, Feb. 5, 1685. His will is dated Jan. 30, 1693, and he died at Somerset House Sept. 22, 1698, aged 90.

After leaving Furness, Mr. Huddleston would appear to have served at Danby Hall or Grove House in Wensleydale (C.R.S., xiii, 233), and later was chaplain at Moseley House, co. Stafford, the seat of Thomas Whitgreave, Esq., where he undertook the education of a few youths of position, including Sir John Preston, 2nd Bart., who was there when Charles II took refuge in the chaplain's apartment and the adjoining hiding-place at Moseley after the battle at Worcester, Sept. 3, 1651. Sir John was stationed at one of the windows in the garrets of the house to give intelligence of the approach of troopers. Sir John died unmarried in April, 1661, and was succeeded by his brother, Sir Thomas Preston, the last baronet (Gillow, Biog. Dict., iii, 463-5). The next chaplain discovered at Furness was—

Rev. Richard Fletcher alias Barton, a native of Lancashire, perhaps a grandson of Barton Fletcher, of Pilkington, in the parish of Prestwich, who was buried there May 7, 1627, and whose will was proved at Chester in the same year (Lancs. Par. Reg. Soc., xxxiv, 102; Lancs. and Cheshire Rec. Soc., iv). He arrived from England at Douay College July 26, 1648, and was placed on the fund established by the late president, the Rev. George Fisher alias Muskett. He took the oath of the profession of faith Aug. 3, and that of the alumni Dec. 27, 1648, received the tonsure and minor orders at Douay May 13, 1649, and was appointed master of grammar at the opening of the scholastic year Oct. 1, 1653 (Douay Diaries, pp. 46, 81; Douay Diaries, C.R.S., xi, 496-7, 501, 528). Shortly after this he must have come to the English mission, and is first met with, in February, 1675, as a member of the Lancashire and Westmorland Clergy Common Fund, as exhibited in a document referring to the Fund found at Stonyhurst by one of Oates' associates, Robert Bolron, who was sent down by the conspirators to concoct a "Popish Plot" at Stonyhurst in 1679, as printed in his "Papists Bloody Oath of Secrecy," London, 1680.

In 1678 he appears as one of Sir Thomas Preston's chaplains at The Manor, which at the time was occupied by the baronet's daughters or representatives after his departure for Watten in 1674. When Oates was contriving his Plot, it was determined that the leading Catholics of Lancashire should be included, and though this attempt failed in the case of the Sherburnes of Stonyhurst and others, it was powerfully backed by several influential gentlemen of the neighbourhood—Daniel Fleming of Rydal, Col. Kirkby of Kirkby, Mr. Dodding of Conishead, and others—working in the interest of Thomas Preston of Holker to obtain the Furness estate on the plea of Sir Thomas Preston's reception into the Society of Jesus. In the Fleming of Rydal MSS. is a letter dated Gray's Inn, Oct. 29, 1678, from John Otway and Edward Rigby to Daniel Fleming of Rydal Hall, which states: "By Oates' information we find that one Barton, a Jesuit, is much concerned in the Plot. We hear that he is the person now at The Manor in Furness, with some other priests. It is therefore desired that you will forthwith cause the said Barton to be taken into custody. It is not amiss if you apprehend the rest of the priests at The Manor" (Adam Wilkinson, Hist. of Kendal MS., p. 139). Another letter referring to this matter amongst the State Papers (P.R.O., Dom. Charles II, n. 411, p. 45), from Daniel Fleming to Sir Joseph Williams, Secretary of State, dated Nov. 9, 1678, details his unsuccessful endeavours as a justice of the peace to apprehend "One Barton, a Jesuit, who hath of late dwelt at Sir Thomas Preston's house, called The Manor, in the north end of Lancashire." Barton and one Grimshaw had gone from there about a week before; the said Justice Fleming seized all the arms there, disarming two servants of Mr. Walmesley's of Wigan, whom he found there—"Besides what Mr. Oates hath informed against Mr. Barton, I doubt not Colonel Kirkby had acquainted you with what letters have fallen into my cousin Dodding's hands relating unto him, which shew him to be too guilty of this conspiracy." Amongst the Fleming of Rydal MSS. is another letter from Sir Joseph Williams to Daniel Fleming, dated Nov. 16, 1678, which says: "I have been wanting to acquaint the King with your care and diligence in the search after the priests. It is a time that calls for the help of all good men." There are other letters about the unsuccessful search for Mr. Barton till Dec. 11-15, 1678. In the following year, however, he was arrested, tried at Lancaster, and condemned to death for being a priest, but reprieved and pardoned (Dodd, Church History, iii, 400). After his release from the Castle in 1684, having been supported during his incarceration in Lancaster from the Clergy Common Fund (Kirk, Biog. Collections MSS.), he returned to the mission in Lancashire, apparently in West Derby Hundred, and signed the Declaration of the clergy of Lancashire, March 30, 1697, binding themselves at death to leave to the Church and pious uses such of their possessions as they might have accumulated by virtue of their ministry. Thus Mr. Barton continued till 1701, when he was buried at Harkirk (Crosby Records, p. 81).

Bro. Foley (Records S.J., v, 355; vii, 342), in his over-zeal for the Society, finding him called "Barton, a Jesuit," by Titus Oates, on the sole authority of that infamous informer who termed nearly all of his sacerdotal victims Jesuits, attributed his connection with Furness to a Jesuit named Thomas Hervey alias or vere Barton, although The Manor had ever been a secular chaplaincy.

Rev. Nicholas Grimshaw, the other chaplain at The Manor, baptised Dec. 9, 1630 (L.P.R. Soc., ii, 91), was the second son of John Grimshaw, of Clayton Hall, co. Lancaster, Esq., by Anne, daughter and coheirress of Abraham Colthurst, of Burnley, Esq., a family now represented by that of Trappes-Lomax, of Clayton Hall. According to Dugdale's Visitation of Lancashire in March, 1664, Nicholas Grimshaw was "a student at Doway in Flanders," though he does not appear under his own name in the printed diaries of the college. When he became a chaplain to Sir Thomas Preston is unrecorded, but he was one of them at the time of the raid on The Manor in 1678. Upon his flight he seems for a time to have sought refuge with his brother Richard at Clayton Hall, but the latter and his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Stephen Tempest, of Broughton Hall, co. York, Esq., were brought up, convicted of recusancy, and heavily fined in 1679, in which year it is probable that Nicholas Grimshaw was himself apprehended, and possibly died in prison, as he totally disappears from sight. Previously, about 1674 or 1675, Mr. Grimshaw had a controversy with the Vicar of Mitton, the Rev. Samuel Felgate, which the latter published under the title of "The Novelty of the Modern Romish Religion set forth in an Answer to three Queries propounded by N. G., Priest," London, 1682, treated at length by the writer in his Biog. Dict., iv, 324-6.

This raid appears to have completely broken up the chaplaincy at The Manor, and it was never revived so far as is known. The estate was soon afterwards seized by the Crown, and Mass ceased to be said at Furness Abbey.

Bardsea Hall,

two miles south by south-east from Ulverston, in the adjoining parish of Urswick, belonged to the manorial lords of the name till the last of the family, Nicholas Bardsea, was slain fighting in the royal cause in 1642. Some account of this very ancient Catholic family appears in Lord Burghley's Map of Lancashire, 1590, published by the C.R.S. in 1907, and in "The Manor of Bardsea, by Henry Ince Anderton," pp. 216-61, Trans. of the Cumb. and Westm. Antiq. and Arch. Soc., xii, New Series, 1912.

Dorothy Bardsea, the heiress of the family, married James Anderton, of Clayton Hall, Clayton-le-Woods, co. Lancaster, Esq., and thus Bardsea passed to that family, of which an account is given C.R.S., vi, 233-5. James Anderton died at Clayton, Nov. 8, 1630, and his wife May 5, 1627. Their son and heir, James, was aged over 55 in 1633; and his son and successor, James, was living at Bardsea a recusant and suspected royalist in 1655, but died in London in 1676, intestate and insolvent, and was buried in the cloisters of Westminster Abbey on July 11, leaving his widow Jane, who was residing a recusant at Bardsea Hall in 1679. Thurstan Anderton succeeded his brother James to Bardsea, died in 1683, and was buried with his ancestors at Leyland on Aug. 29. He was followed by another brother, Christopher, who was made a justice of the peace by James II in 1687, and as "Mr. Anderton of Bardsea" was buried at Urswick Dec. 14, 1694, the last male representative of the family, and Mary, his unmarried sister, inherited Bardsea. Another sister, Dorothy, born 1615, married Thomas Singleton, of Stayning Hall, Esq., and their three daughters became coheiresses to the Singletons and Andertons. The eldest, Anne Singleton, residing at various periods at Bardsea, Great Singleton, and Crank Hall in Rainford, died unmarried in 1719. The second, Mary Singleton, married John Mayfield, of Lytham, gent., and inherited Stayning Hall; and the third sister, Dorothy Singleton, married Alexander Butler, Esq., a younger son of the Rawcliffe Hall family, and inherited Todderstaffe Hall. Mrs. Singleton in her widowhood resided with her sister Mary at Bardsea Hall, and died there about 1696-7, and about 1701 the elder sister, Mary Anderton, sold Bardsea Hall to Lord Molyneux, and retired to Aldcliffe, where she died Feb. 22, 1708-9, and was buried at Lancaster.

Lord Molyneux used Bardsea Hall as a hunting-lodge, and Mass continued to be said in the old domestic chapel. Squire Tyldesley (Gillow, Tyldesley Diary, 1873, p. 37), under date July 6, 1712, says he heard "y^e old doct^r was buryed Fry-day beffor, at Bardsey," marking in the margin a cross-patriarchal, apparently to denote the sacerdotal character of the "Old Doctor," possibly a chaplain at the Hall. Later, May 23, 1713, the diarist records: "About 12 sett fforwards ffor Bardsey [from Lancaster] to vissitt my Lord Molineux affter y^e death of his Lady; p^d John Cart^r [the guide over the sands] 6^d, and the other gide 6^d; rought Bardsey about 4, where ffound my L^d, his 3 sons, Massey, William Molineux, and y^e bony Esq., all glade to see mee." Tyldesley remained at the Hall for five days, when he left to return to Lancaster, "about 5 post prandium." The Lady Molyneux, wife of William, 4th Viscount Molyneux, was Bridget, daughter and heiress of Robert Lucy, of Charlecot, co. Warwick, Esq., and died April 23, 1713, aged 57. The Viscount died March 8, 1717-8, aged 61. One of the chaplains at Croxteth Hall usually accompanied Lord Molyneux on his visits to Bardsea, and one of them, Fr. Thomas Worthington, O.P., notes serving at Bardsea Hall on Aug. 25, 1717 (C.R.S., xiii, 226). In 1732 Bardsea Hall was sold by the Molyneux family to Christopher Wilson, of London, and successively descended to the Braddyls and Gales, thus passing into Protestant hands after being a shelter for an altar and priest from the overthrow of the old religion.

Bardsea Hall stands on the west side of the road from Ulverston, in a well-sheltered situation, and surrounded by a spacious and nicely wooded park commanding extensive views over Morecambe Bay. It still presents features of considerable interest, parts of the structure dating from the early part of the eighteenth century, and incorporating some of a yet more ancient building. It was much altered and enlarged by the Gales. Extensive gardens behind the house are laid out in terraces rising one above another on the sloping side of the rock.

The only name of a chaplain found residing in the Hall during the time of the Andertons is—

Fr. Clement Smith, S.J., a native of Warwickshire, born in 1657, who studied at St. Omer's College, entered the Society at Watten, Sept. 7, 1678, in due course received holy orders, and came to the mission in Lancashire. Dr. Oliver (Collectanea S.J.) suspects that the Furness district was the seat of his labours. At the time of the Orange Revolution in December, 1688, he appears to have been at Bardsea Hall, and the Annual Letters for that year give a graphic narrative of his troubles. The mansion was beset by a No-Popery mob of nearly three hundred men, and it was almost by a miracle that the good Father escaped. He spent weeks in hiding from his pursuers, and for three months he was compelled to lie so closely concealed that he was unable even to pace about his chamber. For a whole year he dare not use either fire or candle lest he should be betrayed by the light. Indeed, for two years he was unable to leave the house where he was harboured save at night. Such sufferings, combined with constant mental anxiety, naturally undermined his constitution, and he died at Bardsea Hall, Sept. 8, and was buried from thence at Urswick Sept. 16, 1695, aged 38 (Foley, Records S.J., v, 356-7; Lancs. Par. Reg. Soc., vol. xxxix).

Rampside Hall,

in the township of Yarleside, parish of Dalton, five miles south from Dalton, was the seat of the ancient family of Knipe, who appear in the recusant rolls from their commencement in the reign of Elizabeth. John Knipe, of Rampside Hall, was a captain in the royal army during the civil wars, and was slain at the battle of Brindle Heath Aug. 23, 1651. The will of his son and heir, James, was proved in 1694. The hall was a refuge for missionary priests, as likewise—in the township of Hawcoat, formerly in the same parish, but now part of the borough of Barrow, the seat of the Lacy family in the latter half of the seventeenth century (C.R.S., vi, 238).

Newbarns,

Dalton-in-Furness,

the parish in which is situated the Abbey, the castle of the Peel of Fouldrey, and the ancient Tower of Dalton, became the seat of a Jesuit mission through the munificence of Sir Thomas Preston some years after the chaplaincy at The Manor was broken up. As related under Furness Abbey, Sir Thomas settled upon the Society three small farms, two of them in Dalton, and the third in the parish of Urswick. Out of the rents of this property the Province S.J. allowed a sum of £20 per annum towards the maintenance of a Father to serve the district. The first on record was apparently Fr. Clement Smith, who died at Bardsea Hall in 1695, as already related. The next of whom we have any definite knowledge was—

Fr. William Gardner alias Taylor, S.J., who was born in this part of Lancashire in 1651, entered the Society Sept. 7, 1673, was ordained priest April 5, 1681, and came to the mission in his native county, where he served, with a brief interval in 1696, till his death. In 1701 and again in 1704 he is found serving what was called The Manor Mission, with the salary previously stated (Foley, Records S.J., v, 320-1). On Oct. 2, 1716, he was residing in the parish of Pennington, 1½ miles west by south-west of Ulverston, and was convicted of recusancy at the Lancaster Sessions held on that date under the description of "Tho. Tayler als. Garner" (P.R.O. Forfeited Estates, 62 p.). In the "Return of the High Constable for the North syde of the Sands in the Hundred of Loynsdale" in October, 1716 (ibid., L. 2), under the township of Leece, parish of Aldingham, in Low Furness, he states: "An estate of Mr. Taylor, a suspected Romish Priest lying att Stone dikes in the s^d Townpp valued att £12 p an. The personall estate of the s^d Mr. Taylor in the townpp of Pennington, where he resides, valued at £08 . 00 . 00. An estate called Goldmire lying near Dalton in the s^d co. heretofore lett by one Geo. Kemp, steward or serv^t to Sir Nicholas Sherburn for the sum of £6 p an. & supposed to be to the use of the s^d Mr. Taylor. A pcell of ground now farmed by one Thos. Brigg of Holbeck at £3 p an., the rent supposed to be to the use of the s^d Mr. Taylor." Again, amongst the same Forfeited Estates Papers, B. 62, is an information dated Nov. 20, 1716, referred to the Master of References, that Thomas Briggs and Thomas Browne of Dalton-in-Furness pay rent to Mary Richardson (for lands in Dalton) to one Taylor a priest. In 1717, according to an obviously incorrect official return there were only seven known Catholics in Dalton, Kirkby Ireleth, Rampside, Walney, Pennington, etc. When the severity of the persecution had subsided, Fr. Taylor settled in Dalton, where he resided till his death, April 1, 1725, aged 74 (Foley, Records S.J., vii, 287, 765). After his death, some time seems to have elapsed before the appointment of a permanent successor to the mission, and for a time it was served by an itinerant Benedictine, or Riding Priest, who attended to Kendal, Workington, and Furness districts.

Dom William Bede Hutton, O.S.B., a native of Eldon, co. Durham, professed at Lambspring in 1713, and ordained priest in 1720, who came to the Benedictine North Province in 1731, was placed at Stella, near Newcastle, till 1735, when he was transferred to Kendal, and thence served the wide district mentioned above till 1747. He then removed to Hesleyside, co. Northumberland, where he died May 29, 1756. Possibly some of his successors at Kendal or Sizergh Castle continued the same service. Anyhow, the next priest on record was—

Fr. Thomas Daniel alias West, S.J., the historian of Furness, born in Scotland in 1717, but according to Oliver, Collectanea S.J., p. 39, Jan. 1, 1720, who made his early studies at the public schools in Edinburgh, and became for a time a commercial traveller. At the age of thirty-one or more he went to St. Omer's College, entered the Society at Watten Sept. 7, 1751, and made his higher studies at Liège, where he was ordained priest. For a time he was chaplain at Swynnerton Hall, co. Stafford, the seat of the Fitzherberts, thence probably succeeded Fr. John Williams, S.J., to the mission at "The Star" in Holywell in 1761, and finally came to Dalton in Furness, where he appears in the return made by the vicar of the parish to the Bishop of Chester in 1767, being credited with a congregation of 23. He resided at Tytup—or as Fr. West himself spelt it, Titeup—Hall, in the chapelry of Ireleth in the north-western end of Dalton. It is believed that this fine example of a moderately-sized gentleman's house of the period, replete with handsome wainscoting and other internal embellishments, was originally called Orgrave Hall. Here he compiled his elaborate and erudite work, entitled: "The Antiquities of Furness, or an Account of the Royal Abbey of St. Mary," which he dedicated in 1774 to the Right Hon. Lord George Cavendish. This gentleman was the owner of Furness, and was intimate with Fr. West. According to a memorandum at Hornby in Fr. West's hand, his lordship made him the offer of a crypt in the Abbey to be converted into a chapel for the use of the neighbouring Catholics, which for certain reasons the good Father was unable to accept (Gibson, Lydiat Hall, p. 47). A friend, Mr. James Collinson, of Lancaster, writing to Fr. West, under date Nov. 21, 1775, says: "I suppose you intend to winter at Titeup, which is but a bleak and cold situation, far from society, so that could you meet with convenient lodgings at Ulverston, which is at no great distance, and stay there two or three of these dark and gloomy months, it would in my opinion, be far more comfortable." Fr. West seems to have taken the advice, at any rate he had removed to Swarthmoor Hall, just outside the town, in 1776, and there Mass was said till 1777. He then rented or purchased what was known as the "First House" in Ulverston, that is the fourth existing house from the old chapel, and made it his residence. It seems probable that for some years he had taken pupils, otherwise he could not have required or maintained such capacious residences as Tytup Hall or First House.

In 1778, Fr. West published his "Guide to the Lakes, Dedicated to the Lovers of Landscape Studies, and to all who have visited, or intend to visit, the Lakes of Cumberland, Westmoreland, and Lancashire," which passed through many editions. In 1779 his address was at "Ellers, near Ulverston." His end was close at hand, and during one of his occasional visits to Sizergh, co. Westmorland, the seat of the Stricklands, he died in the castle July 10, 1779, aged 62. He was interred according to his own request in the choir or chapel belonging to the Stricklands in Kendal parish church (Gillow, Biog. Dict., ii, 15-6; Foley, Records S.J., v, 357, vii, 192; Mannex, Hist., Topogr. and Directory of Westmorland, and the Hundreds of Lonsdale and Amounderness in Lancashire, 1851, p. 416; West's MSS. at Hornby).

From a letter of the Rev. John Chadwick, grand-vicar to Bishop William Walton, V.A.-N.D., at York, dated Jan. 17, 1780 (Ushaw Collections MSS., ii, 445), it appears that the vacancy at Ulverston had not been filled at that date. Fr. West's successor was—

Fr. John Sale, S.J., born Oct. 20, 1722, second son of William Sale, of Hopcar, in Bedford, parish of Leigh, co. Lancaster, gent., by Jane, daughter of Edmund Tristram, of Ince Blundell, yco. (C.R.S., vol. vi), who entered the Society at Watten Sept. 7, 1741, and after ordination came to the English mission. He served Holywell, co. Flint, for a time, Crosby Hall and Bedford Leigh, co. Lancaster, for some years, and finally came to Ulverston in or about 1780. Here he remained till his death, Oct. 23, 1791, aged 69, administration to his effects being granted on the following Feb. 6. It is not improbable that he continued to receive pupils like Fr. West. He was succeeded—after an interval of some three years, during which Ulverston received temporary service—by a very eminent theologian—

The Very Rev. Patrick Everard, D.D., late rector of the Irish College at Bordeaux, and V.G. to the archbishop of that see, who had escaped to England during the French Revolution. He was a member of the very ancient family of Everard of Fethard, co. Tipperary, and was born in 1753. He received his classical education in the local grammar-school, and thence was sent to the Irish College at Salamanca in Spain, where he was ordained priest in 1783, having taken his degree of S.T.D. He went to the Irish College at Bordeaux, of which, soon afterwards, upon the resignation of Dr. Glynn, he was appointed rector, and so continued till the Revolution necessitated his flight. Previous to this, the Archbishop of Bordeaux had made him the sole administrator of his diocese. It is said in Dr. Everard's Memoir, by the Rev. Thomas B. Allan, that in passing through London in his flight he was introduced to Edmund Burke, who was so fascinated with his courtly manners and conversational powers, that he became his attached friend, and introduced him to the leading statesmen and principal Catholics of England. The superior of the "gentlemen of the ex-Society," whose numbers had considerably diminished since their suppression in 1773, handed over to him as locum tenens the Ulverston mission. Here, in the large house known as the First House, secured by Fr. West, Dr. Everard established a school for the sons of the Catholic aristocracy, such as the Mostyns of Talacre, Stapletons of Carlton, Cliftons of Clifton and Lytham, Stricklands of Sizergh, and many other well-known northern families.

The First House, now divided into two residences situated at the end of Fountain Street, was a commodious building with a large paved court-yard and extensive stabling accommodation, to which a later erection, now likewise divided into two houses, was probably added by Dr. Everard. It stood beneath the shade of a few ancient sycamores, somewhat to the front of the subsequent day-school premises bearing the inscription, "Catholic School. A.D. 1824." The doctor also possessed two fine gardens near the school, as well as some fields just outside the town called "Gill Banks," now public pleasure grounds. The annual pension paid by the pupils ranged from £200 to £400, and the young gentlemen, some twenty in number, kept their own horses and dogs. They followed the hounds, dined, danced, and went to card parties at the houses of the neighbouring county families, and were accompanied by the great doctor himself on such occasions.

After using for some time a room in the house as a chapel, Dr. Everard erected about 1806 a small one adjoining, dedicated to Our Lady of Furness, later incorporated in a more pretentious building by his successor. Thus he continued until 1810, when the bishops of Ireland—probably through the instrumentality of his friend, Dr. Lingard—elected him, on the feast of SS. Peter and Paul, president of Maynooth College. He was then in his fifty-eighth year, and, unfortunately, his health was greatly impaired, hence his term of residence at Maynooth never seems to have been continuous. Indeed, he is found recruiting his broken strength at Ulverston in the year of his installation, and revisited it again and again, till finally he resigned the presidency, Jan. 25, 1813, and returned to his school at Ulverston. In the following year he was elected coadjutor to Dr. Bray, archbishop of Cashel, with the right of succession, Sept. 19, his brief to the archbishopric of Mitilene in partibus being dated Oct. 4, 1814, and he was consecrated at Cork April 24, 1815. Upon the death of Archbishop Bray in 1820, Dr. Everard became archbishop of Cashel and Emly in December of that year, but he was not destined to wear the pallium for more than three months, for he died in March, 1821, aged 68 (Allan, Memoir; Brady, Episcop. Succession, ii, 30; Gillow, Biog. Dict., ii, 188; Foley, Records S.J., v, 353). He was succeeded at Ulverston by—

Fr. Nicholas Sewall, S.J., born in Maryland, Dec. 9, 1745, who, after serving various Lancashire missions, came to Ulverston in 1814, and continued nominal rector for some years, after he was elected rector of Stonyhurst College in September, 1816, for his signature appears in the registers from Dec. 25, 1816, till June 1, 1819 (Foley, Records S.J., vii, 701). When he came he obtained the assistance of a secular priest to act as locum tenens in the rector's absence, and to conduct the school. This was the—

Rev. Bartholomew McHugh, who had in the previous year come over from Ireland to Liverpool as assistant to the Rev. Thomas Penswick, subsequently bishop, at the new church of St. Nicholas, Copperas Hill.

In consequence of some difference with Mr. Penswick, he took up the position at Ulverston. When Fr. Sewell removed in 1816, Mr. McHugh returned to Liverpool, and opened a small academy in Richmond Row, Everton, but in 1818 he transferred his school back to Ulverston, having made final arrangements with the Jesuits.

On June 27, 1822, he laid the foundation-stone—brought from Furness Abbey—of a new church, though the old chapel was incorporated. For the period it had some pretensions, the walls being crenellated, and the ceiling of the chapel being modelled after one remaining in the Abbey ruins. It was opened Sept. 9, 1823. In the following year he erected the school at Tarnside behind the church, bearing a stone inscribed "Catholic School. A.D. 1824," and in 1832 he added a tower to the church, which still stands, though the quaint-looking church with its embattled square tower is now used for the equally quaint purpose of an Oddfellows' Hall. In 1835 he removed his boarding school to Hammershead Villa, a handsome residence in the Elizabethan style, which he had himself erected. In 1841 he was elected a guardian, at the head of the poll. Shortly before his death he tendered his resignation of the mission, but almost immediately afterwards was suddenly taken ill, died at his residence at Ulverston the same evening, March 14, 1844, aged 56, and was interred in the church he had completed (Gillow, Biog. Dict., iv, 384).

During his term the names of the following priests appear in the registers as assisting in the mission—

Dom Thomas Clement Rishton, O.S.B., of Workington, July 25, 1819.

Rev. Henry Carter, late of Newhouse (C.R.S., xv, 320), and then living retired in Preston, July 18, 1822, to March 23, 1823, and as sponsor June 24, 1823, and Jan. 24, 1824.

Rev. Edward Doherty, Aug. 6-9, and Sept. 26, 1829.

Fr. George Connell, S.J., Sept. 6, 1840, and May 9, 1841, superior of the district (Foley, Records S.J., vii, 157).

Fr. Maurice Mann, S.J., Sept. 8-17, 1843, from Stonyhurst (Foley, ibid., vii, 484).

Fr. Joseph Postlethwaite, S.J., Dec. 14, 1843, who about this time had left the Society, but was re-admitted March 1, 1845 (Foley, ibid., vii, 618).

Fr. Thomas Clarke, S.J., of Stonyhurst, May 5, 1844 (Foley, ibid., vii, 134).

Upon Mr. McHugh's death, the Society sent a locum tenens in the person of—

Rev. John George Morris, who after the break-up of the college at Liège during the Revolution rejoined the community at Stonyhurst June 22, 1795, was ordained, but remained a secular priest devoted to the service of the Society, and subject to its superiors. He left Stonyhurst in 1808 for Preston, thence was sent in 1826 to establish a new mission at Wakefield, whence he came in 1844 to Ulverston. Retiring on account of advanced age and sickness, he died shortly afterwards at Birkenhead, Oct. 9, 1855 (Foley, Records S.J., vii, 526; Hatt, Stonyhurst Lists; Catholic Dir., 1856). He was succeeded by—

Fr. Alfred Weld, S.J., younger son of George Weld, of Leagram Hall, co. Lancaster, Esq., J.P., D.L., who served the mission from August to November, 1855.

Fr. William Cobb, S.J., November, 1855, to January, 1856 (Foley, ibid., vii, 144).

Fr. Richard Corr, S.J., January to August, 1856 (Foley, ibid., 172).

Fr. Bernard Jarrett, S.J., 1856, till the Society handed over the mission to the Bishop of Liverpool, who appointed—

Rev. Peter Lavery, 1856 to 1877. At his coming Ulverston was the only mission in Lonsdale north of the Sands, a district of about 244 square miles. The necessity of establishing new missions was apparent, especially at the rapidly-growing town of Barrow-in-Furness, where St. Mary's was commenced in 1865, St. Patrick's in 1877, and the Sacred Heart in 1902. Other missions in the district were founded at Coniston, the Sacred Heart, 1866, church opened 1872, and at Dalton-in-Furness, Our Lady of the Rosary, school chapel 1879.

Rev. William Massey, 1877-86. He purchased the site for a new mission at Grange-over-Sands, two miles from Cartmel Priory, but the Rev. John Bilsborrow, subsequently Bishop of Salford, was appointed the first incumbent in 1882. For eighteen months Mass was said in Kent's Ford House, the residence of John Sutcliffe-Witham, Esq., and the new church, dedicated to St. Charles, was opened Jan. 22, 1884. Fr. Massey also secured a site for a new church, schools, and presbytery in Ulverston, and began to erect the schools, which were opened in 1887, but owing to ill-health he had to resign the charge of the mission in the previous year.

Rev. Peter Lavery, having recovered his health, returned in 1886 till 1887.

Rev. Thomas B. Allan, January, 1887-1907. The foundation-stone of the new church was blessed by Dr. O'Reilly, the bishop of Liverpool on the Feast of the Assumption, 1893, and opened by Bishop Whiteside Aug. 2, 1895. Fr. Allan wrote a brief account of his eminent predecessor at Ulverston—"Dr. Everard, Archbishop of Cashel and Emly. A Memoir. By the Rev. Thomas B. Allan." Reprinted from 'The Irish Ecclesiastical Record,' " Dublin, 1897, 8vo., pp. 22.

Rev. Laurence Kehoe, 1907 to January 1915. He established a convent school under the care of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Mary, opened Sept. 8th, 1913.

Rev. Patrick Delany, 1915 to date.

THE REGISTERS.

This register dates from May 28th, 1812. A few marriages appear in chronological order amongst the baptisms; for convenience they have been extracted and placed after the baptisms.

There are two volumes, the entries of which overlap, as noted below. With the permission of the Rev. Laurence Kehoe, the late incumbent, in whose possession they were, they have been copied by the contributor of the registers.

BOOK I.

[This is a note-book $4 \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ inches, containing 40 pages, interleaved with blotting paper, on which one or two entries are made. Many leaves of blotting paper are missing. The insides of the cover, back and front, have also been used for the final entries. From 1824 to 1828 the book has been copied in vol. ii.

The material differences are shown within brackets to avoid repetition.]

THE CATHOLIC REGISTERS OF THE DOMESTIC CHAPEL
AT LEIGHTON HALL AND ITS SUCCESSOR,
ST. MARY'S CHURCH, YEALAND, LANCASHIRE. 1762-1838.

CONTRIBUTED BY J. P. SMITH.

HISTORICAL NOTES BY JOSEPH GILLOW.

Yealand Conyers

a township in the parish of Warton, hundred of South Lonsdale, union and co-palatine of Lancaster, eight miles from Lancaster, is mentioned in Domesday Book, and was bestowed by William the Conqueror upon Roger de Poitou, who retained it in 1102, when he joined Prince Robert in rebellion against his father. Subsequently it passed from William de Lancaster, who died without issue in 1246, to Adam de Avranches, whose fortified manor-house was at Leighton, probably on the site of an early British castle, and situated off the beaten track in a somewhat isolated position.

Through heiresses the manors of Leighton, Yealand Conyers, and Yealand Redmayne descended through the families of de Redmayne, de Crofte, Conyers, de Crofte again, and finally to a cadet of the Middletons, of Middleton Hall in the parish of Kirby Lonsdale, co. Westmorland, who settled at Leighton Hall. These families were intermarried with leading families of the counties of Lancaster, Cheshire, Cumberland, Westmorland, and Yorkshire, as may be seen in ancient records and the pedigrees of the Middletons returned at the visitations of Lancashire in 1567, 1613, and 1664, prominent members greatly distinguishing themselves in the various national wars.

Sir Robert Middleton, to whom Henry VII gave thanks by letters for service in Scotland, acquired the manor of Beetham in Westmorland with his wife, the heiress of Sir Edward Beetham. His grandson, Gervase, died in 1548, leaving very extensive possessions, inclusive of the manors of Warton and Parr, to his son George Middleton, of Leighton, a staunch recusant, who was twice married, 1^o, to Anne, daughter of Sir Marmaduke Tunstall, of Thurland Castle, co. Lancaster, by whom he had only two daughters, one of whom became the wife of George Beesley, of The Hill, in Goosnargh; and 2^o, to Margaret, daughter of Sir Christopher Medcalfe, of Nappa, co. York, by Elizabeth, daughter of Henry, Lord Clifford, first Earl of Cumberland, K.G. Margaret Middleton was a widow residing at Leighton Hall in 1585 (? 1588), when she was reported as harbouring a priest named Beesley. Her sons were likewise recusants, Thomas, George, and Robert. George, the second son, was slain at Mechlin in the Low Countries. The eldest son, Thomas, succeeded to Leighton, and both he and his wife, the sister of Sir Richard Hoghton, Knt. and Bart., were staunch recusants. Their eldest son, Sir George Middleton, Knt. and Bart., was a colonel in the royal army, for which and his recusancy he was forced by the Cromwellians to pay a sum of £855 and £60 per annum, sufferings which Lloyd, in his Memoirs, p. 696, computed at £2,646 in land and money. He was knighted by Charles I at Durham, June 26, 1642, and created a baronet by letters patent the following day. After the Restoration of Charles II, Sir George was twice elected high-sheriff of his county, in 1661 and 1662. He died at Leighton Feb. 27, 1672-3, aged 72, and was interred in the church at Warton on March 6th, with a marble monument to commemorate him.

By his first wife Sir George Middleton had a son Geoffrey, who died young and sine prole, and two daughters, Mary and Katherine. By his second wife he had another son, Thomas, who died in infancy. After the death of Katherine, her sister Mary became sole heiress to the Middleton estates, and married Somerford Oldfield, of Somerford, co. Chester, son and heir of Sir Philip Oldfield, of Somerford, by whom she had a son and three daughters. George Middleton Oldfield, the son, who married Lady Clark, took up his residence at Leighton immediately after the death of Lady Anne Middleton, the widow of Sir George, in 1705. Within twelve months his only son, Henry George Somerford Oldfield, was buried at Warton, Feb. 8, 1705-6, where his sister Elizabeth had preceded him March 24, 1703. George Middleton Oldfield died at Leighton Jan. 25, 1708-9, and his two surviving daughters, Dorothy and Katherine, became his coheirresses. The elder, Dorothy, married Albert Hodgson, Esq., of the ancient Catholic family seated at Hebburn Hall, co. Durham, and the younger, Katherine, married Thomas Fletcher, of Hutton Hall, co. Cumberland. By deed of partition, dated June 11, 1711, between Dorothy and her husband Albert Hodgson, and Katherine and her husband Thomas Fletcher, the Hodgsons took Leighton Hall and parks, with the manor, Yealand Hall, the demesne lands of Leighton and Yealand, the New or Red Deer Park, etc., and the Fletchers took the manors of Silverdale and Yealand, the demesne lands of Hyneing, Hyldersley Moss, and certain lands in Yealand and Warton, all which they sold soon afterwards.

A few years later Albert Hodgson joined the Chevalier de St. George, and was taken prisoner at Preston in 1715. Though his life was spared, he was long detained in prison, and his estate was confiscated under attainder, including his life interest in Leighton, which remained in the hands of the commissioners, administered by Mr. Robert Pool, of Lancaster, steward, till Thursday, March 7th, 1722, when it was sold by public auction, and was purchased on behalf of Mr. Hodgson by a friend, Thomas Winckley, of Lincoln's Inn and Preston. Mr. Hodgson then returned to reside at Leighton Hall.

Mr. Fletcher, frightened at the political aspect, apostatised, and turned informer against Catholic charitable trusts. It is said that it was he who gave Mr. Hodgson away in 1715. It was upon Thomas Fletcher, then of Mousby Hall, that Sir Henry Fletcher, Bart., of Hutton Hall, had settled his estate when he retired to the Franciscan convent at Douay in 1710. The apostate died without issue.

The Hodgsons had only two daughters, the elder of whom, Mary, married in December, 1737, as his second wife, Ralph Standish, of Standish Hall and Borwick Hall, co. Lancaster, whose first wife, the Lady Philippa Howard, daughter of Henry, 6th Duke of Norfolk, had died April 5, 1731 (vide C.R.S., vi, 241, and correct). The younger daughter, Anne, married Bryan Hawarden, of Wigan, surgeon, younger son of John Hawarden, of Lower House, in Widnes, but died without issue. The elder daughter had no children by Mr. Standish, and after his death in 1756 married secondly, George Towneley, younger son of Charles Towneley, of Towneley Hall, co. Lancaster.

About 1765, Mr. Towneley rebuilt the mansion at Leighton, incorporating a portion of the ancient edifice. The front of the house, facing south, was in the prevalent style of Parisian houses, familiar to the Towneleys, the principal entrance in the centre being approached by steps flanked by iron railings, with two long windows on either side, and a lower storey at either end, all built of stone with staircases and many floors of the same material. In the windows of the gallery, as well as in those of the hall and parlour, were the armorial bearings—(1) of the Middletons, quartering Beetham, Burton, and Crofte; (2) per pale, Middleton and Hoghton; (3) Middleton and Metcalfe; (4) Middleton and Strickland; (5) Middleton and Tunstall; (6) Middleton and Preston, and the crest, an eagle's head erased.

In 1782, the Towneleys vacated the hall, and erected a chapel adjoining a house in Yealand for the use of the chaplain. Whilst the chapel was building Mass was said in the attic of this house. These premises, with little alteration, exist to-day as the presbytery attached to the church erected in 1852 by the late squire, Richard Thomas Gillow, who died in 1905, aged almost 99. On the door leading from the old chapel to the house is the inscription—

1782

Upon George Towneley's death in 1786, aged 80, he devised the Leighton estate to his nephew, John Towneley, of Towneley Hall, who sold it to Alexander Worswick, of Ellel Grange, son of Thomas Worswick, of Lancaster, banker, and his wife Alice, daughter of Robert Gillow, of Lancaster. Thomas Worswick's father, Robert, married Elizabeth, daughter and heiress of Alexander Butler, younger son of Henry Butler, of Rawcliffe Hall, and thus obtained the Todderstaffe Hall estate. That estate had come with Alexander Butler's wife, Dorothy, daughter and eventual coheiress of Thomas Singleton, of Stayning Hall, and his wife Dorothy, daughter of James Anderton, of Clayton Hall and Bardsea Hall. Two other sons of Thomas Worswick were priests, John, formerly of Hornby, who died at Leighton Hall in 1809, and James, who died at Newcastle-on-Tyne in 1843. Alexander Worswick died at Leighton July 29, 1814, aged 49, and was succeeded by his son Thomas, a bachelor, from whom the estate passed by purchase to his cousin, Richard Gillow, son of Richard brother to Mrs. Worswick.

Richard Gillow married Elizabeth, daughter and eventual heiress of Charles Stapleton, M.D., younger son of Nicholas Stapleton, of Carlton Hall, co. York, heir to the barony of Beaumont, subsequently restored. Her brothers, Colonel Herman and Major Charles Stapleton, died unmarried. Their mother was the daughter and heiress of Henry Fallowfield, of the ancient Westmorland family of that name, to one of whom Prince Charlie in 1715 presented relics of James II, still preserved at Leighton Hall. Richard Gillow died at Leighton Dec. 16, 1849, aged 76, where his wife had preceded him Nov. 18, 1848, aged 68. They had a large family, of whom three were priests, Robert, George and Charles, and several daughters nuns, Elizabeth, Catherine, and Margaret. The eldest son, Richard Thomas, succeeded to the Leighton estate, and, outliving all his twelve brothers and sisters, was long venerated as the "Old Squire." He died as previously stated at the patriarchal age of 99. By his marriage in 1845 with Mary Anne, daughter of Charles Eyston, of East Hendred, co. Berks, J.P. and D.L., and high-sheriff of that county in 1831, he had four sons, Richard Charles, born in 1846, Robert Joseph, George William, barrister-at-law, and Mgr. Francis John Gillow, and three daughters, Mary Theresa, wife of Henry Matthias

Riddell, son of Ralph Riddell, of Felton Park and Swinburne Castle, co. Northumberland, Isabel Marie, and Josephine Marie. The eldest son, Colonel Richard Charles Gillow, married in 1869 Agnes Mary, daughter of Charles Francis Riddell (younger son of Ralph Riddell, of Felton, Horsley, and Swinburne), by Catherine, eldest daughter of Michael Henry Blount, of Maple Durham Hall, co. Oxford, and predeceasing his father left several children, of whom the eldest, Charles Richard, born in 1870, succeeded his grandfather to Leighton Hall, and is the present squire.

During the occupation of Leighton Hall by the Worswicks and Gillows great alterations were made to the front of the mansion in an endeavour to restore to it some of its ancient style. It was embattled and refaced with the polished limestone of the district, so white as to be almost dazzling in sunshine, and now presents an imposing appearance nestled amid rocks and woods. It is surrounded by an extensive park of great antiquity, Edward III, by charter, having granted free chase and warren within the manor. Formerly there were two parks, containing red and fallow deer.

The following imperfect record of the chaplaincy at Leighton is all that has been gleaned :—

Rev. Beesley. In a spy's list of priests and students at Douay and in Lancashire, dated "about 1585" (P.R.O., Dom. Eliz., vol. clxxxv, No. 85), it is stated that one of the priests, "Mr. Bisseley Remainethe ffor the most part with M^{rs} Midletonne, widowe, of Leightonne beyonnde Lanckester." It appears from the ancient MS. history of Leighton, in the possession of the present lord of the manor, Mr. C. R. Gillow, that one of the two daughters of George Middleton by his first wife, Anne Tunstall, married George Beesley, of The Hill in Beesley Tythe, Goosnargh, co. Lancaster, the father of the Ven. George Beesley, the Martyr, and the Rev. Richard Beesley, born in 1570, who studied at Rheims and Rome, was ordained priest at Douay in 1595, and thence came to the English mission in 1602 (Knox, Douay Diaries; Douay Diaries, C.R.S., x and xi; Foley, Records S.J., vi). If the spy's information has been correctly calendared as "about 1585," Mr. Beesley the priest at Leighton could not have been either of those brothers, for the Ven. George Beesley, the elder of the two, was ordained in 1587, came to the mission in 1588, and was martyred in Fleet Street July 2, 1591. It is possible, therefore, that the priest was the John Beesley mentioned in 1581 in the will of Alexander Hoghton, of Hoghton Tower and The Lea, to which his brother George Beesley was executor. Hoghton's niece Catherine became the wife of the widow Middleton's son Thomas, who succeeded to Leighton.

Richard Beesley, the priest referred to above, probably succeeded either his uncle or brother to the chaplaincy at Leighton, and is noted by Dr. John Southcote as serving somewhere in Lancashire about 1631 (C.R.S., i, 115). There were many priests of the family, including Fr. John Beesley alias Nelson, S. J., of the Yorkshire branch, and it is curious that the family connection with Leighton continued for a long period, a John Beesley, probably the steward, dying there in 1661. The next priest on record at Leighton was—

Rev. Peter Gooden, son of Peter Gooden (or Golden), of the Old Hall of Pendleton, near Manchester, gent., who was admitted into the English College at Lisbon in 1661, became an alumnus Aug. 6, 1666, and after being ordained priest left for the English mission Feb. 2, 1670. He appears as a member of the Lancashire and Westmorland Clergy Fund in 1672, and was probably stationed at Leighton at the time. The sturdy royalist Sir George Middleton died in 1673, and Mr. Gooden continued chaplain to his widow. Whilst he was in this position, Mr. Gooden's brother, Edmund Golden or Gooden, of Pendleton Old Hall, gent., married in November, 1679, Lady Middleton's grand-daughter, Anne, the elder Miss Oldfield. In the Grimshaw MSS. (apud me), is a curious case, with counsel's opinion thereon by Mr. T. Vernon, in the beginning of the eighteenth century. According to the settlements, Lady Anne Middleton, the widow of Sir George, and her daughter, Mrs. Somerford Oldfield, were seized of various manors and estates in Lancashire, Westmorland, and Cheshire, for their lives with immediate remainder settled in tail on George Middleton Oldfield, remainder to Anne, his elder sister, as regards the Lancashire and Westmorland estates, and remainder of the Cheshire estates to his younger sister. Certain covenants were made on the marriage of Anne Oldfield and Edmund Golden, and in 1680 the latter made a release of his interests in the Cheshire estates, but refused to do the like to the other estates. When the case was put before Mr. Vernon, both Mr. and Mrs. Golden were dead, leaving issue a son and daughter then under age. Their uncle, George Middleton Oldfield, was anxious to bar the entail, having no provision made for himself during the lives of his mother and grandmother, who were both alive. He asserted that the Rev. Peter Gooden had influenced Lady Middleton and Mrs. Oldfield in the match between his sister and Mr. Edmund Golden, and that the latter had represented his income as £700, whereas it was only £200 per annum.

Shortly after his nephew's marriage, during the Oates Plot persecution, his name having been introduced into Bolron's pamphlet, "The Papists' Bloody Oath of Secrecy," 1680, Mr. Peter Gooden removed from Leighton Hall to Aldcliffe Hall, near Lancaster, the seat of the Misses Dalton, "the Seven Virgins who refused to change with the Times." There, in that historical mansion, Mr. Gooden "kept a sort of academy or Little Seminary for educating of youth who were afterwards sent to Popish Colleges abroad to be trained as priests" (Gillow, Biog. Dict., ii, 524-8). During the reign of James II he was appointed chaplain to the Duke of Berwick's regiment, and he obtained considerable celebrity by the able manner in which he conducted public disputations with some of the most learned Protestant divines, more especially with Dr. Stillingfleet and Dr. Clagett. No man, says Dodd (Church History, iii), was better qualified to come off with reputation in a personal conference than Mr. Gooden. He was regarded in all respects a formidable disputant. The Revolution of 1688, however, obliged him to retire to his former abode at Aldcliffe Hall, where he died Dec. 29, 1694, and was buried according to the register at the parish church of Lancaster two days later. Administration to his estate was granted in the same year. The first item of his bibliography appended to his memoir in the writer's previously cited Biog. Dict. was probably written at Leighton in 1671.

Of the names of Mr. Gooden's immediate successors at Leighton Hall we have no positive information, but from the record of Bishop John Leyburne's visitations it appears that his lordship confirmed 84 persons in the domestic chapel at Leighton on Sept. 6, 1687 (Brady, Episcop. Succession, iii, 144). The next chaplain found was—

Rev. John Pearson (or Pierson), another Lisbon priest, who became an alumnus at that college April 17, 1688, was ordained priest Dec. 21, 1689, left for Lancashire Jan. 2, 1693, and was apparently at Leighton in 1697. The date of his removal or death has not been ascertained (Gillow, Reg. of Lisbon College, p. 238; Declaration of Lanc. Clergy, March 3, 1697, MS.). Another chaplain was—

Rev. George Leyburne, born May 25, 1673, second son of George Leyburne, of Nateby Hall and Cunswick Hall, and his wife Elizabeth, daughter of George Preston, of Holker Hall. Consequently, Mrs. Leyburne was sister to Lady Middleton. She had previously been married to John Sayer, of Worsall, co. York, and afterwards to Nathaniel West, of Borwick Hall, some few miles from Leighton, who was nephew of Thomas West, 3rd Lord de la Warr. George Leyburne took the oaths at Douay College on Dec. 27, 1689, and Sept. 8, 1690, and in due course came to the mission in Lancashire. The Jacobite squire Thomas Tyldesley was his godfather, and notes in his diary under date May 15, 1713, that "Godson Layborne" went home with me to Lancaster, and again on the following day, "dined with Godson Layborne, who went afterwards to Leighton" (Gillow, Tyldesley Diary, p. 89). The diarist also records on the 31st of the preceding month accompanying the high-sheriff, "cos. ffletcher," "cos. Hodgson" of Leighton Hall, and others to Mr. Beardsworth's, and again on the following Nov. 19, that the priest's brother, "Jemmy Layborne call^d in his way from Leighton." It does not appear how long Mr. Leyburne served Leighton. He occasionally officiated at Nateby Hall, and was there in 1717, but eventually died in Staffordshire in 1736 (C.R.S., xvi, 516). His successor was—

Rev. Thomas Rawdon or Roydon alias Cornforth, of the ancient family of Rawdon of Rawdon Hall, in the West Riding of York, who took the oath at Douay Aug. 15, 1681 (Douay Diaries, p. 50). He taught humanities, poetry, and rhetoric for four or five years, and left for the mission Oct. 9, 1692 (Douay Lists, MS.). He was appointed by patent of Bishop James Smith, rural dean of Lonsdale Hundred Jan. 3, 1699 (Ushaw Collections, MSS., ii, 81-4). In September, 1708, according to Dr. Kirk (citing Ep. Var., viii, 155), "with Bishop Smith's consent, he went from Douay to Notre Dame des Victoires, in Paris, to spend one year there to make him more fit for the mission" (Kirk, Biog. Collections MSS., printed edition, p. 196). In Robert Stephenson's deed poll of trust uses for Dodding Green, co. Westmorland, dated May 14, 1714, Mr. Roydon appears as being then chaplain at Leighton Hall (Stephenson's Charities, p. 47). Previous to this, if not at the same time, he was riding-chaplain to the Leyburnes at the halls of Cunswick, Skelsmergh, and Witherslack, residing mostly at the first; and he also attended to the chapel at Selside Hall, the seat of William Thornburgh. Tyldesley mentions his calling upon him in Lancaster under date Feb. 25, 1713. "In the morning Doct^r Harden [Edward Hawarden, then chaplain at Aldcliffe Hall], Jemmy Layborne, and Mr. Royden came to see mee" (Tyldesley Diary, p. 75). On May 12, 1715, he was elected archdeacon of the Chapter (Old Chapter Records, MS.).

It was in this year, 1715, that the Chevalier de St. George made his abortive effort to recover the throne of his ancestors, and to the years of personal trouble which ensued Mr. Roydon alludes in his letter to Dr. Robert Witham of April 24, 1724. He refers to the plunder and destruction of his effects and papers, when, being an itinerant missionary, most of his quarters and chief stations were disturbed and seized by the Commissioners for Forfeited Estates, their bailiffs and tenants. He speaks of the miles he was forced to travel in his flight through several distinct parishes and counties. "When I reached home (if I may call it home, where God be my comfort, I scarce ever rest three nights successively in the same bed), I had but a scantling of time to search into holes and snatch up materials." He then describes how he rode in 1716—"On the 3 Oct., I travelled from Kendal by Wycliff [seat of the Tunstalls] to Pierce bridge over the rugged roads of our hills and your Stainmore, above 46 long miles in one single, and that one, no long day. On the 4th I waited on you at Cliffe," and then goes on, "My Journal lodges me at Aldborough [seat of the Meynells], Nov. 24, 1716, carries me to Cliffe and back on the 26th. Again to Cliffe and back on Dec. 1st. On the 2^d to Richmond, on the 3^d to Danby, the residence of my cousin Cornforth [Thomas Cornforth alias Roydon, chaplain to the Scropes], removes me on the 7th to Yorke. What was the busines of these motions? I was to consult you at Cliffe."

Thomas Fletcher, of Hutton Hall, the pervert to whom allusion has been made, on Sept. 12, 1716, deposed to the Commissioners that he knew "Thomas Roydon, a priest who inhabits a tenement called Lew-house, in p. of Wetherall, co. Cumberland, at a £25 rental, held under the Duke of Portland, and that about four years agoe," Roydon told him that the tenement was one of the benefactions of Sir Henry Fletcher in trust for the support and maintenance of himself and the Rev. John Bates alias Lodge. The latter was chaplain to the Stapletons of Carlton Hall, and died there March 26, 1741, aged 59 (Payne, Records of English Catholics, p. 128; Old Chapter Records MSS.). In 1717, as Thomas Rawdon alias Roydon, of Stearsby, co. York, gent., he registered property held as administrator to his uncle, the Rev. Thomas Faciby alias Rawdon, chaplain to Mr. Meynell (Payne, Catholic Non-jurors, p. 28).

As soon as the troubles subsided, Mr. Roydon took up his residence with his patron, Mr. Robert Stephenson, at Dodding Green, who died there April 23, 1723, having settled his property in trust for a permanent mission, which covered much of Mr. Roydon's old riding-mission. He is found supplying at Selside Hall in 1718. For two months in 1720 he, as vicar-general, attended Bishop Thomas Williams during his visitation of Lancashire. Thus he spent the remainder of his very active life at Dodding Green, where he died Oct. 30, 1741, and was buried in the parish church of Kendal two days later.

On Dec. 12, 1747, according to the accounts of the Common Stock for the Lancashire Vicariate at the disposal of Bishop Edward Dicconson alias Eaton, there still remained a sum of £82 2s. 6d. in the hands of Mr. Roydon's nephew and namesake at Dodding Green entrusted to him by Lady Middleton of Leighton Hall.

Soon after Mr. Roydon's departure from Leighton, an episcopal return was made of the catholics residing there in 1717, and the number was put down at only seven by the vicar of the parish. From this time till 1761 no priest's name in connection with the mission has been found, either in Bishop Dicconson's list of his clergy from 1741-52 or in other records. Nevertheless the chapel in the hall was no doubt served by a riding-priest or from some neighbouring mission, most likely Robert Hall, some few miles distant (see C.R.S., iv, 319). The next resident chaplain on record was—

Rev. Michael Wharton, born 1733, near Kirkby Stephen, co. Westmorland, being descended from the Whartons of Wharton and Kirkby-thore in that county, and of Beverley, co. York, of whom Sir Michael Wharton was living in 1724. He was admitted on Revell's Fund at the English College at Lisbon, Nov. 7, 1751, became an alumnus March 13, 1756, was ordained priest Dec. 20, 1760, and left for England to become chaplain at Leighton Hall July 18, 1761, where he commenced to keep registers soon afterwards. In the return made by the vicar of Warton to the Bishop of Chester in 1767, it is said that Mr. Wharton, priest, resided with George Towneley, Esq., and that the Catholics in the parish were estimated at 54. At the Visitation made by Bishop William Walton, coadjutor to Bishop Francis Petre, on June 10, 1774, his lordship confirmed ten persons in the chapel in the hall. In 1782 Mr. and Mrs. Towneley, prior to leaving Leighton, provided a residence for Mr. Wharton in the adjoining village of Yealand Conyers, and improvised a chapel in the attics whilst a chapel, dedicated to St. Mary, was being erected adjoining the house. In a letter to Rev. Matthew Gibson, then of Lartington Hall, dated York, Nov. 28, 1782, Bishop Walton says "that Mr. Towneley has left Leighton, but has fixed his chaplain, Mr. Wharton, very agreeably" (Ushaw Collections, MSS., ii, 385). In another letter, dated Feb. 3, 1783, the Rev. John Chadwick, of Weld Bank, vicar-general for Lancashire to the new bishop, Matthew Gibson, estimates the number of communicants at "Leighton" at 70. The mission, though still styled Leighton, was really at Yealand. It was visited by Bishop Gibson on Sept. 12, 1784, when 16 persons were confirmed, Mr. Wharton returning the communicants in the congregation at 90. In the bishop's return to Rome of the condition of his diocese, dated Jan. 8, 1791, Michael Wharton is put down as at "Leighton." Mr. Wharton was rural dean of Lonsdale Hundred, and he continued at Yealand till his death Dec. 10, 1809, aged 76.

During his incumbency the Rev. John Worswick died at Leighton Hall, the seat of his brother Alexander, Oct. 2, 1809, aged 48. For some little time he had said Mass in the domestic chapel, and in that at Coldham Hall, Suffolk, the seat of his brother-in-law, Robert Gage-Rokewode, son of Sir Thomas Gage, of Hengrave, Bart. His sister Mary Gage-Rokewode died at Leighton Sept. 27, 1807, aged 26, and her only child, Maria Charlotte, in Dec., 1813, aged 17, and both were buried at Warton. A family mausoleum existed in the wood adjoining the hall, in which numbers of the Worswicks and Gillows were interred, but the bodies were removed to the family vault adjoining the chapel at Yealand Conyers during the time of Richard Thomas Gillow, Esq. The mausoleum was then demolished, and now only a cross of white limestone marks the site, bearing the inscription—

Hoc in situ stabat mausoleum in quò corpora familiæ Gillow sepulta erant anti quam translata erant ad ecclesiam apud Yealand erectam sumptibus Ricardi Thomæ Gillow, armigeri.

Mr. Wharton was succeeded by—

Rev. Basil Richard Barrett, born May 11, 1781, younger son of John Briant Barrett, of Milton House, near Abingdon, co. Berks., by Winefrid, daughter of John Eyston, of East Hendred, in the same county. He went to St. Omer's College in August, 1790, but escaped to England during the French Revolution prior to the seizure of the college. He joined the refugees from Douay College after they had become firmly established at Crook Hall in June, 1795, and there, with his elder brother George, in due course was ordained priest, about July, 1806. His first appointment was to Cliffe Hall, in succession to the Rev. William Coghill. Later he was transferred to Pocklington, and thence came to Yealand upon the death of Mr. Wharton in 1809. Here he wrote his "Pretensions to a Final Analysis of the Nature and Origin of Sublimity, Style, Beauty, Genius, and Taste," published at London in 1812, and also his "Life of Cardinal Ximenes," London, 1813. He also wrote "A Mathematical Treatise showing how the Circle can be Squared," which Sir Humphrey Davy, Bart., returned to him after examination, saying that he did not understand the calculations. Probably no one else could, so the work was never published. In 1820 his health became seriously impaired, no doubt accelerated by his vain attempt to square the circle, so he repaired to Bath. In the following year he was put under the care of a physician at Bristol, and in 1829 was removed to an asylum for priests in Belgium, where he died May 3, 1858, aged 77 (Gillow, Biog. Dict., i, 144-5). The mission was temporarily served by—

Rev. Thomas Wilkinson, born at or near Hornby, Nov. 11, 1762, who was sent to Douay College, where he arrived Aug. 2, 1776, and became an alumnus in 1785. It is asserted that he was the last priest ordained in the college chapel, on April 11, 1789. He then taught first class rudiments till Dec. 21 of that year, when he was made professor of poetry, and on the following Oct. 1, 1790, of rhetoric. During the French Revolution he left the college for the English mission, July 20, 1792, and was appointed assistant to the Rev. Thomas Johnson, of Kendal, whom he succeeded in 1803. Thence from 1812 to 1820 he served Dodding Green, and from 1820 to 1822 he attended to Yealand. At length, after being incumbent of Kendal for sixty-five years he retired to Ushaw, where he died, and was interred in the college cemetery, Dec. 30, 1857, aged 95. Some time before his death he presented his valuable and extensive library of about 12,000 volumes to Ushaw College (Douay Lists, MS.; Adam Wilkinson, Hist. of Kendal and Neighbouring Missions, MS.). The next resident priest at Yealand, who came in 1822, was—

Rev. Henry Banister alias Rutter, born Feb. 24, 1755, son of Adam Banister, of Hesketh Bank, co. Lancaster, yeoman, who arrived at Douay College Sept. 26, 1768, and when deacon in his fourth year's divinity was sent from Douay April 30, 1781, to become a professor at St. Omer's College. Thence he came to the English mission, and was appointed chaplain to the Silvertops at Minster Acres, Northumberland, in 1784. He was supplying at Pontop Hall, co. Durham, in 1791, but was still at Minster Acres in 1808, and meanwhile had been elected a member of the Old Chapter in 1803. In the summer of 1820 he was at Tynemouth, and there he is supposed to have said the first Mass since the so-called Reformation. In 1822 he came to Yealand, and here he continued to write some of his works, a list of which is given in the writer's Biog. Dict. of the English Catholics, v, 458-60. During his term Bishop Thomas Penswick made his visitation at Yealand, and gave confirmation on Sept. 2, 1825, and June 19, 1831. In January, 1834, he removed from Yealand, and took possession of the mission of his late uncle, the Rev Robert Banister, of Dodding Green. This mission from the time of his uncle's death in 1812 had been supplied from Kendal. There he remained till his sudden death, whilst going to meet his nephew Alexander Goss, then a student at Ushaw, and subsequently Bishop of Liverpool, Sept. 17, 1838, aged 83. He was buried at Kendal. His portrait in oil is at Dodding Green. Upon his departure in January, 1834, Yealand was temporarily supplied by—

Rev. William Brown, who had established the mission of Great Crosby, co. Lancaster, in 1826, and died there Aug. 2, 1850, aged 49 (Tablet, xi, 500). The next permanent incumbent was—

Rev. Dominic Joseph Maini, whose memoir has appeared C.R.S., xiii, 231. He came in 1834, and remained till Oct. 15, 1846. He died at St. Anthony's, Liverpool, Sept. 11, 1856. During his term visitations were made at Yealand by Bishops Penswick, Sept. 27, 1835, John Briggs, Aug. 23, 1839, and George Brown, Oct. 5, 1845, and Sept. 13, 1853, on which occasions confirmations were given. His successor was—

Rev. William Henderson, who arrived at Yealand Oct. 7, 1846. His brief memoir appears C.R.S., vi, 323. After forty years' service here he retired to Lytham in 1887, where he died Jan. 30, 1893, aged 84 (Orthodox Journal, iv, 64; Catholic Times, Feb. 3, 1893, p. 3).

During his term, the then squire of Leighton, Richard Thomas Gillow, erected a handsome Gothic church adjoining the old presbytery and chapel, which was consecrated Aug. 4, 1852. It is in the early English style, 76 ft. \times 20 ft., and it cost about £1,200. Mr. Henderson was succeeded by—

Rev. Joseph Parker, who was ordained at Ushaw Aug. 7, 1881, and served at Liverpool till he came to Yealand in 1887. Here he stayed till he went to Euxton, near Chorley, in 1892, thence removed in 1893 to Everton, and finally in 1894 to Tyldesley, where he died July 29, 1898 (Liverpool Catholic Alm., 1899, p. 191, with portrait). He was succeeded at Yealand by—

Rev. James Birchall, who came in 1892, and is the present incumbent.
JOSEPH GILLOW.

THE REGISTERS.

This register is a ledger-shaped book, containing 258 unruled pages, measuring $12\frac{3}{4} \times 4$ inches, backed with stiff boards, half-bound in buff leather. The varying qualities of paper used would lead one to conjecture that the baptisms, marriages, confirmations, and Easter lists were originally kept as separate books, and were later bound into the present volume.

Lists of Easter Communicants are given annually from 1763 to 1871 (inclusive), with the exception of the years 1810, 1811, and 1822. They occupy pages 5-36, 100-115, 121-240.

Baptisms are given from April 11, 1762, to July 20, 1856. They occupy pages 37-99.

Marriages are given from 1764 to 1855, there being only 29 entries. They occupy pages 117-120, 169, and 243-245.

Deaths are recorded on p. 251 from 1824-1844. This list, like the marriage list, is evidently incomplete.

Confirmations. Ten lists are given, viz.: 1774, 1784, 1793, 1803, 1825, 1831, 1835, 1839, 1845, and 1853. They occupy pages 253-257.

[On the inside of the front cover.] NB. This Register was begun by Rev. Michael Wharton at Leighton Hall in 1763 to 1809; was continued by his successor the Rev. Basil Barrett to 1820. The Rev. Henry Rutter succeeded him in 1822.

[Pages 1-4 are blank; the Easter lists 1763 to 1830 inclusive, cover pages 5-36.]

* The Rev. Charles Belasyse, D.D., 7th and last Viscount Fauconberg of Henknowle, co. Durham, 7th Baron Fauconberg of Yarum, co. York, and 8th Baronet, was the second son of Anthony Belasyse, Esq., and his wife Susanna, daughter of John Clervert, Esq., who resided mostly at Leghorn, where Charles was born in 1750. He was sent to the preparatory school at Esquerchin, whence on July 9, 1762, he was transferred to Douay College. Thence on Aug. 5, 1768, he left for St. Gregory's Seminary at Paris, being then in his second year's philosophy. He took the Seminary oath at St. Gregory's in October, 1771, and the doctor's cap at the Sorbonne in 1778. Soon afterwards he came to the English mission, and he resided generally in London, where he was greatly respected and had reputation as a preacher. Upon the death of his brother, the Rev. Rowland Belasyse, 6th Viscount Fauconberg, Nov. 30, 1810, aged 66, at Lancaster, where he had privately resided for some years, Dr. Charles succeeded to the titles, and likewise retired to Lancaster, whence he constantly gave ministerial assistance to neighbouring missions. There he died at his residence in Thurnham Street, June 26, 1815, aged 66 (Kellet-Rigbye, Time-Honoured Lancaster, 12, 324; Douay Lists, MS.; Kirk, Biographies, 16; Burke, Extinct Peerage; Billington, St. Peter's, Lancaster, 93, 102, 255).

N.B. At the desire of Richard Gillow* Esq^r of Leighton Hall I, Hen. Rutter insert here the following Register, taken from the Family Book made by himself & signed with his name,—The said Richard Gillow was born at Lancaster the 8th of March 1772, was married the 1 June 1801 to Elisabeth Stapleton, born the 1 Aug^t 1780, by whom he had issue as follows,—

1. Elisabeth Gillow, ♀ born 25 of April 1802, baptised the 26 of the same month by the Rev. M^r Law. ‡ Sponsors, M^r Gillow Sen^r & Lady Gerard.§

2. Catharine Gillow, || born 14 Oct^{br} 1803, baptised the same day

* He was the third son of Richard Gillow, senior, who died Aug. 14, 1811, aged 77, who had married at Lancaster Feb. 11, 1761, Sarah, daughter of Robert Haresnape, of Thurnham, the representative of an ancient Catholic family. Whilst residing in London in the eighteenth century Mr. Gillow's father maintained a house in Prospect Place, Margate, during the summer months, where he had a domestic chapel served by family chaplains. This was the commencement of the mission in Margate, in or before 1793, and in 1801, through Mr. Gillow's munificence, a small chapel was erected in Prospect Place. Mr. Richard Gillow, junior, for some time resided at Little Holland House, Campden Hill, Kensington, where many of his children were born, whilst others were born at Ellet Grange and Leighton Hall. His wife died at Leighton Hall, Nov. 18, 1848, aged 68, and he himself Dec. 16, 1849, aged 76, and both were interred in the family mausoleum in the park.

† Elisabeth Gillow, born in London, was sent to the Franciscan Convent School at Taunton in 1813. There she received the habit Nov. 8, 1819, and the name in religion of Mary Frances Angela; was professed Nov. 21, 1820; and died July 17, 1881, in her 80th year. Her aunt, Agnes Gillow, had preceded her to the same community, then at Winchester, and received the habit Aug. 5, 1800, in her 36th year, under the name in religion of Mary Joseph Agnes, was professed June 8, 1802, and died July 9, 1818, aged 53 (Taunton Reg. MS.).

‡ The Rev. John Law arrived at Douay College in September, 1782, when the Rev. John Gillow was prefect of studies. He became an alumnus June 5, 1790; escaped from the college during the French Revolution with Thomas Gillow, when in his third year's theology, in October, 1793, and both arrived with James Worswick at Old Hall College in the same month. There he was appointed a professor, and was ordained priest in June, 1794. He was prefect from August, 1795–1798, procurator 1798–1801, and then became one of the chaplains at St. Mary's, Moorfields. In 1828 he was appointed chaplain to Lord Petre at Ingatestone Hall, Essex, where he died of cholera morbus Sept. 5, 1832, aged 65 (Gillow, Haydock Papers; Cath. Mag., ii, 668; Douay Lists, MS.; Old Hall Reg. MS.; Chapter Deceased Brethren, MS.).

§ Lady Gerard, Mrs. Gillow's cousin, was Anna Maria, daughter of Miles Stapleton, whose eldest brother Thomas claimed the Barony of Beaumont before the House of Lords in 1798. Her brother Thomas Stapleton succeeded his cousin Miles Stapleton to Carlton in 1836, and by Maria Juliana, daughter of Sir Robert Cansfield Gerard, 9th Bart., was the father of Miles Thomas Stapleton, Lord Beaumont, summoned by writ to the House of Peers in 1840.

|| Catharine Gillow, born in London, was sent to the Franciscan Convent School at Taunton in 1815; took the habit Aug. 27, 1822; was professed under the religious name of Mary Winefred Aug. 28, 1823; and died Dec. 26, 1883, in her 81st year. Her father's cousin, Jane Gillow, only daughter of Robert Gillow, Esq., and Jane Shaw his wife, was born at Lancaster in 1773. At an early age she was sent to the English Augustinian Convent in the rue des Fossés-Saint Victor at Paris, and finished her education with the nuns of the Congregation of the Ven. Père Fournier at Douay. Her desire to embrace a religious life in the Augustinian Convent at Paris was frustrated by the first French Revolution, and consequently she joined the English Franciscan Convent at Princenhoff at Bruges in the Low Countries, and thus that community "became acquainted with the several branches of the Gillow family." She received the habit Aug. 21, 1791, taking the name in religion of Jane Frances, and was professed June 7, 1793. Owing to the Revolution, the community had to seek refuge in England, and left Princenhoff on June 15, reached Greenwich on Aug. 7, 1794, and found an asylum in the Abbey House at Winchester. In May, 1808, the convent was removed to Taunton Lodge, co. Somerset, where it still flourishes. In June, 1801, Sr. Jane Frances Gillow was elected Mistress of Novices, an office which she filled till 1827, when she became Infirmarian. From May 3, 1831, she was Vicaress till her retirement through declining health Sept. 26, 1836, and she died March 10, 1852, in the 80th year of her age (Taunton Reg. MS.; Oliver, Collections, p. 135 seq.).

* Mrs. Gillow's uncle, who died in 1808.

† The child's aunt, Alice Gillow, subsequently married Richard Schiavineti, Esq., a famous artist, and died in London, June 19, 1836, aged 64.

‡ Monica Mary Alice Gillow, died Aug. 5, 1806.

§ The Rev. James Buckley, born Feb. 24, 1770, son of John Buckley, of London, was admitted into the English College at Lisbon Feb. 22, 1785, ordained priest Dec. 24, 1794, and was retained in the college as a superior till 1801. Then, at his own request, he came to England, but was presented to the presidency of the college by Bishops Douglass and Poynter on March 29, and formally installed on Dec. 15, 1806. He resigned and returned to England in 1818, was appointed Vicar-Apostolic of Trinidad and the West Indian Islands in place of the Rev. Thomas Gillow, who had declined to accept his appointment, and was consecrated bishop. He died at Trinidad March 26, 1828, aged 57 (Croft, Hist. Account of Lisbon Coll., p. 110 seq.; Gillow, Reg., p. 185).

|| Joachim Andrade, of Greenwich, Portuguese Consul-General in England, had married on Jan. 7, 1793, Agnes, daughter of Thomas Worswick, Esq., by Alice, daughter of Robert Gillow, Esq. He died Mch. 6, 1817, aged 61.

¶ Monica, daughter of Miles Stapleton, and cousin to Mrs. Gillow, married as his second wife Sir John Lawson, of Brough Hall, co. York, 5th Bart., who dying without male issue June 27, 1811, aged 67, was succeeded in the title by his brother, Henry Lawson-Maire, as 6th Bart. The latter transferred the Maire estates of Lartington and Hardwick to his sister Catherine, wife of John Silvertop, of Minster Acres, co. Northumberland, Esq., and resumed his paternal name of Lawson. He married first, in 1773, Monica, daughter of Nicholas Stapleton, of Carlton, Esq., and secondly Catherine, only daughter of Henry Fermor, of Worcester, Esq., but dying without issue in 1834, the baronetcy became extinct, whilst the estates passed to his grandnephew, William Wright, second son of John Wright, of Kelvedon Hall, Essex, Esq., and his wife Elizabeth, daughter and coheirress of Sir John Lawson, 5th Bart. He assumed the surname of Lawson, and was created a baronet in August, 1841. Sir William had married in 1825 Clarinda, daughter and heirress of John Lawson, of York, Esq., M.D., grandson of Sir Henry Lawson, 3rd Bart.

 Richard Thomas Gillow, who succeeded to the estates, died after a brief illness at Leighton Hall on Saturday morning, Oct. 14, 1905, in his 99th year. His unexpected death was regrettable, as shortly before, whilst attending a meet of the Vale of Lune Hunt, of which he was long known as the "father," he had announced that he was looking forward to commemorate the anniversary of his 100th birthday by leading off at a ball at the hall. In his day he was one of the best riders to hounds the country afforded, and he also held the reputation of a crack shot. He had been a county magistrate for

His wife, a descendant of Blessed Sir Thomas More, Lord Chancellor of England, died at Leighton April 20, 1890, aged 71, and his eldest son, Richard Charles, Jan. 14, 1901, aged 54.

* John Nassau, born in 1766 of a good family resident in London, entered Sedgley Park School Aug. 22, 1772, thence was sent to Douay College, where he arrived Oct. 4, 1778, and left in his second year's theology for the University of Louvain, July 31, 1785 (Sedgley Park Reg. MS.; Douay Lists, MS.). After ordination he came in 1792 to the mission in London as assistant to the Rev. Thomas Gabb at St. Patrick's, Soho, and subsequently became chaplain to the Darrells at Cale Hill, in Kent. In 1800 he went to Rome with Dr. Gregory Stapleton, President of Old Hall, on a confidential and important commission. He died in London Jan. 4, 1807, aged 40. In 1792 he published "The cause of the Roman Catholics Pleaded" (Gillow, Biog. Dict., v, 157).

† Richard Worswick was the fourth son of Thomas Worswick and his wife Alice Gillow, and at one time resided at Ellet Grange. He was born May 24, 1769, married Margaret, daughter of John Buckley, of London, and died sine prole July 3, 1819, aged 50.

‡ Mary Alice Gillow, born at Little Holland House, near London, went to the Franciscan Convent School at Taunton in 1819; received the habit there Sept. 8, 1828; was professed Sept. 17, 1829, under the religious name of Frances Magdalen; and died Oct. 9, 1837, aged 29 (Taunton Reg. MS.).

§ Dom William Dunstan Garstang, O.S.B., son of Henry Garstang, of Brindle, co. Lancaster, yeoman, where he was born in 1736, was professed at St. Edmund's Monastery at Paris Nov. 1, 1753, and after ordination came to the mission in the South Province in 1762. He was forty-six years a chaplain at the Portuguese Embassy in London till his death Jan. 12, 1814, aged 78.

|| Sir John Lawson, of Brough Hall, 5th Bart., and his daughter Elizabeth, who married, Jan. 8, 1789, John Wright, of Kelvedon Hall, co. Essex, Esq., and died July 7, 1812.

¶ John Gregory Gillow was at Oscott College July 31, 1825, till Mid., 1827, and dying at Leighton Hall was interred in the family mausoleum in the park. He is mentioned in the correspondence of Dr. John Lingard, the historian, with whom he was intimate.

 Major Charles Stapleton, Mrs. Gillow's brother, died unmarried at Taunton Oct. 26, 1866.

†† Anastasia Standish, eldest daughter and coheirress of Sir John Lawson, 5th Bart., married Feb. 24, 1789, Thomas Strickland, of Sizergh Castle, co. Westmorland, Esq., who upon inheriting the Standish estates, assumed that name and had issue—Charles Standish, of Standish Hall, co. Lancaster, Esq., Thomas Strickland, of Sizergh Castle, Esq., and Monica Standish, who married Dec. 3, 1827, Sir John Gerard, of Bryn, 12th Bart., but died Feb. 24, 1854, s.p.

‡‡ The Rev. Robert Gillow was educated at Ushaw College, and finished his theological course at the English College at Rome, where he resided two years, was ordained priest, and in 1836 was sent to the church of St. Nicholas, Copperas Hill, Liverpool, now the pro-cathedral. During the terrible epidemic of scarlet fever, which raged in Liverpool in 1847, Mr. Gillow was unremitting in his attention to the stricken, and after eight priests had fallen victims to the contagion, the addition of St. Patrick's district was added to his already too-laborious charge. With astonishing courage and assiduity he attended to the worst cases of typhus, till at length he was himself infected with the disease, and died a martyr to charity, after a few days' illness, Aug. 22, 1847, aged 36. His portrait in silhouette appears in the large print of the priests who sacrificed their lives during the great epidemic which visited Liverpool in that year (Gillow, Biog. Dict., ii, 487).

* Robert Gillow, of Clifton Hill, Esq., eldest son of Richard Gillow, senior, Esq., who was born Oct. 9, 1764, married Anne, daughter and heiress of Edward Parker, Esq., and died at Clifton Hill July 11, 1838, aged 75. His generosity knew no bounds, and one lasting evidence of his zeal for ecclesiastical advancement, the bell dated 1822 at Pleasington Priory, inscribed Ave Maria, yet appeals pro an. Rob. Gillow de Clifton Hill. He left four daughters and coheirresses—Margaret, vide under next entry; Alice, born March 9, 1800, went to the Franciscan Convent at Taunton in 1809, and married in the domestic chapel at Clifton Hill, May 2, 1836, John Frederick Chadwick, of The Hermitage, Alston, near Preston, late of Burgh Hall, Duxbury, in the parish of Standish, Esq., and died Dec. 16, 1886, aged 86; Sarah Anne, vide under May 7, 1826; and Mary Agnes, born June 7, 1805, who married Francis O'Byrne, Esq.

† Judith Gildon, wife of George Gillow, of Hammersmith, Esq., died March 2, 1843. Her father represented an ancient Dorset and Wilts. family, which gave many distinguished priests to the Church, and her mother and namesake died at Kensington Dec. 30, 1822, aged 80.

‡ The Rev. George Joseph Gillow at an early age was sent to Ushaw College, there was ordained priest, and for some time was retained in the college as a professor. He also acted as secretary to the bishop, and then in 1843 was placed with his brother Robert at the church of St. Nicholas, Copperas Hill. There, during the typhus epidemic of 1847 he battled with disease and death, labouring amongst the poor people with quiet heroism till he caught the infection, but recovered to continue his labours in the mission till 1849. He then returned to Ushaw College as a professor, and, after studying elocution at St. Sulpice at Paris, he took a private residence in 1853 in Preston, first in Latham Street, and finally in Fulwood, devoting himself to preaching and missions at various churches throughout his native county, and attaining remarkable popularity. As a controversialist, he distinguished himself at the time of Lord John Russell's celebrated Durham letter against the decree of Pius IX for the restoration of the hierarchy in England in 1850; in a series of lectures entitled: "Catholicism v. Protestantism," delivered by him at St. Augustine's Church, Preston, on the "No Popery Cry, The Bible, Tradition, Church Authority, etc.," published at Preston, 1868, 8vo, pp. 56; whilst in 1870 he delivered another series of lectures in reply to the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone's Vatican Decrees. He died at his residence in Fulwood Nov. 27, 1894, in his 80th year, and was interred in the new cemetery at Lytham, which owed its existence to his munificence. His "Life," with portrait, was published at Preston (1895), sm. 8vo; a large portrait in the attitude of preaching, inscribed—"Rev. George Gillow—Drawn from life on stone by Penauille," was published in the early sixties; and another of similar size and attire somewhat earlier (Liverpool Cath. Almanac, 1896, 108–10, with portrait).

§ L'Abbe Gilles Vielle, a French refugee, of the chapel in Holland Street, Kensington, which mainly owed its erection in 1806 to the liberality of Richard Gillow, senior, Esq., and John Kendal, Esq. He died at his post Aug. 27, 1823, aged 63 (Kelly, English Cath. Missions, p. 233; C.R.S., xii, 157; Gillow, Biog. Dict., iii, 484, iv, 12; Hodges, Cath. Hand-book).

Warwick, Esq., and died at The Rosary, Margate, Feb. 14, 1871, aged 74; Agnes, who died unmarried at North End, Fulham, Nov. 28, 1867; Sarah, spinster; Teresa, professed a Canoness Regular at New Hall Convent, in Essex, Dec. 3, 1825, under the religious name of Ann Joseph, and died there Feb. 17, 1878, aged 78; Georgina, spinster, who died at West Kensington, Feb. 1, 1890, aged 86; Clara, wife of William Joseph Keere, Esq., who died at Notting Hill, London, Jan. 16, 1837; Magdalen, who married William Thomas Bullen Lund, of Haverstock Lodge, Hampstead, Esq., and died Feb. 18, 1888, aged 78; and Rose, the surviving daughter, who died unmarried at West Kensington, March 20, 1893, aged 80. Mr. George Gillow published several artistic works, amongst which was: "Select Engravings from the Collection of Pictures, by the most eminent Italian, Flemish, and Dutch masters, exhibiting at the Saloon of Arts, Old Bond Street: with a short biographical notice of the pictures. Printed for the proprietor," London, 1818, fol., pp. 14-59, vii.

* Margaret, born Sept. 19, 1798, daughter of Robert Gillow, went to the convent school at Taunton in 1809, married in the domestic chapel at Clifton Hill Cuthbert Dunn, of Newcastle, Esq., and died at Liverpool June 22, 1868, aged 69.

† Joseph Gillow was educated at Ushaw College, and eventually settled at Clifton, co. Gloucester, where he died unmarried March 13, 1865, aged 48. He was a very fine amateur violinist, and occasionally gave exhibitions of his skill at his alma mater at Ushaw.

‡ Miles Stapleton, of Carlton, co. York, Esq., whose father Thomas claimed the Barony of Beaumont before the House of Lords in 1798, died in 1836, s.p., and at the decease of his only sister Catherine, s.p., wife of Sir George Courtenay Throckmorton, 6th Bart., of Coughton Court, co. Warwick, in January, 1839, the representation of the Stapleton family devolved on his first cousin, Thomas Stapleton, son of Miles Stapleton, of Drax, by his second wife, Lady Mary Bertie, daughter of Willoughby, 3rd Earl of Abingdon. Thomas Stapleton died in July, 1839, leaving by his first wife Maria Juliana, daughter of Sir Robert Cansfield Gerard, 9th Bart., a son Miles Thomas, in whose favour the ancient Barony of Beaumont, with precedence of 1433, was restored on Oct. 16, 1840. Lord Beaumont's granddaughter, Mona Josephine Tempest Stapleton, succeeded her father, Miles Stapleton, the 10th Lord Beaumont, to the Barony in 1896, and married in 1914, the Hon. Bernard Edward Fitzalan Howard, eldest son of Lord Howard of Glossop.

§ Anne, wife of Robert Gillow, of Clifton Hill, vide under July 28, 1811, was born Dec. 10, 1764, and died at Clifton Hill Jan. 6, 1841, aged 76. Her mother, whose maiden name was Margaret Lowe, married secondly H. Stanwitz, a Prussian officer.

|| The Right Rev. Mgr. Charles Aloysius Gillow entered Ushaw College as a student Aug. 25, 1831, and having completed his course was ordained priest Jan. 20, 1843. He was appointed domestic procurator of the college till 1850, when the office of out procurator devolved upon him, a position which he filled for the remainder of his active career. In December, 1880, he was raised by Leo XIII to the dignity of a domestic prelate, withdrew from the college in 1889, and retired to the residence of his brother at Leighton Hall. He had been a generous benefactor to the college, and his portrait in oil was hung in the refectory besides those of his great-uncle, Dr. John Gillow, the President, Dr. John Gillow, the Vice-President, and other celebrities connected with the welfare of the great ecclesiastical seminary of the north. He died at Leighton Hall Nov. 16, 1896, aged almost 78, and was interred in one of the family vaults at Yealand (Liverpool Cath. Almanac, 1897, p. 120).

THE CATHOLIC REGISTERS OF ST. PETER'S CHURCH, LANCASTER. 1784-1837.

CONTRIBUTED BY J. P. SMITH.

HISTORICAL NOTES BY JOSEPH GILLOW.

The mission has been so fully and elaborately treated in "St. Peter's, Lancaster. A History. By Richard Newman Billington, Canon of Liverpool, V.F., and Rector of St. Peter's, and John Brownbill, M.A., formerly Scholar of St. John's College, Cambridge," published in quarto with illustrations by Sands & Co., London, so recently as 1910, that little more is necessary than a brief résumé, with certain amplifications, to preface the registers.

After the accession of Queen Elizabeth, during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, no regularly established mission would have been tolerated by the civil authorities in an assize town like Lancaster, and consequently the adherents of the old Faith had to depend for their religious observances and sacerdotal services upon priests who were sheltered at different periods in the houses of Catholics in the vicinity. Principally amongst these may be noted (1) Aldcliffe Hall, locally known as "The Catholic Virgins," a seat of the Daltons of Thurnham Hall; (2) Dolphinlee in Bulk, another property of the Daltons, long leased and occupied by the Copelands, and later by the Balls; (3) Quernmore Park, or Park Hall, an estate of the Prestons of Furness, and afterwards of the Cliffords, but occupied by their tenants, the Taylors and others; (4) Scale Hall, in Skerton, an ancient seat of the Singletons, and later of the Bradshaws; (5) Highfield, a seat of the Southworths; (6) Halton Hall, the seat of the Carus family; and (7) Heaton Hall, belonging to the Brockholes family of Claughton Hall, in the parish of Garstang, sometimes occupied by them, and otherwise by Catholic tenants.

Many priests were imprisoned in Lancaster Castle, and many were martyred, but these do not come within our purview of those ministering to the Catholics of the town, though in those lax days prisoners were at times allowed such opportunities by their jailers. Probably itinerant missionaries occasionally visited the town and said Mass in the houses of Catholic residents. Such a one may have been the Rev. Thomas Hayes, "a Romish Priest," buried at St. Mary's parish church of Lancaster, Dec. 31, 1692 (Register, MS.), though he was more probably chaplain at Aldcliffe Hall. He appears as a member of the Lancashire and Westmorland Clergy Fund between 1682-92 (Kirk, Biog., p. 260). Early in the eighteenth century Squire Tyldesley had a town house in Lancaster, and constantly had priests staying with him. Upon his fifty-fifth birthday, April 3, 1712, he notes in his diary that he went to confession to the Rev. William Winckley alias Westby, and it may be assumed that on the occasion Mass was said in the house. The diarist adds: "In y^e evening went out with cos. W: W: Tucke y^e old House in Lenard Gatte of Thomas Gibson" (Gillow, Tyldesley Diary, 1873, p. 17). At this time "cos. W: W:" was the diarist's usual confessor, and frequently served his chapel in Fox Hall. A notice of him appears C.R.S., xvi, 583. Tyldesley never refers to his own removal to the Old House in St. Leonardgate, hence it has been surmised that he took the premises for the purpose of establishing an independent missionary residence in the town. The Jacobite rising, then brewing, probably inspired the ecclesiastical authorities with caution, and deterred the plan, and it was some years before it was carried out. Anyhow, it was not before the beginning of 1720, when the troubles following the rising of 1715 had subsided, that evidence is found of the appointment of a resident priest. About that time the Rev. Nicholas Skelton took possession of certain premises in St. Leonardgate, inclusive of a barn which was used as a chapel, and from that date the consecutive list of incumbents is as follows:—

Rev. Nicholas Skelton, a younger son of Richard Skelton, of Armthwaite Castle, co. Cumberland, Esq., and his wife Mary, daughter of George Meynell, of Dalton-Royal, co. York, Esq., born Dec. 17, 1691, was sent to Douay College in 1705; took the college oath Nov. 3, 1710; appointed to teach grammar Oct. 1, 1713; ordained sub-deacon at Tournai March 13, deacon at Cambrai March 27, 1717, and priest in December, 1718. On Oct. 1, 1719, he was designated to teach grammar, which he resigned, and on account of ill-health left the college for the mission Jan. 15, 1720 (Douay Diaries, pp. 55, 89, 90; Douay Lists, MS.). He came to Lancaster, and was entrusted with the care of the Catholics in and about the town. He was on friendly terms with the Duke of Hamilton, when resident at Ashton Hall, just outside Lancaster, who visited him in St. Leonardgate, and consequently his position was rendered more secure. He was an agent in Lancashire for Douay College, and one of his account books in connection therewith, from January, 1735, to July, 1748, is still in existence. He was also rural dean of Lonsdale Hundred. After the Jacobite rising of 1745 Mr. Skelton was committed to Lancaster Castle as a priest, and suspected of being concerned in the rebellion, but nothing being proved against him—as in the case of priests throughout the country—he was soon liberated (Kirk, Biog. Collections MSS.), and thenceforth continued peacefully to serve his mission in Lancaster till his death, Nov. 13, 1766, aged 76. He was succeeded by—

Rev. James Tyrer, born in 1741 at St. Helens, co. Lancaster (Kirk, Biog., 270), who arrived at Douay College in August, 1751, took the oath of the alumni in his third year's theology, May 24, 1764, aged 23 years and four months (Douay Diaries, p. 73), and, after teaching for two years and having been ordained priest March 25, 1766, by the Bishop of Arras, he left the college on Oct. 9 of the same year to take charge of the Lancaster mission (Douay Lists, MS.). Here he remained till just before his death, when he went on a visit to Hardshaw Hall, St. Helens, where a mission had existed from the time of Elizabeth, and dying there was interred within the ruined chantry at Windleshaw under a stone bearing the inscription: "I.H.S. Rev. James Tyrer, of Lancaster. He died at Hardshaw, the 5th of May, 1784. Aged 44. R.I.P."

Shortly after Mr. Tyrer's arrival in Lancaster, a return of "Papists" was made by the vicars and rectors of parishes to the Protestant Bishop of Chester in 1767, the numbers, presumably adults, being 640 in Lancaster, 71 in Caton, Littledale, and Gressingham, 12 in Overton and Poulton, and 27 in Bolton-le-Sands (Historic Society's Transactions, N.S., xviii, 218). On the other hand, the Catholic bishop, William Walton, V.A.-N.D., in 1774, made his visitation at Lancaster, and confirmed 72 members belonging to the congregations of Lancaster and Dolphinlee; and the vicar-general of the vicariate, the Rev. John Chadwick, on Feb. 3, 1783, estimated the communicants in Mr. Tyrer's chapel at 300.

Rev. John Rigby, D.D., a native of Lancashire, succeeded Mr. Tyrer to the mission, and took possession about September, 1784. His memoir appears in the writer's Biog. Dict. of the English Catholics, v, 421, and Dr. John Kirk's Biographies, p. 198, as well as in the History of St. Peter's, in sufficient detail to make it unnecessary to add more. Meanwhile, until Dr. Rigby's arrival, the mission was supplied from Alston Lane by the Rev. Thomas Caton (C.R.S., xiii, 372; and xv, 111), the Rev. James Carter alias Mawdesley from Newhouse (C.R.S., xv, 320), and the Rev. Richard Edmundson from Alston Lane, and their registers of baptism, commencing in April, continue to Oct. 10, 1784. The first baptism registered by Dr. Rigby is dated Nov. 3, 1784, and the first marriage Jan. 16, 1785, the last entries in the first book being respectively Feb. 20, 1799, and Nov. 25, 1798. An abbreviated copy of this book is printed in the history of "St. Peter's, Lancaster," pp. 217-237. The second book commences March 1, 1799.

During Dr. Rigby's administration Bishop Matthew Gibson made his visitation on Sept. 14, 1784, and confirmed 42 persons, the newly-installed incumbent returning the communicants at 400. In 1797 Dr. Rigby purchased land in Dalton Square for a new chapel, with the assistance of Mr. Richard Gillow, senior, of Lancaster, one of the principal supporters of the mission, who generously purchased, on Aug. 31, 1798, the old chapel in Mason Street at the rear of the priest's house in St. Leonardgate with the whole premises. Thus a chapel, dedicated to St. Peter, was erected on the new site, and opened March 1, 1799. Dr. Rigby died on June 10, 1818, aged 64, and was succeeded after a vacancy of several months by—

Rev. George Hilary Brown, subsequently first bishop of Liverpool, who arrived at Lancaster from Ushaw College, in April, 1819. In 1840 the Lancashire Vicariate was created out of the old Northern Vicariate, and Mr. Brown was appointed to the charge, and was consecrated bishop of Bugia in partibus infidelium on Aug. 24. He retained the rectorship of the Lancaster mission till October, 1841, the practical work being discharged by his nephew and successor—

Rev. Richard Melchiades Brown (C.R.S., xvi, 584), who arrived in August, 1840. In 1847 he purchased three acres of land at Greenfield, for the purposes of a cemetery, formed in 1849-50, new schools, and a convent erected in 1851-3, and a new church with presbytery consecrated Oct. 4, and opened for public worship Oct. 6, 1859. The luncheon on the latter occasion was presided over by Mr. Richard T. Gillow, of Leighton Hall, grandson of Mr. Richard Gillow, senior, as representative of the chief promoters of the old chapel. Mr. Brown, having resigned the dignity of a canon of Liverpool, which he had held from 1852-4, retained that of rural dean of the Lancashire and Furness districts till his death, Dec. 31, 1868, aged 62.

During his term he had the assistance of several curates—

(1) Rev. James Taylor, 1858–60 (C.R.S., xvi, 427).

(2) Rev. Robert Smith, eldest son of Mr. Richard Smith, of Preston, who studied at Ushaw and the Collegio Pio at Rome, at the latter of which he was ordained priest Dec. 17, 1859. His grandmother, Ann, wife of Mr. Robert Smith, of Larbreck, was sister to Bishop Brown, and it was probably owing to this relationship that he came as assistant to Dean Brown from 1860 to 1864. Subsequently he returned to Rome, was vice-rector of the Collegio Pio till its suppression, and for some time lived as chaplain to a convent in Florence. Ultimately he became a Camaldolese monk at Rome, where he lived at Santa Croce to an advanced age.

(3) Rev. James Parkinson, 1864–6, who had been ordained priest at Valladolid Feb. 28, 1863. He removed to Liverpool in 1866, thence to St. Joseph's, Preston, 1867–72; Barrow-in-Furness, 1872–5; again to St. Joseph's, Preston, 1875–7, and finally to Croft, 1877–82, when he retired from missionary duty and died Jan. 18, 1883.

(4) Rev. William Massey, ordained priest at Ushaw Jan. 21, 1866, who came as curate to Dean Brown, and after the latter's death remained with his successor until 1877. He then removed to Ulverston, thence in 1887 to Waterloo, Liverpool, whence he helped to found St. George's at Maghull, and died at Waterloo, April 23, 1889 (Liverpool Diocesan Annual, 1890, p. 85, with portrait).

Dean Brown's successor at St. Peter's was—

Rev. Canon William Walker, subsequently provost of the Liverpool chapter (C.R.S., xvi, 593), who continued in charge till his death, Nov. 28, 1893, aged 73, and was succeeded by—

Rev. Canon Richard Newman Billington, the present rector.

* The Rev. John Lindow was on a visit to his relatives and friends in Lancashire. He was son of James Lindow and his wife Bridget Ormandy, both belonging to families long settled in the parish of Ulverston, where he was born in 1729. In his youth he was apprenticed with a cabinet-maker, but feeling a vocation for the priesthood he was sent by Bishop Challoner to Douay College, where he was admitted in May, 1754. There he was placed in 3rd class underlow, became an alumnus Sept. 29, 1761, at the age of 32, and after receiving orders in 1764-5 he was sent to the London mission (Douay Lists MS.; Douay Diaries, p. 72). On Oct. 16, 1770, he was elected a member of the Old Chapter, and became archdeacon of Cornwall, Devon, and Dorset, and also treasurer, till upon the death of the venerable Dean, the Rev. Peter Browne, May 31, 1794, he succeeded to that dignity (Old Chapter Records MSS.; Gillow, Haydock Papers, p. 168). Mr. Lindow resided many years with Bishop James Talbot and afterwards with Bishop William Poynter in Castle Street. The Rev. Thomas Walsh, in a letter at Ushaw College written in 1778, speaks in the highest terms of his missionary efforts. In 1805 he retired to St. Edmund's College, Old Hall Green, of which he had long been administrator, and of which he is said to have given the original plan, and there he died Dec. 5, 1806, aged 77, and was buried at Standon, where his tombstone may still be seen (Chapter Deceased Brethren MS.; Ward, Hist. of Old Hall; Kirk, Biog.).

MEMORANDUM BY CANON WALKER.

(41) 1793

In this year after the entry of the baptism of Joseph Atkinson on the 14 Ap. — are three entries which are almost illegible from the fading of the ink—I have thought it well to copy them.

(10) April 25. Baptizavi Thomam filium Marmaduke Ball
 Catholici et Helenae Hodgson acatholicae conjugum natum die 20^o.
 Sponsoribus Gulielmo Briscow et Anna Askew.

(11) 28. Baptizavi Mariam filiam Caroli & Mariae Lupton
 Conjugum—sponsoribus Joanne Lupton & Margarita Carter.

[12] Maii 1. Baptizata est Joanna filia Gulielmi Oldcorn &
 Annae Heaton conjugum—Sponsoribus Stephano et Joanna Oldcorn.

It does not appear who was the minister of these three baptisms.
 the signature of the Rev. T. Caton who baptized Joseph Atkinson is in different ink and perfectly legible. William Canon Walker

* Mary Agnes Gillow married Francis O'Byrne, Esq., v. p. 60. Her only son, James O'Byrne, of Birkdale, an eminent architect (who had been a pupil of Joseph Aloysius Hansom at Clifton, Bristol), designed many churches, besides the ecclesiastical seminary at Upholland. By his will, proved in May, 1898, he bequeathed personal estate, upwards of £100,000, mostly for religious purposes, the residue to be used at the discretion of the Bishop of Liverpool. He left to Upholland College his collection of pictures, coins, books, etc., valued at £20,000.

✱ Constantia Jones, of St. Omer, spr., daughter of Michael Jones, of Caton, Esq., went to York Bar Convent in 1793.

* Thomas Eastwood, barrister, married the niece of Capt. William Heatley, of Brindle Lodge, who, dying a bachelor in 1840, aged 76, left the bulk of his estate to the Rev. Thomas Irving alias Sherburne, of The Willows, Kirkham. Mrs. Catherine Eastwood instituted proceedings for undue clerical influence, and after litigation a compromise was effected. Pamphlets were issued by the Eastwoods, and other actions were taken, amongst which a petition was presented to Parliament. Finally, Eastwood turned Protestant. He had a family of nine children, two of whom who were studying for the priesthood he removed from college. After his death in the sixties, Brindle Lodge was sold, with its rather fine Catholic library. (Gillow, Biog. Dict., iii, 254.)

No. IV.

THE CATHOLIC REGISTERS OF THURNHAM,
LANCASHIRE. 1785-1838.

CONTRIBUTED BY REV. P. BYRNE AND J. P. SMITH.

HISTORICAL NOTES BY JOSEPH GILLOW.

Thurnham is a township in the parish of Lancaster, co-palatine of Lancaster, four and a half miles south-north-west from the county town. Thurnham Hall, the ancient residence of the lords of the manor, is actually situated in the parish of Cockerham, which includes a portion of the township of Thurnham. Cockersand Abbey, founded in the time of Richard I for Cluniac monks of the Premonstratensian order, is within the township of Thurnham, or rather is entirely bounded by it on the landward side, being in itself an extra-parochial place, with its own overseers, guardians, etc.

It became the possession of the Dalton family partly by purchase in 1556, and partly through the marriage of Robert Dalton, lord of Dalton and Bispham, with Anne, eldest daughter of John Kytchen, of Pilling Hall, Esq., to whom Cockersand Abbey and lands had been granted after the dissolution of monasteries. Robert, not having any children, settled his estates in 1572 on his younger brother Thomas and his heirs, and Robert's will of 1578 was proved in 1580. By his wife Anne, daughter of Sir Richard Molyneux, of Sefton, who was living a widow in 1577, Thomas was succeeded by his son Robert Dalton, of Thurnham Hall, Esq., who died in 1626. He married Elizabeth, daughter of William Hulton, of Hulton Park, co. Lancaster, Esq., whose family hitherto had retained the Faith, and his younger son, Robert Dalton, baptized at Cockersand July 25, 1614, was admitted into Douay College under the alias of Hulton Aug. 9, 1631 (C.R.S., x, 296). The eldest son, Thomas Dalton, a recusant like his ancestors, was the famous Colonel who raised a Regiment of Horse at his own charge for the King, and died Nov. 2, 1643, from wounds received at the second battle of Newbury. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Robert Middleton, younger son of George Middleton, of Leighton Hall, Esq., and she was living a widow in 1652. Their son, Robert Dalton, who was admitted into Douay College, where he used the alias of Holland, July 30, 1655, at the age of 15 (C.R.S., xi, 526), was the last heir male of the original Daltons. He died in 1704, leaving two daughters—a son Robert having died s.p. in his father's lifetime—who became coheiresses to extensive estates. The eldest, Elizabeth, upon whom her father in 1700 limited his estate of Thurnham, married in 1683 William Hoghton, of Park Hall, in Charnock Richard, Esq., and the younger, Dorothy, became the wife of Edward Riddell, of Swinburne Castle, co. Northumberland, Esq., her marriage settlement being dated April 25, 1693, and she inherited the manors of Caton and Aldcliffe. The latter's eldest son, Thomas Riddell, was attainted of high treason for his participation in the attempt to obtain the throne of his ancestors by the Chevalier de St. George in 1715 (Payne, Records, p. 143).

Elizabeth's eldest son, John Hoghton, assumed the name of Dalton about 1710, and married Frances, daughter of Sir Piers Mostyn, of Talacre Hall, co. Flint, Bart., whilst younger sons were—William Hoghton, an officer in the army, who dying unmarried at Thurnham Hall, was buried in the old chapter house at Cockersand Abbey, the family burial-place of the Daltons, Dec. 10, 1712 (Gillow, Tyldesley Diary, p. 65); Dom Edward Hoghton, O.S.B., born at Park Hall, professed at St. Laurence's Monastery at Dieulward in 1710, and died chaplain at Park Hall Aug. 26, 1751; and Robert Hoghton, who resided with his brother at Thurnham, was convicted of high treason in 1716 for being out with the Chevalier de St. George in the previous year, and eventually died unmarried at Thurnham. The eldest son, John Hoghton-Dalton, was also "out" in 1715, and his estate was forfeited, but recovered before his death in 1736. He was the father of three sons and two daughters, viz.: John, who was taken to Douay College by the Rev. Cuthbert Haydock Aug. 7, 1723, left Sept. 21, 1730, married Catherine, daughter of Henry Whittingham, of Whittingham Hall, Esq., and left two daughters and coheirresses, Frances, who died unmarried, and Mary, who married George Thornbrugh, of Selside Hall, co. Westmorland, Esq.; William, who accompanied his brother to Douay, but left on account of ill-health in July, 1729, and died s.p.; Robert, the eventual heir to Thurnham, who was also taken to Douay by Mr. Haydock July 20, 1726, left June 5, 1733, married, first, in 1740, Cecilia, daughter of John Butler, of London, Esq. (Grimshaw MSS. apud me, vol. B. f. 646), secondly, in 1753, Elizabeth, daughter and heiress of Mr. Dempsey, of Middle House, York, and, thirdly, Bridget, sister and coheirress of Thomas More, of Barnborough Hall, co. York, Esq., by all of whom he had issue as hereafter; Frances, wife of Humphry Trafford, of Croston Hall, Esq.; and Elizabeth, spinster. Robert Dalton by his first wife had issue—John, of Thurnham Hall, born 1746, who married in 1774 Mary, daughter of Sir Thomas Gage, of Hengrave, co. Suffolk, Bart., who died in 1819, leaving issue as hereafter; William and Robert, who both died s.p.; Anne, a nun at Liège; Mary, a nun at York; Frances, spr.; and Dorothy, wife of Edward Sulyard, of Haughley Park, co. Suffolk, Esq. By his second wife Robert Dalton had issue—Robert and William, who both died s.p.; Jane, a nun at Liège; and Elizabeth, who married Capt. Thomas Nayler, R.N., brother of Sir George Nayler, York Herald, and dying in 1817 was buried at Cockersand Abbey. And by his third wife Robert Dalton left issue—William Hoghton-Dalton, Esq., to whom his father devised Park Hall, the ancient seat of the Hoghtons, which he sold; and Bridget Anne, who married Sir James Fitzgerald, of Castle Ishen, co. Cork, 7th Bart. John Dalton and Mary Gage had issue—John Dalton, only son, who married Mary Anne, daughter of George Cary, of Torr Abbey, co. Devon, Esq., but died s.p. at Bath in 1819, whereupon his widow married secondly Sir John Hayford Thorold, of Marston, co. Lincoln, Bart., and thirdly Sir Charles Ogle, Bart.; Mary, who died unmarried in 1820 and was buried at Cockersand; Lucy, wife of Joseph Bushell, of Preston and Myerscough Cottage, Esq., who died s.p. in 1843, and her husband in 1860; Elizabeth, who inherited Thurnham Hall, and died unmarried March 15, 1861, aged 81; and Bridget, who died unmarried in 1821.

By some means the entail was temporarily broken in favour of the descendants of Miss Elizabeth Dalton's half-aunt, Lady Fitzgerald, whose son Sir James Fitzgerald, 8th Bart., married in 1826 Augusta, daughter of Vice-Admiral Sir Thomas Fremantle, and sister of Sir Thomas Francis Fremantle, Bart. Sir James died in Miss Dalton's life-time in 1839, but was succeeded by his eldest son, Sir James George, as 9th Bart., born in 1831, who assumed the name of Dalton-Fitzgerald upon inheriting the Dalton estates in 1861. Upon his death without issue, his brother, Sir Gerald Richard Dalton-Fitzgerald, born in 1838, became 10th Bart., and succeeded to Thurnham Hall, which had remained untenanted from the time of Miss Dalton's death and so continued till Sir Gerald's death s.p. in February, 1894.

As the hitherto unbroken Catholic history of Thurnham now came to an end, it is important to revert to William Hoghton-Dalton, of Park Hall, whose son had been deprived of his rightful inheritance through some unhappy whim of Miss Dalton. It was probably owing to his marriage with a lady of apparently unequal rank, Louisa Smith, by whom he had two sons, William Henry Dalton and Charles John Dalton, and three daughters, Elizabeth, Margaret, and Bridget. The father, William Hoghton-Dalton, after his sale of Park Hall which undoubtedly was an annoyance to his relatives, passed a long life in benevolence, "to the last marked by the quiet and unremitted observance of the duties of our holy religion" (Catholic Directory, 1839, p. 102), and died Jan. 13, 1838, aged 74. His widow died at Hammersmith Dec. 15, 1865, aged 80 (Catholic Directory, 1867, p. viii). Their eldest son, William Henry Dalton, who had been brought up a Protestant, or had lost the Faith of his ancestors whilst living abroad, upon the death of Sir G. R. Dalton-Fitzgerald, the 10th Bart., set up his claim to the Dalton estates, and ultimately maintained it after carrying it to the Court of Appeal. He then settled at Thurnham Hall, died May 12, 1902, aged 67, and was succeeded by his eldest son, John Henry Dalton (Michael Jones, Miscellaneous Pedigrees MSS.; Twycross, Mansions of England and Wales, vol. ii, 21-4, with MS. notes by John Gage-Rokewode in copy formerly at Thurnham, apud me; Baines, Hist. of Lanc.; Visitations of Lanc., 1613 and 1664).

Thurnham Hall throughout the days of persecution was a centre of Catholic activity, and within its walls a chapel was always maintained. It has been said that a subterranean passage communicated with Cocker-sand Abbey quite a mile and a half distance, but this no doubt was one of the usual Protestant legends attached to monastic ruins in the cases of neighbouring Catholic residences. The old chapel within the hall was replaced by a Gothic one adjoining the mansion by Miss Dalton. The mansion, situated on a slight eminence, was erected about the time of Queen Mary, when the estate came into the hands of the Dalton family, but it has undergone many alterations. It formerly possessed gables and projecting bays with fine mullioned windows, but in 1823 it was refronted and converted into the prevalent style of the period, the front being terminated on either side by a small turret, with a castellated parapet. Over a projecting entrance leading to a noble hall were placed the arms of the Daltons impaling those of Gage. There was formerly a prevalent story in the neighbourhood about the fall of the key-stone over the old front door having been discovered one morning by the butler, who regarded it as a portend of disaster to the family. About this time was swept away the picturesque wall with bastions which had originally protected the mansion from the moat. This the writer remembers to have seen depicted in an ancient drawing. The inscribed stone of "The Seven Catholic Virgins" blocking one of the side upper windows was brought from Aldcliffe Hall, probably when that estate was sold by the Riddells.

In 1810 "a conventicle looking building" was erected as a public chapel at some little distance from the hall, which was superseded by the present church, furnished with a handsome spire, dedicated to SS. Thomas and Elizabeth, commenced in March, 1847, and consecrated by Bishop Brown, V.A.-L.D., on Aug. 29, 1848, from funds partly collected by the Rev. Thomas Crowe, but mainly contributed by Miss Elizabeth Dalton.

Though the Daltons constantly appear in the recusant rolls and other records of the sufferings of Catholics from the earliest period, but little reference, and that comparatively late, has been found of the priests who served the secret chapel at Thurnham before the latter half of the seventeenth century. The first chaplain on record is—

Rev. John North alias Lancaster, son of John North, of Docker Hall, co. Lancaster, Esq., baptized at Whittington Aug. 11, 1602, who was received at Douay College as a convictor Oct. 22, 1622, was ordained priest at Arras April 5, 1631, and matriculated at the University of Douay Jan. 22, 1632. He was then sent to the English College at Lisbon, and appointed prefect of studies. Subsequently he returned to England, and at first was stationed somewhere in Westmorland. He next appears as chaplain at Thurnham, and is notified as such by the Rev. Thomas Crowe in his History of Thurnham, towards the close of the seventeenth century, but it is more probable that the period was somewhat earlier (Douay Diaries, pp. 23, 44; C.R.S., i, 115, xi; Gillow, Reg. of Lisbon Coll., p. 235; Lanc. Par. Reg. Soc., xxxi; Foley, Records S.J., iii, 2). His successor at Thurnham was apparently—

Rev. Henry Holden, son of Richard Holden, third son of Richard Holden, of Chaigley Manor, co. Lanc., Esq., who, like his brother George, was an officer in the regiment of horse raised by Colonel Thomas Dalton and after the King's final overthrow went over to his uncle, Dr. Henry Holden, at Paris, and resolved to withdraw from the world. Thence he proceeded to Douay college, where he was admitted Jan. 1, and became an alumnus Dec. 29, 1649. He finished his philosophy in 1652, and in due course a few years later was ordained priest, and sent to the mission in his native county (Gillow, Biog. Dict., iii, 338; Douay Diaries, pp. 46, 82; C.R.S., xi). He is met with at Thurnham in 1675, and so far as is known he had long been there as chaplain to the widow of his former colonel and their son Robert, and in that capacity he continued till his death in the early part of 1688. His "Meditations upon the principall Obligations of a Christian Taken out of Holy Scripture, Councils, and Fathers." MS., 4to, pp. 177, is now, by the gift at Thurnham Hall of the late Sir Gerald R. Dalton-Fitzgerald, in the library of the writer. The next chaplain on record is—

Rev. Thomas Taylor, son of John Taylor, of Park Hall in Quernmore, yeoman, whose administration of probate is dated 1685, was educated at the English College at Valladolid, where he was ordained priest Feb. 22, 1701, came to the mission in his native district, and was appointed chaplain to Robert Dalton at Thurnham Hall. In this capacity he served the chapel in the hall, and also those at Dolphin Lee in Bulk, Park Hall in Quernmore, Caton, and probably several missionary stations. Tyldesley, the diarist, frequently mentions him. On Sunday, Oct. 5, 1712, he writes: "Alday in house [at Lancaster] till evening, when Mrs. and I went to young cos. Carus [Thomas Carus, then living in Lancaster, son and heir of Thomas Carus, of Halton Hall and West Hall in Whittington, Esq., who shortly afterwards apostatised and publicly went to the Protestant Church on Feb. 14, 1714] where I was to be Godfather [to Thomas Carus, who eventually sold the Halton Hall estate in 1743], and which was very remarkable, all the males in the house were Thomas*, viz.:—y^e Mr., y^e son, Mr. T. Tay^r [Rev. Thomas Taylor], Mr. T. Anderson, Mr. T. Backhouse, Tom T : [Tyldesley], and Tom White, my man; gave Mrs. Garswood 5s., the 2 mayds 2s. 6d. each, and after a pretty neet boull off punch drinking, wee went home." Again, under March 30, 1714—"Mr. Tay^r de Thurnham, dined with us [at Lancaster]," and, under May 8, 1714, "when din^r was don, went with Mrs. to Thurnham to see Madam Dalton, not well; stay^d there till eivening; Mr. Tayl^r, Mr. Sheep^d, Cuddy Threlfall [of The Ashes], and little Bryors [Thomas, of Preston, Esq.] there." Finally, the diarist records going to Aldcliffe Hall, another seat of the Daltons, on Sunday, June 6, 1714—"Went in the morning to Aldcliffe with Mrs., Do^r [Edward Hawarden, the chaplain to the Misses Dalton at the hall] and Mr. Tayl^r being both there."

After the defeat of the Chevalier de St. George, the following return to the Commissioners for Forfeited Estates, dated Oct. 16, 1716, was made by Thomas Nicholson, High Constable for the south side of the Hundred of Loynesdale, of "the estate of Mr. Dalton of Thurnham, s^d to be of the value of £1,000 p an.—The estate of Mr. Hodgson of Leighton, said to be of the value of £400 p an.—The Reputed Popish Priests are—Edw^d Gilpin, comonly residing at Robert Hall belonging to Sir Will. Gerard, Bart., in the township of Tatham—and Tho. Taylor formerly living with the afores^d Mr. Dalton & is thought to have made his escape from the Battle of Preston" (Forfeited Estate Papers, P.R.O., L. 2). John Hoghton-Dalton, of Thurnham, Esq., in another return (ibid., L. 3), dated Aug. 29, 1716, was put down in a list of "Traytors convicted or outlawed cotam^{re}," as possessed of real estate at Cockerham, Thurnham, Quernmore, Lancaster, Heaton, Charnock, and Ditton, computed at the yearly value of £1,300, Mr. Benison being his attorney, Mosley his steward for Thurnham estates, and Robert ffoster and John ffelton his stewards for Park Hall estate in Charnock Richard.

Mr. Taylor's subsequent career has not been ascertained. His mother Mary, who had remarried John Walmsley who died in 1707, registered as a Catholic non-juror in 1717, and then a widow residing at Park Hall in Quernmore, a leasehold under the Right Hon. Hugh, Lord Clifford, in possession of her son Richard Taylor, and also mentions her son Thomas Taylor. Her daughter Winifred was the wife of Robert Ball, yeoman, of Dolphin Lee within Bulk, held under Robert Dalton, Esq. It seems probable that Mr. Taylor continued to serve Thurnham, Dolphin Lee, Caton, and Park Hall for some time longer. His name does not appear in Bishop Dicconson's list of his clergy in 1741. Perhaps he is identical with the Thomas Taylor described as of Caton, whose will was proved in 1731 (Lancashire and Cheshire Record Society, xiii). Meanwhile, Thurnham for a time was served by—

Rev. James Gaunt, who came from Mowbreck Hall (C.R.S., xv, 151, 222, 315-7; xvi, 516), and appears in the account of Bishop Williams' Visitation in the beginning of 1729 under Thurnham, the seat of Squire Dalton, when his lordship confirmed 135 persons, Mr. Gaunt and the Rev. John Swarbrick, of Crow Hall (C.R.S., xv, 317), being present on the occasion.

Meanwhile, Thurnham was apparently served by the riding-priests who attended to Nateby Hall, the seat of the Leyburnes, Bowers House, the seat of the Greenes, Dimples Hall, the seat of the Plessingtons, and other missionary stations generally known as the Wyresdale or Garstang mission, as related C.R.S., xvi, 516-7. Amongst these priests were—

Rev. William Calvert, of the local family of Calvert of Cockerham Hall, till his death in 1735—

Rev. William Foster alias Daniel, who in or shortly after 1741 was appointed chaplain to Robert Dalton, of Thurnham Hall, and is there stated to be residing in April, 1743, when he was appointed a trustee to Stephenson's Charities (p. 21). On account of the dangerous state of the times owing to the raid of Prince Charlie in 1745, Mr. Foster had to leave Thurnham, and in his stead one "Edward Parkinson" is entered by Bishop Dicconson in the list of the clergy of his vicariate, but without the usual reference to the college whence he came, and is then erased. As no secular priest of this name, who could have been living at this period, is to be found in the registers of Rome, Douay, Lisbon, or Valladolid, and as immediately afterwards the Bishop enters amongst the list of Jesuits the appointment, under date Sept. 3, 1745, to Thurnham of—

Fr. Edward Cartaret, S.J., it is almost certain that the Bishop's first entry was erroneous, especially as Fr. Cartaret appears to have passed under several aliases, and that he is elsewhere asserted to have succeeded Mr. Foster. Edward and his younger brother Philip Cartaret both joined the Society, and another member of the family was Dom Francis Joseph Cartaret, O.S.B. In consequence of their religious character they seem to have been out of favour with the head of the family, Lord Cartaret of Hawnes, co. Bedford, and no mention of them appears in Burke's Extinct Peerage (p. 113) and Baronetries (p. 103). Both Edward and Philip are family names. Edward, born in London June 26, 1689 or 1691, according to Bro. Foley (Records S.J., vii, 119), entered the Society Sept. 7, 1709, under the alias of Fairfax. After his ordination he was appointed missionary at Stonyhurst, the ancestral seat of the Sherburnes, and was there in 1724 and later years. He was appointed chaplain to Robert Dalton at Thurnham Hall, as previously related in 1745, and according to Bishop Dicconson was still there in 1752. He must have withdrawn to Wigan about this date, for he died in Standish-gate, and was buried at Wigan parish church June 16, 1753. Bishop Gradwell, in his notes appended to Kirk's Biographies (p. 271), seems to question if Fr. Cartaret was not the real heir to the Barony of Cartaret. Thurnham was then served by—

Rev. John Serjeant, from Scorton (C.R.S., xvi, 517-8), until the arrival of—

Fr. Christopher More, S.J., whose sister Bridget, daughter of Thomas More, of Barnborough Hall, co. York, Esq., and eventual heiress of the More family, had married Robert Dalton as his third wife, and in consequence Fr. More was invited to accept the chaplaincy at Thurnham Hall in or about 1767. Fr. More, whose elder brother, Fr. Thomas More, S.J., was the last male representative of the blessed martyr, Sir Thomas More, lord high chancellor of England, was born at Barnborough or Barnbow Hall May 10, 1729, entered the Society of Jesus Sept. 7, 1746, and was ordained priest at Liège in 1754. For a number of years he served in Lancashire, until he accompanied the Daltons to Bath in 1774, and died there in the house of his brother-in-law, Robert Dalton, Nov. 27, 1781 (Foley, Records S.J., v, 703; vii, 517). Meanwhile, during the years that the Daltons resided at Bath, the hall was closed at Thurnham, which was again served by—

Rev. John Serjeant from Scorton till the arrival of—

Rev. Robert Banister (Gillow, Biog. Dict., i, 123), who left Douay College Aug. 15, 1769, and came to England, served Ladywell, Fernyhalgh, and then was appointed chaplain to the Dicconsons at Wrightington Hall. On Oct. 28, 1773, he resumed his professorship at Douay, but left the college finally on June 3, 1774 (Douay Lists MS.), when for a short time he took charge of Thurnham Hall mission in succession to Fr. More. Shortly afterwards he removed to Mowbreck Hall (C.R.S., xv, 223-4). He was succeeded by—

Rev. James Foster, son of James Foster, and his wife Emerentia Heys, the tenant farmer of Ashton Hall, near Lancaster, under the Duke of Hamilton and Brandon, where he was born Feb. 14, 1747, N.S. After being at the school at Ladywell, Fernyhalgh, he was sent to Douay College in September, 1764, but on account of his health left the college in syntax Dec. 22, 1767, till the following Sept. 26, 1768, but without being turned back. He took the oath of the alumni March 30, 1771. Having been ordained priest, he left the college for the mission in his 4th year's theology, June 5, 1775 (Douay Lists MS.). His first appointment was as chaplain to Sir Walter Vavasour, Bart., at Haslewood Castle, co. York, which he retained for about three years. He then removed to Burton Constable, where he remained for about seven years, and then was transferred to Thurnham Hall. Meanwhile, the Rev. John Serjeant is again found serving Thurnham from Scorton on Feb. 3, 1783, when the vicar-general, the Rev. John Chadwick, wrote to Bishop Matthew Gibson at Headlam, near Darlington (Ushaw Collections, MSS., ii, 491). On Sept. 16, 1784, Mr. Foster was chaplain at Thurnham, residing in the hall, when Bishop Matthew Gibson, V.A.-N.D., made his visitation, and gave confirmation to three persons, the communicants in the congregation being returned to his lordship as ninety (Bishop M. Gibson's Itinerary MS.). In September, 1785, he commenced the register. In 1802 he built the priest's house called Woodside, and in 1810 he erected a chapel—the conventicle-looking building—for which he had long collected subscriptions, as evidenced by an entry under date Sept. 8, 1805, in the "Records of the Catholic Brethren or First Catholic Charitable Society, Preston." Thus he continued till his death, Feb. 17, 1824, aged 77. His portrait is at Thurnham (Crowe, Hist. of Thurnham). His successor was—

Rev. Thomas Crowe, son of John Crowe, and his wife Mary Rothwell, of the Fylde, married at Lytham in 1787 (C.R.S., xvi, 511), who was born in the vicinity of Liverpool, where his father had settled. After a preliminary education in Preston, he was sent to Sedgley Park School in 1801 (Reg. MS.), and subsequently at a more advanced age than usual to Ushaw College, where he was ordained priest. His first mission was at Croston Hall, the seat of the Traffords, and thence, as occasion required, he went to assist Mr. Foster at Thurnham, spending five to six months with him in the years 1821 and 1822. After Mr. Foster's death in 1824, Mr. Crowe was appointed his successor at Thurnham. He commenced to erect a new church in March, 1847, towards which he collected £1,000, and the remainder of the cost was defrayed by Miss Elizabeth Dalton, of Thurnham Hall. In July, 1848, just before the opening ceremony and consecration by Bishop Brown, V.A.-L.D., Aug. 29, 1848, Mr. Crowe—owing to some difference with Miss Dalton and her private chaplain, Mr. Shepherd—resigned his mission (Gillow, Biog. Dict., i, 603), and took charge of that at Darlington, co. Durham, till 1849. Thence he was transferred to Puddington, Cheshire, 1849-51, and finally in the latter year was given charge of Formby, where he died Aug. 21, 1862. He privately printed the Brief History of the Mission of Thurnham, Preston, Evan Caunce Buller, 1861, 8vo, pp. 32, after Miss Dalton's death in that year, which has been used in the above account. His successor at Thurnham was Miss Dalton's private chaplain—

Rev. James Shepherd, born in Liverpool in 1814, who prosecuted his studies at the Benedictine College at Ampleforth, and as a student formed one of that body of seceders who accompanied Bishop Baines to establish the college of Prior Park. He was ordained in 1839, and remained at the college till its prospects warned him to seek another sphere of activity. After a brief retirement he became private chaplain to Miss Dalton at Thurnham Hall, and received his appointment from the Bishop to the mission upon Mr. Crowe's enforced resignation in July, 1848, immediately before the opening of the new church. In this position he continued till December, 1852, when, according to the Directory, he withdrew to his old college at Ampleforth, and there resided till 1855, when he returned to Thurnham as domestic chaplain to Miss Dalton. Upon the latter's death in 1861, at the age of 81, the personality, amounting to a large sum, under that lady's will, was mainly bequeathed to her lady-housekeeper, Miss English, whilst Mr. Shepherd obtained a handsome sum, which occasioned much local feeling. He then withdrew to St. Scholastica's Abbey at Teignmouth, where he resided till 1880. In that year he took up his residence in Bath, and in 1884 settled at London. In 1888 he returned to Prior Park for a short time, and in the following year received the dignity of a domestic prelate, Miss English being created a Roman countess. He then returned to St. Scholastica's Abbey. In 1890 he went to Clevedon, and in 1891 he finally withdrew to Prior Park, where he died April 22, 1896, aged 83. He published several works, one of them being "Reminiscences of Prior Park College," first published in 1886, which was far from being acceptable to the Benedictines at Ampleforth, though they did not publish anything in refutation till a much later period (Gillow, Biog. Dict., v, 501; Crowe, Hist. of Thurnham). Upon his departure from Thurnham, the contents of the hall were sold, the private chapel adjoining dismantled, and the mansion left untenanted and allowed to decay until the late Mr. Dalton established his right to the estates. Mgr. Shepherd was succeeded at Thurnham by—

Rev. William Ball, of the Dolphin Lee family, who came in December, 1852, and remained till July, 1857. His memoir has been given under Westby, C.R.S., xv, 7. He was succeeded by—

Rev. James Swarbrick, who has been noticed under Mowbreck, C.R.S., xvi, 227. He retired in the autumn of 1889, but was eventually interred at Thurnham in 1898. During his term he was assisted by—the Revv. George Dobson, 1868–9, Alfred Walmsley 1881–5, and Edward L. Smith 1885–9. The first was the only child of John Dobson, of Friargate, Preston, butcher, and was sent to Sedgley Park in 1853, whence he proceeded to Ushaw in 1855. At the latter he was ordained priest Oct. 25, 1868, and commenced his missionary career as curate to Mr. Swarbrick. Thence he was sent as assistant at Cloughton, 1869–71, after which he was placed in Liverpool, where he remained till his appointment to Douglas, in the Isle of Man, in 1874. In 1880 he was removed to Catforth, Preston, till 1885; Everton, 1885–7; and he was on sick leave 1887–8. Owing to differences over private funds which he had expended on one of his missions, which the bishop refused to return to him, he withdrew from the diocese of Liverpool to that of Nottingham, and was placed at Hathersage, Derbyshire, in 1888. He was made canon and vicar-general in 1900, and remained at Hathersage till shortly before his death at Bournemouth Oct. 5, 1906, aged 64. His father had left him fairly well off, and his part investment of this money was the cause of the disagreement with his bishop. After Mr. Swarbrick's withdrawal from Thurnham, the mission was given to—

The Very Rev. Canon Richard Newman Billington, who left in 1894 for St. Peter's, Lancaster. He was followed by—

Rev. Thomas Keeley, 1894–6, and

Rev. Patrick Byrne, 1896 to date.

THE REGISTERS.

[The baptisms from Sept. 15th, 1785, to Dec. 9th, 1855, and confirmations for 1791, etc., 1803, 1813, 1825, 1831, 1835, 1839, 1845, and 1853, are preserved in a ponderous tome, measuring $15\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $10\frac{1}{4}$ in. \times $1\frac{3}{4}$ in., half bound in buff leather, containing 376 pages of stout paper, ruled with perpendicular columns, the headings given below being printed on each page. It turns the scale at 6 lb.

Pasted to the inside front cover is the Certificate of the Registration of the Church of SS. Thomas and Elizabeth, Thurnham, for the Solemnization of Marriages. It is dated April 10, 1856. Pasted to page 1 are two certificates; both are dated January 1st, twelfth year of Queen Victoria [1849]; the first states that it is recorded at the general quarter Session of the Peace held at Lancaster on that date that the above church at Thurnham was certified to the Justices as "a Place of Congregation or Assembly for Religious Worship"; the second is to certify that on the same occasion the Rev. James Shepherd of the aforesaid church, Thurnham, "hath recorded his name as a Priest" Both deeds are pursuant to Act of Parliament, 31 George III, intituled "An Act to relieve, upon Conditions and under Restrictions the Persons therein described from certain Penalties and Disabilities to which Papists or Persons professing the Popish Religion, are by Law subject."

Pasted to page 2 is an extract from the Registration Act (6 and 7 Wm. IV, cap. 86, section 27), by which a penalty not exceeding £10 is incurred by the person who shall bury any dead body, for which no death certificate has been produced, provided he fails to notify the Registrar of this omission within seven days.

[The Rev. Thomas Crowe was Incumbent at Thurnham when those in 1825, in 1831, in 1835, in 1839, and in 1845 were confirmed. The names under the above dates are taken from among the Baptism names.]

A REGISTER OF BURIALS AT THURNHAM, 1825-1849.

This is an old copybook about $7\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ in., without cover, brown, and in parts much faded; spelling eccentric, with mysterious figures here and there on its pages, which probably refer to graves and plots of ground. There are thirty-two pages only, and of these ten are blank.

Over many of the names the letters P. 1. B. [paid 1 breadth] occur, and sometimes as in case of Jeremiah Walmsley, P. 2. B. [paid 2 breadths]. This signifies a breadth of ground was paid for.

On page 30 there is an account of work done in June and July, 1843. Shifting rails and peling and faling (?) larch, 7 days and 2 men on most; no names mentioned.

THE CATHOLIC REGISTERS OF SS. MARY & JAMES,
SCORTON, GARSTANG, LANCASHIRE. 1774-1835.

CONTRIBUTED BY JOSEPH EDWARD SMITH.

HISTORICAL NOTES BY JOSEPH GILLOW.

SCORTON.

The village of Scorton is situated in the township of Nether Wyresdale, three miles north-north-east of Garstang, to which parish it belongs. The manor of Nether Wyresdale formerly belonged to the Rigmaydens of Wedacre Hall, from whom, mainly owing to the family's staunch adherence to the old Faith, their manor of Garstang, held under suit and service to the Abbey of Cockersand, was assigned by the administrators of Walter Rigmayden temp. Elizabeth, Feb. 10, 1602-3, to Sir Thomas Gerard, of Gerard's Bromley, co. Stafford, a favourite of the Queen, who was advanced to the peerage on the following July 21st. Walter Rigmayden was a particularly staunch recusant, and hence was declared a lunatic in 1586, although he was still made to pay his fines for his contumacy so late as the 38th Elizabeth, 1595-6. His wife, Anne, daughter of Edward Tyldesley, of Morleys Hall in Tyldesley, and The Lodge in Myerscough, who was equally staunch, regularly appears in the rolls, and otherwise is found in the records of sufferers for the Faith. Several of their children died before their parents; but one, John Rigmayden, of Wedacre Hall, appears in the recusant rolls from 1591 to 1604, and later is described as of Garstang, and finally of Nether Wyresdale between 1607 and 1633, where the family continued till late in the seventeenth century, and of whom two became Benedictine monks.

Other houses in which priests found shelter were—in the parish of Cockerham, four miles south of Lancaster, the seat of the Prestons, a junior branch of the Prestons of Furness, who retained the Faith and resided there till about the commencement of the eighteenth century. Christopher Preston, of Ellel, gent., was on the recusant rolls in and about 1681, and died in 1689. The Grange was subsequently occupied by the Rigbys, passed by purchase to the Worswicks, of Lancaster and Leighton Hall, and was then occupied by the Gillows, who removed thence to Leighton.

Cockerham Hall,

seven miles south of Lancaster, formerly belonged to the Abbey of Prees, co. Leicester, and before the Dissolution the manor and rectory were farmed by John Calverley, or Calvert, fourth son of Sir William Calverley, of Calverley, co. York, and was retained by his descendants, adherents of the ancient Faith. Fr. Charles Calvert alias Baines, S.J., son of Richard Calvert, of Cockerham Hall, Esq., was christened at Cockerham, June 6, 1620, and died at Rome July 30, 1657. His sister Dorothy became a Benedictine nun at Pontoise. On Oct. 24, 1654, the manor was mortgaged by John Calvert and his trustees to the trustees of Maurice Tompson, Esq., whose son was created Baron Haversham, to whom it was later assigned. Afterwards it was occupied by the Frosts. Administration to the estate of Walter Frost, of Cockerham Hall, was granted in 1670, and his son or namesake, Walter Frost, of Cockerham Hall, Esq., was a great friend of Tyldesley, the Diarist, who calls him "Bro^r frost," and frequently visited him at Cockerham. He records under date Oct. 21, 1712, meeting his wife and two daughters at Cockerham Hall "to see Sis^{tr} Frost, very ill; stay^d halfe an hour", on June 3, 1713, the diarist relates how he went with his wife to Myerscough Lodge, "but as soon as wee got thither we hard off Bro^r frost death, Sunday night about 12 beffor, w^h made us not stay, but post to Cockerham; but he was buryed the night beffor, his phisicke not permitting him to keep. Wee stay^d an hower with y^e ladys." Walter Frost died May 31, 1713. It is doubtful if he became a Catholic. He presented the Rev. John Winter to the vicarage of Cockerham in 1695, and though the claim to presentation was disputed by Lord Haversham, it was maintained. In the previous year, 1694, he was impanelled one of the Grand Jury to try the Catholic gentlemen implicated in the supposed Lancashire Plot. After his death the manor of Cockerham passed to Francis Charteris, of Hornby Castle, Esq.

Calvert Nook,

in Forton, parish of Cockerham, was the seat of a junior branch of the Calverts, who also owned an estate in Yorkshire. The first to reside here was Thomas Calvert, a younger son of Thomas Calvert, of Cockerham Hall, Esq., by Isabel, daughter of William Kirkby, of Upper Rawcliffe Hall, Esq. He was succeeded by his son William, whose will, in the writer's possession, dated Sept. 30, was proved Nov. 20, 1657. The will of the latter's elder son, Thomas (apud me), was made on April 14, and proved Aug. 6, 1678. He had sons William, whose will (apud me), dated Feb. 24, 1683, was proved the same year, and Philip. William had a son and heir, Thomas, who died s.p. in 1703, and was succeeded by his great uncle, John Calvert, who left a daughter and heiress, Elizabeth, who married Mr. Lucas, and was living a widow in 1710. The estate then passed to James Smith, whose son William married Ann, daughter of Robert Haydock, of Leach Hall, in Woodplumpton, and his son James Smith married Elizabeth, daughter and eventual heiress of Robert Walker, of Forton, by Margaret, daughter of William Hathornthwaite, of Catshaw Hall, gent. James died June 29, 1765, and was succeeded by his son William Smith, of Forton, gent., who, dying a bachelor, devised his estates to his cousins, William Smith, of Clock House, Lea, gent., and Thomas Smith, of Elswick Grange, gent., though his sister Margaret had married George Blanchard, of Alston, gent., and had issue three children, James Blanchard, of Grimsargh House and Alston, Esq., whose wife was Anne Teresa, daughter of Richard Butler, of Pleasington Hall, Esq.; Elizabeth, wife of Evan Richard Gerard, of Gerard's Hall, in Houghton, Esq.; and Anne, wife of James Sidgreaves, of Inglewhite Lodge, Esq. The house possessed a chapel, occasionally used as a missionary station, and the writer remembers certain articles of altar-furniture, consisting of a portable altar and a small altar-piece representing the crucifixion, by an Italian painter, with ancient seal, affixed at the back. The estate was sold by the late Joseph Gillow, Esq., after the death in 1831 of William Smith, of Clock House and Forton, who married Jane, daughter and coheiress of Robert Haydock, of Leach Hall, the representative of the Haydocks of Cottam Hall.

Catshaw Hall,

one of the twelve vaccaries of Over Wyresdale, in the parish of Lancaster, was the seat of the Hathornthwaites, who derived from the neighbouring vaccary of Hathornthwaite, and during their occupation was a missionary station. William Hathornthwaite, gent., of Catshaw Hall, in the forest of Wyresdale, married Ellen, eldest daughter and ultimate co-heiress of Richard Blackburne, of Stockenbridge Hall, gent., and his only son, John Hathornthwaite, dying unmarried (will dated Nov. 26, 1753), the estates passed to his sisters and co-heiresses—Margaret, wife of Robert Walker, of Forton; Agnes, wife of William Caton, of Carr House in Cabus; Mary, wife of Richard Leckonby, of Leckonby House, Great Eccleston; Jane, wife of Mr. Crook; Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Alston; Sarah, spinster, of Garstang; and another daughter, wife of Henry Roe, of Backhouses, in the parish of Cockerham, who became the mother of the Rev. John Roe, of Black Ladies, co. Stafford. Catshaw and demesne passed to the Leckonbys, and was sold early in the nineteenth century by Col. T. H. Hele-Phipps, of Leighton House, co. Wilts., J.P. and D.L., High Sheriff of Wilts. in 1804, who had married the heiress of the Leckonbys.

Clifton Hill,

in Forton, in the parish of Cockerham, seven miles south of Lancaster, a handsome mansion erected by Robert Gillow, Esq., towards the close of the eighteenth century, was occupied by the family till the death in Paris of Miss Sarah Anne Gillow during the siege of the city, Dec. 8, 1871. It then passed to her nephews the Dunns, and after the death of Mr. James Fitzherbert-Brockholes, of Claughton Hall, was purchased by his widow, and occupied by that lady and her mother, Lady Stanley. There was always a chapel in the hall, but between 1878 and June, 1880, Mrs. Fitzherbert-Brockholes erected a small church, dedicated to SS. Catherine and Barbara, to accommodate about a hundred people. The mission has been served by the following priests:—Rev. Edward Swarbrick, 1878–85; Rev. Alfred Walmsley, 1885–9; Rev. John Crilly, 1889–91; Rev. Richard Barton, 1891–1901; Rev. Patrick J. Delany, 1901 to date.

Scorton Hall,

in the township of Nether Wyresdale, some three miles north-north-east of Garstang, in which parish it is situated, became the property of the Catholic family of Blackburne in the seventeenth century. The hall, a fairly large building, now divided into two dwellings, is situated on slightly elevated ground above the present old cotton mill in the village. It is thought to have been erected in the early part of the seventeenth century during the residence of Richard Blackburne, eldest son of William Blackburne, of Thistleton, by Elizabeth, daughter of William Kytchin, of Forton (Fishwick, Hist. of Garstang, p. 257). He married Jane, daughter of William Aynsworth, of Newton, and, having succeeded his father to Thistleton, finally settled in Newton. From him descended the Blackburnes of Stockenbridge Hall and Newton-upon-Scales, the two families of The Hill and The Brooks in Goosnargh, and the Blackburnes of Orford, Newton, and Hale, lords of the manor of Warrington, who abandoned the Faith of their ancestors and became more notable and influential than the Catholic branches of the family. Scorton Hall descended to Richard Blackburne's grandson and namesake, who also resided at Stockenbridge Hall. His will, dated from Scorton, Sept. 10, 1686, was proved in the same year, and his grandson and namesake, the last of the Stockenbridge Blackburnes, died in 1726. The latter, by his wife Mary, daughter and eventual coheiress of Laurence Livesey, of Livesey Hall in Sutton, gent., left four daughters and coheiresses, of whom the eldest, as related under Catshaw Hall, became the wife of William Hathornthwaite.

Robert Blackburne, fifth son of Richard Blackburne, of Scorton Hall and Thistleton, married Elizabeth, daughter of Ralph Longworth, of Tarniker Hall, subsequently known as St. Michael's Hall, Esq., and his son Richard married Perpetua, daughter of Francis Westby, of Myerscough, Esq. The latter's eldest son, Robert Blackburne, of Thistleton and Newton, gent., was apprehended on suspicion of being a party to the so-called Lancashire Jacobite Plot of 1694, and though never brought to trial, he was immured in Newgate for over fifty-three years, and died within its walls (Gillow, Biog. Dict., i, 223; Life of Bernardi, pp. 93 seq., 108 seq.) The Jacobite's nephew Richard resided at Scorton and Mawdesley, and married Margaret, daughter of Richard Nelson, of Mawdesley, gent., who, as a widow, resided at Scorton, and by will dated Jan. 15, 1718, proved 1720, left, besides a bequest to the poor of Mawdesley, a sum of £50 to the poor of Nether Wyresdale to be distributed according to the direction of John Hathornthwaite, of Catshaw Hall. This sum was, of course, intended exclusively for the Catholics of Wyresdale, but was seized by the Commissioners and incorporated in the "Lancashire Charities." This is apparently the last connection of the Blackburnes with Scorton.

Brackenlea,

in Nether Wyresdale, in the parish of Garstang, was a property belonging to the Jenkinsons, an old Catholic family of yeomen long resident there and at various places in Ellel, Bolton-le-Sands, Aldcliffe, and the surrounding district. One of the family, the Rev. Christopher Jenkinson, resided at Brackenlea till his death in 1723. He had a small chapel in the house, whence he served Garstang. It was probably after his death that Mass was said at Foxhouses, about a mile and a half from Scorton, on the north side, where in one of the dwellings there was formerly a priest's hiding-place. The Rev. William Calvert and Rev. William Foster seem to have followed Mr. Jenkinson, and in turn were succeeded by the Rev. Edward Daniel, who fled to the Continent after the Jacobite rising of 1745. The charge of the mission, which still included Garstang, was then given to the Rev. John Serjeant, who removed its seat from Foxhouses to—in proximity to the old hall, in a small, rude, thatched building used as a clog-maker's shop on week-days and for Mass on Sundays. Mr. Serjeant possessed means, his father being a yeoman of substance in the neighbouring township of Ellel, in the parish of Cockerham, and owning lands in Wyresdale and elsewhere. Eventually, when the times had become easier for Catholics, he replaced the original building at Scorton by one entirely set apart for religious purposes, combining a small thatched chapel with priest's house. The chapel was subsequently enlarged, improved, and slated. It belonged to the Duke of Hamilton, being parcel of his manor of Garstang, and when one of the later holders of the title was presented to the Pope at the Vatican, his Grace told his Holiness that he believed he was the only Protestant nobleman in the kingdom to own a Catholic church. When his Grace disposed of his Lancashire property he allowed a small portion, together with the chapel site, to be sold on very liberal terms to the incumbent, the Rev. Robert Turpin (Hewitson, Our Country Churches and Chapels, pp. 520 seq.).

The Tabella Missarum in Ecclesia seu Capella Stae. Mariae et Sti. Jacobi apud Scorton includes the following names:—Richard and Margaret Blackburne [Many Masses], Rev. William Caton, * Feb. 12; Richard Jenkinson, Nov. 26 [father of the Rev. Xfer. Jenkinson]; Henry Roe, March 30 [of Bankhouses, parish of Cockerham, 1731]; John Procter, July 9 [of Scotforth, 1743]; Domina Taylor, * William Towing, etc.

There are two ancient silver chalices at Scorton, inscribed under foot, A.T. and N.B.

The following is a record of the missionaries serving the mission so far as can be ascertained:—

Rev. Christopher Jenkinson, son of Richard Jenkinson, of Brackenlea, gent., who died in 1700, was admitted into the English College at Lisbon May 20, 1693, became an alumnus Dec. 21, 1701, taught classics for some time, was ordained priest, and was appointed procurator Sept. 22, 1711. He was sent to England June 12, 1711, and settled at his late father's house at Brackenlea, whence he attended to the Catholics of Nether Wyresdale, Garstang, and district. He also occasionally served Nateby Hall, the seat of the Leyburnes, and perhaps at Foxhouses in Scorton. He continued to attend the mission till his death Sept. 2, 1723, much respected and regretted by his flock (Gillow, Reg. of Liston College, p. 220). He was succeeded by—

Rev. William Calvert, a member of the family of Calvert of Cockerham Hall, and possibly a brother of Richard Calvert, of Cockerham (son of Thomas Calvert), whose will was proved at Somerset House in April, 1725, with letters of administration at Richmond in the same year. After a course of seven years' study at the English College at Valladolid, he was ordained priest March 26, 1692, and came to the mission in Lancashire (Valladolid Diary MS.). He served Nateby Hall, Thurnham Hall, and other places in the district (C.R.S., xvi, 517). After the death of Mr. Jenkinson, he also took charge of the Wyresdale and Garstang mission till his death July 14, 1735 (Old Chapter Records MSS.). His will, dated from Wyresdale, was proved at Richmond in 1735 (Lanc. and Cheshire Record Society, xiii, 50; and vide under Thurnham). His successor was—

Rev. William Foster, born 1707, son of Robert Foster, of Charnock Richard, a well-to-do tanner, connected with the Tootells, Daniels, and other good Catholic families (Payne, Cath. Nonjurors, p. 128, and original MS. in Record Office), was sent to Douay College, where he became an alumnus May 26, 1725, at the age of 18, being then in rhetoric (Douay Diaries, p. 58), received minor orders and the subdiaconate March 27, 1728, the diaconate April 2, 1729, and was ordained priest in November, 1730. He commenced the scholastic year on Oct. 1, 1731, as prefect general, an office which he retained till Oct. 1, 1734, when he became confessor-ordinary and prefect of the library, etc., till he left the college for the mission Sept. 11, 1736 (Prefect's Lists, MS.) He came straight to the Wyresdale and Garstang mission, which

* He was a relative of William Caton, of Carr House in Cabus, parish of Garstang, gent., whose will dated Nov. 9, 1750, was proved Dec. 28, 1751.

* Domina Aliee Taylor, of Cloughton, spr., dau. of Richard Taylor, of Great Eccleston, gent., by Anne, dau. of John Blackburne, of Stockenbridge, Esq. She or her mother would be the donor of the chalice marked A.T., the other, inscribed N.B., possibly standing for Nicholas Butler, as Elizabeth, dau. and heiress of Mr. Charnley, of Scorton Park, gent., married Richard Butler, a relative of Nicholas, and younger son of Richard Butler, of Rawcliffe Hall, Esq., by Kath., dau. of Thomas Carus, of Halton Hall, Esq., and subsequently resided at Scorton Park. Mrs. Butler, of Scorton, is alluded to in the Tyldesley Diary (pp. 55, 64, 71) in 1712-3.

meanwhile after Mr. Calvert's death had been served from neighbouring missions. Some time before April, 1743, when he was appointed a trustee of Stephenson's Charities (p. 21), he was also in charge of the Thurnham Hall mission. After the Jacobite rising of 1745, Mr. Foster had to seek refuge elsewhere, and on Sept. 3 of that year Fr. Edward Cartaret, S.J., was appointed his successor at Thurnham. He then disappears from Bishop Dicconson's lists of clergy and regulars in the northern vicariate, but in an Old Chapter MS. he is stated to have died at York some time between Sept. 27, 1754, and April 16, 1755, aged 47. (vide C.R.S., xvi, 517, which amend). After his departure there is a question of a temporary appointment to Wyresdale, as follows—

Rev. Richard Walmesley. In a note by Bishop Gradwell in Dr. John Kirk's Collectanea Anglo-Catholica, vol. iii (Biographies, p. 271), a priest of the name of "Walmesley" is placed at Scorton between Foster and Daniel. Though no such appointment appears in Bishop Dicconson's List, it is quite possible that the Rev. Richard Walmesley—the only priest of the surname at this period—supplied the Wyresdale mission for a brief period. Born Dec. 14, 1709, he was the eldest son of Thomas Walmesley, of Showley Hall, co. Lancaster, Esq., and his wife Mary, daughter of William Colegrave, of London, Esq. Upon entering the English College at Valladolid, he assumed his maternal name of Colegrave, took the missionary oath Jan. 22, 1727, was ordained priest April 12, 1733, and having finished his course of theology left the college for the English mission (Valladolid Diary MS.). He was placed at Burscough Hall, near Ormskirk, which he served till 1741. If he served Wyresdale, it would be about this time. He was in a delicate state, and went to Showley Hall, his father's house, and probably assisted the chaplain, the Rev. Charles Ingleby, prior to his death in 1743, and there died April 25, 1744, at the age of 34. The next priest at Wyresdale was—

Rev. Edward Daniel alias Bennet, whose memoir has been given under Garstang (C.R.S., xvi, 517), who resigned the Molyneux chaplaincy at Mosborough Hall and The Wood for the mission at Wyresdale, Garstang, Nateby Hall, and vicinity. During the march of Prince Charlie from Lancaster to Preston in 1745, Mr. Daniel, following the footsteps of his father, identified himself too closely with the Jacobite cause, and, in consequence, had to leave his mission and seek safety on the Continent (Gillow, Biog. Dict., ii). His subsequent career till his death at York in 1765 has already been related. His successor in the Wyresdale district was—

Rev. John Serjeant, born Jan. 3, 1714–5, whose memoir has been given in C.R.S., xvi, 517–8, came from Douay to his paternal home at Ellel in 1745, and after the defeat of Prince Charlie was arrested and committed to Lancaster Castle. Upon liberation he was appointed to the charge of the Wyresdale, Garstang, and district mission, and occasionally served Thurnham. In 1767 in the return made to the Bishop of Chester by the vicar of Cockerham, John Sergeant was said to be the resident priest at Wyresdale, with 57 Catholics at Cockerham, 40 at Ellel, and blank at Shirehead (Lanc. Catholics, p. 8). Notwithstanding, Mr. Serjeant is put down in Bishop Dicconson's list as of Scorton before 1752, and it is most probable that he established the chapel there upon his appointment to the mission, though he may have resided in Wyresdale. In June, 1774, Bishop William Walton gave 90 confirmations at Scorton, and in 1783 Mr. Serjeant was also serving Thurnham, the joint congregations consisting of four hundred communicants. On Sept. 16, 1784, Bishop Matthew Gibson confirmed 115 at Scorton, Mr. Serjeant returning his communicants at 310.

In 1753 Mr. Serjeant had a controversy with the vicar of Garstang, and he also published a work, entitled: "The Pope and Turk." The times in which he lived were troublesome, if not so dangerous as previously, but he always managed to overcome his difficulties with ease and credit. A memorandum amongst the records of the mission states that on one occasion, at the suggestion of a certain toll-keeper, soldiers or pursuivants were sent to apprehend him as amenable to the penal code, but these men were so struck with his kind and hospitable reception that they left him without executing their errand (Hewitson, Our Country Churches and Chapels, p. 522). Some years before his death it was decided to establish an independent mission at Garstang, and a new chapel was opened in 1788, which considerably lightened Mr. Serjeant's labours. Thus this zealous priest continued for fifty years at Scorton, highly respected by all with whom he came in contact, till his death Aug. 31, 1795, aged 81. He was succeeded by—

Rev. James Lawrenson, born April 28, 1752, son of James Lawrenson and his wife Jane Cottam, of Cloughton, who arrived with John Gillow at Douay College Oct. 16, 1766, took the college oath July 2, 1777, in his first year's theology, was ordained sub-deacon, and appointed to teach second-class rudiments on Oct. 1, 1778. He had previously been obliged to leave the college in ill-health, and did so again and returned home in February, 1779, and eventually was ordained priest elsewhere (Douay Lists MSS.; Douay Diaries, p. 78; Kirk, Biographies, p. 287). He was given the charge of Chipping Lawnd in 1780 until 1795, when he was appointed to take Mr. Serjeant's place at Scorton, where he arrived on Sept. 20 in that year. Here he commenced to keep a baptismal register, and continued it until old age obliged him to retire from missionary duties on Oct. 12, 1826. He died at Garstang Jan. 15, 1828, aged 75 (Hewitson, ibid., pp. 522, 547; Chapter Deceased Brethren, MS., Westminster Archives). His successor—

Rev. John Dixon, for whom vide C.R.S., xv, 6, 112, arrived on Nov. 12, 1826, and remained in charge of the mission until Nov. 9, 1830, when he was replaced by—

Rev. John Woodcock, born in 1768, son of Mr. William Woodcock, of Preston, who by will dated Dec. 6, 1770, left his estates in Preston, Euxton, Billington, and Bartle in Woodplumpton to his eldest son and heir Thomas, who in 1807 sold his house and land in Preston to William Cross, of Redscar, Esq., for the formation of Winckley Square and Cross Street.

The Woodcocks were descended from the Woodcocks of Woodcock Hall in Cuerden through a branch of the family settled at Lemon House in Walton-le-Dale. One of them, Fr. John Woodcock alias flarrington, O.S.F., son of Thomas Woodcock, of Clayton, gent., and his wife Dorothy, daughter of James Anderton, of Clayton Hall, Esq., was martyred at Lancaster in 1646. The Woodcocks of Walton, always staunch recusants, purchased Lemon House in 1663, and eventually, towards the close of the eighteenth century, removed to Preston (Abram, Hist. of Blackburn, pp. 733-5; Gillow, Haydock Papers, pp. 87 seq., 132).

John Woodcock was sent to Douay College, where he arrived Aug. 8, 1731, and his younger brother Nicholas followed in the succeeding year. He passed through the usual course, became an alumnus, entered on his fourth year's theology on Oct. 1, but during the French Revolution left the college on the 31st of the same month, and escaped over to England, where he was ordained priest at York in December, 1792 (Douay Lists MS.). He served Egton Bridge till 1827, and then went to Wycliffe Hall, both in Yorkshire, whence he came to Scorton on Nov. 9, 1830.

Four months before his death he retired from missionary duty to reside with the Rev. J. B. Marsh at Newhouse Chapel, where he died Feb. 12, 1837, aged 70, and was buried in the chapel. He was succeeded by—

Rev. Thomas Gillett, a native of Lancashire and an Ushaw priest, who was at Dukinfield, co. Cheshire, 1835-7, whence he came to Scorton, but only remained till 1838. In the latter year he removed to Brooms, co. Durham, till 1845, when he went to St. Anne's, Leeds, and in 1846 to Sedgfield, Durham. In 1850 he was transferred to Cheeseburn Grange, Northumberland, till 1855, when he retired from the mission in ill-health to Mount St. Bernard's Abbey, co. Leicester, whence he served Shepshed, and died April 1, 1867 (Cath. Directories, 1855-68). His successor at Scorton was—

Rev. Robert Turpin, born in 1807, only son of Robert Turpin, of North Shields, co. Northumberland, a Protestant, who had married a Catholic, and himself became one in 1819, who was sent to Ushaw College in the spring of 1821, where he was ordained priest, and sent to the mission in Lord Street, Oldham, co. Lancaster, in 1833 (Errington, Hist. of North Shields Mission, MS., apud me; Cath. Mag., iv, p. xxvii; Laity's Directory, 1834). He was transferred to Bolton-le-Moors in 1835, and on Feb. 1, 1838, took charge of the mission at Scorton.

Mr. Turpin erected a new church in place of the old chapel, dedicated to St. Mary and St. James. This substantial Gothic structure, designed by Henry Hansom, eldest son of the famous architect, Joseph A. Hansom, consists of a nave, a north aisle separated from the body of the building by four arches supported by circular stone columns, and a decorative chancel, terminating with a very pretty four-light window given by the late Richard Leeming, Esq., of Greaves House, Lancaster, and Lentworth Hall in one of the twelve vaccaries of Wyresdale. The Lady altar at the end of the north aisle came from Clifton Hill, and was given by Miss Gillow. Behind it was a rich stained-glass window presented by John Weld, Esq., of Leagram Hall, near Chipping, and on the south side a two-light stained-glass window, one side given by Major Stapleton, and the other by Mr. Turpin. The church was designed to accommodate about 400 persons, there being about 230 in the congregation. The opening ceremony was on Oct. 2, 1861, and on the occasion the present writer was trainbearer to Bishop Alexander Goss. Thus Mr. Turpin continued in charge of the mission till his death, Feb. 27, 1863, aged 55, and was interred within the porch of the church beneath a fine tablet to his memory. His portrait in oil is at the rectory. He was succeeded by—

Rev. Joseph Canon Ilsley, D.D., late president of the English College at Lisbon. Born Dec. 20, 1805, he was son of Joseph and Jane Ilsley, of Maple Durham, co. Oxon., was admitted into the college at Lisbon June 29, 1819, was ordained priest Dec. 3, 1826, and retained on the professorial staff. There he founded a flourishing secular school, which he continued to supervise for many years until in April, 1853, he handed it over to the college. For about two years he acted as pro-rector, until he was appointed president in 1854 by Pius IX, who also conferred upon him the degree of D.D. In 1859 he became subject to epileptic attacks of a grave character, and in consequence was obliged to resign his office of president in June, 1862, and to return to England. Bishop Goss then appointed him to the mission of Scorton, where he soon began to be afflicted with almost total loss of sight, till at length he succumbed on Aug. 30, 1868, aged 62, and was buried within the porch (Gillow, Lisbon Reg., p. 219). He was succeeded by—

Rev. Austin William Splaine, who came to assist Dr. Ilsley in 1864. He was born in Liverpool Sept. 4, 1836, locally educated at the Catholic Institute, thence sent to St. Edmund's Benedictine College at Douay, where he was admitted Sept. 20, 1860; ordained priest June 19, 1863; left July 9, 1864, and came straight to Scorton as above stated. Thus, upon succeeding to the rectorate in 1868, he continued to hold the position till his death, Nov. 24, 1888, aged 52. Three of his brothers joined the Society, FF. James, Cyprian, and William, whilst a fourth died an ecclesiastical student (Gillow, Lisbon Reg., p. 254). He was succeeded by—

Rev. Patrick Flynn, who stayed till his death, Dec. 20, 1900.

Rev. John J. Blackoe, brother to Rev. Edward Blackoe, of Ferynhallg, 1901 to date.

THE REGISTERS.

[There are two old baptismal registers extant. Book I, a paper-backed book 6 × 4 inches, containing 84 pages, of which 30 have been cut out, gives the baptisms from July, 1774, to Dec. 3, 1780, and also several business accounts and medicinal recipes. Book II, a well-made album, with stiff cardboard backs, half-bound leather, 8 × 6½ inches, containing 276 pages, gives the baptisms from Oct. 18th, 1795, to January, 1856, when the registers ordered by the 1st Synod of Oscott resume the record and bring it up to the present. There are lists of 'Confirmati' for June 20, 1831; August, 1835; Sept. 17, 1838; Sept. 29, 1845; June 19, 1853. There also occur a few marriages from 1838 to 1847. On the last page are several medicinal recipes.]

THE CATHOLIC REGISTERS OF ST. THOMAS', CLAUGHTON -ON-BROCK, GARSTANG, LANCASHIRE. 1771-1834.

CONTRIBUTED BY THE REV. HENRY HOLDEN AND J. P. SMITH.

HISTORICAL NOTES BY JOSEPH GILLOW.

Claughton,

locally pronounced Clyton, lying between the Calder on the north and the Brock on the south, and latterly called Claughton-on-Brock, is a township situated some two miles south-east of Garstang, in that part of the old ecclesiastical parish of that name. It gave name to a local family of which Richard de Clacton or Claghton at an early period was a benefactor to Cockersand Abbey. The subsequent descent of the manor is obscure, but eventually, whilst one moiety was held by the Singletons and their successors the Banisters, Balderstons, etc., the other was acquired by the family deriving from Adam de Brockholes, second son of Roger de Brockholes of Brockholes, which for at least three generations had inherited lands in Byre-within-Bonds in Garstang and Claughton. Roger de Brockholes in 1338 received from William de Tatham, rector of Halton, the manor of Claughton, purchased from Adam, son of Richard de Claughton. The grant was charged with the maintenance of a chaplain in Claughton, or at Garstang Church, with a stipend of 66s. 8d. Roger de Brockholes was killed in December, 1341, leaving an infant son and namesake, who married Ellen, daughter of Sir Adam de Clitheroe, and released in 1377-8 all claim to the manor of Brockholes to Nicholas de Brockholes, of the senior branch of the family, between whose two daughters and coheireses the manor was divided, and who married respectively Roger de Ethelston and Thomas de Singleton. Thus Claughton Hall, standing in a large park situated near the centre of the township, became the principal seat of the Brockholes family, though at various periods it occupied Heaton Hall, within the manor of Heaton-cum-Oxcliffe, some two or three miles west-south-west of Lancaster, originally inherited from the de Heatons, and still held by the Brockholes family (Harland, Baines' Hist. of Lanc.; Victoria Hist. of the County of Lancaster, vii).

From the earliest times of the so-called Reformation of the Church in England, the Brockholes family absolutely declined to associate itself with the subversion of the ancient Faith or to submit to the new system of religion imported from Germany and imposed on the people for political ends. This it regarded with the utmost contempt, and adhered to its creed in spite of the most severe persecution. In the Gardynier foundation of a chantry in the chapel of Our Lady in Lancaster in 1485, Mass was appointed to be said for the repose of the soul of Robert [? Roger] Brockholes, and about 1499 Roger, son and heir of John de Brockholes, of Claughton and Heaton, founded the chantry of St. James, in the parish church of Garstang, of which Sir Henry Haye was the priest when the chantry was suppressed in 1548 (Rains, Hist. of Lanc. Chantries). Henceforward the family maintained a secret chapel in the hall at Claughton, supplying its religious observances with the assistance of the numerous Marian priests dispossessed of their incumbencies, and those seminarists and Jesuits who at the risk of their lives came over from the English colleges abroad to keep alive the ancient Faith in Lancashire.

As stated in "A Summarie Informaçon of the State of Lancashire Exhibited by the L. Bishop [of Chester]: Register unto the late high Comission in those parts, according to the Direçon of the Bishop his m^r." (P.R.O., Dom. Eliz., ccxxxv, No. 68), about 1590—" (1) The number of the Recusants is great, and dothe dailie increase. (2) There maie bee seene usuallie every Sondag and hollieday, as hathe also very lately beene confessed, as many people repayre to place suspected in Religion, as to the Parishe Church. (3) The Papists every where are growen so confident, that they contempne Magistrats and theire authoritye as maie appere by the late outrage shewed towards the B. and his officers at Wigan, as also by the lewde rebellious speeches & usage of the prysoners in the ffeete at Manchester." The secretary then goes on to give a doleful report of the contempt and neglect of the newly set up "religious service of God." Indeed, the gentry and better sort scorned the Protestant ministers, and contemptuously termed the Elizabethan obligatory monthly sacrament as "taking wine with the parson." Notwithstanding, although the family continued to intermarry with the leading recusants of the county, such as the Sherburnes of Stonyhurst, Rigmaydens of Wedacre, Singletons of Broughton Tower, Bradylls of Portfield, Leyburnes of Cunswick, and other staunch Catholics, the head of the Brockholes family probably evaded the penal laws by nominal and occasional conformity, for "Thomas Brockholes of Claughton, Esq^r," only appears as paying for his wife's recusancy in 1598 in the shape of being "assessed for her Ma^{ties} service in Ireland" (Dom. Eliz., cccxvi, No. 80). Indeed, this lady, Dorothy, daughter of Nicholas Leyburne, of Cunswick Hall, had been on the recusant rolls as early as 1591-2. It was impossible for the head of the family to avoid the meshes of the penal laws much longer, so that after James I ascended the throne and had devised the scheme of feeding his hungry followers by granting them the benefit of the recusancy of Catholics, Thomas Brockholes, of Claughton, was handed over to the rapacities of an impecunious Scotchman called David Steward, who settled in Lancaster for the purpose of squeezing what he could out of the estates of those Catholics committed to his plunder, Dec. 23, 1607, and on March 21, 1608-9, one Charles Chambers was granted the same privilege (Dom. James I, xxviii, 97, No. 122; ibid., xxxi, No. 1).

Thus in this strain of varied persecution for conscience-sake, things went on merrily from the Protestant point of view, and successive generations both at Claughton Hall and Heaton Hall felt the full pressure of the penal laws. In both of these residences there were chapels, but that at Claughton only demands present attention. In the seventeenth century two priests of the family appear in the diaries of Douay and Lisbon, Thomas and Roger, younger sons of Thomas Brockholes and his wife Mary, daughter and heiress of John Holden, of Chaighley Manor. Both of them often said Mass at Claughton and Heaton. The elder, Thomas, took the oath at Douay College Sept. 8, 1676 (Douay Diaries, p. 49), and in due course was ordained priest and came to the mission. In the reign of James II he officiated at Whitehall, London, and in March, 1697, he appears to have been in Lancashire. Anyhow, about this time he is met with at Sunderland Hall in Balderston, the seat of the Osbaldestons (vide Abram, Hist. of Blackburn, p. 355, where the date is given as 1690). About 1716 he was acting as chaplain to William Massey, of Puddington Hall, Cheshire, Esq. (Payne, Records, pp. 95, 121), and in 1717 he was at Standish Hall, the seat of the Standish family, but subsequently removed to Burgh Hall, near Chorley, the seat of the Chadwicks, where he died Nov. 10, 1738 (Old Chapter Obit. MS.). The younger brother, Roger, took the oath at Douay in 1678, was transferred to Lisbon, where he was admitted June 15, 1683, became an alumnus 1684, was ordained, and taught classics for three years. He was made professor of philosophy in 1687, and divinity in 1690. In 1695 he came to the mission, was appointed senior chaplain to the convent at York Bar, was elected a capitular, became archdeacon Oct. 10, 1698, and died at York Bar in 1700 (Gillow, Reg. of Lisbon, p. 182).

In the following generation there were three priests, Thomas, Roger, and Fr. Charles Brockholes, S.J., sons of John Brockholes, Esq., by his first wife, Anne, daughter and heiress of William Barcroft, of Barcroft Hall, Esq., and with the death of the Jesuit in 1759 ended the ancient family of Brockholes in the male line. Thomas, the eldest of the three priests, became an alumnus at Douay Dec. 8, 1705, having been appointed to teach rudiments on the previous Oct. 1 (Douay Lists MS.; Douay Diaries, p. 54), and he was ordained priest in December, 1706, remaining at the college for many years as general prefect and procurator. After the troubles ensuing upon the unsuccessful Jacobite Rising in 1715, he came over to England on family business matters several times before he finally left the college, and is said first to have been at Manchester. In May, 1727, he was appointed to Wolverhampton, and in 1730 succeeded Mr. Edward Dicconson alias Eaton, subsequently bishop of the Northern Vicariate, at Chillington Hall, co. Stafford, the seat of Peter Giffard, Esq. He was made a member of the Old Chapter May 23, 1729, and in 1754 was elected archdeacon of Staffordshire, Cheshire, and Derbyshire. He was also grand-vicar to Bishop Stonor. He died Jan. 16, 1758, at Chillington Hall (Clergy Obit. MS.; Gillow, Biog. Dict., i, 308; Kirk, Biog., p. 270).

Roger, the next brother, will be treated under the list of the missionaries in Claughton, and—

Charles, the Jesuit, was born in 1684, made his humanities at St. Omer's College, entered the Society at Watten, Sept. 7, 1705, and in 1711 was sent to Maryland. He returned to England about 1716, and served the missions at Blackrod and Wigan for many years, dying at the latter Feb. 20, 1759, aged 75, the last of his family.

The name was then assumed in succession by the three sons of Mary, daughter of John Brockholes, and sister of the three priests, who married in 1710 William Hesketh, of Maynes Hall, Esq. These were Thomas, Joseph, and James Hesketh, after whose decease without issue the estates passed in 1783, as related in a note to the registers, to the Fitzherberts, who likewise assumed the additional name of Brockholes, and are still in possession (Jones, Miscel. Pedigrees, MS., p. 470; E. M. Phipps, MSS.; Visitations of Lanc., 1613 and 1664; Gillow, Lanc. Recusants MSS.; Twycross, Lanc. Mansions II, 41 seq.).

Missioners.

Mgr. Gradwell, in the historical sketch which he wrote of the mission of Claughton-on-Brock (Liverpool Diocesan Almanac, 1885), states that the Rev. Thomas Whitaker, the venerable martyr, is the first priest whose name is recorded as having done duty in this neighbourhood in post-Reformation times. Indeed, the good monsignor was so satisfied with his assumption of the martyr's missionary labours extending to Claughton, that he erected in the cemetery a statue to his memory, taken from the portrait preserved at his alma mater, of which he gave an illustration in his sketch of the mission. The only evidence of the martyr's service in this neighbourhood is the statement of his final arrest at Blackehall, in Goosnargh, the residence of Edward Midgeall, Esq., whose wife Frances was a daughter of Thomas Whittingham, of Whittingham Hall, of a noted Catholic family. It is very probable that the chapel in Whittingham Hall was served by the martyr, as well as those maintained by the Heskeths of Whitehill, the Threlfalls of The Ashes, the Kighleys of White Lee, and other families in the Goosnargh district.

Thomas Whitaker, son of Thomas Whitaker, master of the Burnley Grammar School, was baptized in that town on Sept. 26, 1611 (Lanc. Par. Reg. Soc., ii, 60). His mother's Christian name was Ellen, and as a widow she was buried at Burnley Oct. 5, 1652 (ibid., 278). Having made his early studies at his father's school, he was sent to the English college at Valladolid, at the expense of Richard and Charles Towneley, of Towneley Hall, and there he was admitted in 1634, under the alias of Starkey or Starkie. There he completed his full course of philosophy and his second year's theology, was ordained priest, and sent to England in 1638 (Valladolid Diary, MS.). On the mission, where or when is not stated, the martyr was arrested, but managed to escape from the pursuivants whilst being conveyed to Lancaster "at a part strange to him," and, returning to his friends, resumed his ministrations till he was again apprehended, as previously related, at Blackehall. This time he was conducted to Lancaster and committed to the castle on Aug. 7, 1643, the very day on which, after three years' detention, he was martyred at the common place of execution outside the town. Bishop Challoner's Memoirs of Missionary Priests, 1741-2, is little more, if anything, than an abridgement of the "Sufferings of Catholics," compiled by the Rev. John Knaresborough (Gillow, Biog. Dict., iv, 60-2), before his death in 1724. One of the MSS., the very volume in which the Ven. Thomas Whitaker's memoir appeared, was lent to the bishop, as inscribed on a fly-leaf of the MS., and in due course returned to its owner and the place where it lay till the present writer recently discovered and secured it after thirty years of continuous search. Though the account of the martyr in the original MS. contains additional matter to that printed by the bishop, there is nothing on which to base the contention that he was in any way associated with Claughton, and hence it remains merely an assumption.

In the same category must be considered Bishop Gradwell's note that a "Rev. Mr. Walmsley" preceded Mr. Blackburne as priest at Claughton (Pollen and Burton's Kirk's Biographies, p. 271). Mgr. Gradwell calls him the "Rev. T. Walmsley," adds that he was at Claughton in 1665, adopted as his motto Pars mea Deus in aeternum, and appears to have said Mass at the hall, whilst extending "his missionary labours over Goosnargh, Scorton, and the neighbourhood." The latter statement suggests confusion with the Rev. Richard Walmesley, of Scorton, of a later date. There was no priest of the name of T. Walmsley who could have resided at Claughton at this period, but there were several lay-Catholics of the name who lived there.

The Rev. Edward Blackburne, born in 1633, younger son of John Blackburne, of Stockenbridge Hall, Esq., went to St. Omer's College for three years, and thence on Oct. 11, 1658, was admitted into the English College at Rome under the alias of John Carey. There he was ordained subdeacon and deacon in March and April, and priest on April 9, 1661. He left the college for England in January, 1663 (Foley, Records S.J., vi, 395), and possibly for a time attended to the mission around Stockenbridge, in the township of Tarniker and parish of St. Michael's, near Garstang. Afterwards it is probable that he was in Lonsdale Hundred, perhaps at Heaton Hall, but eventually he is found at Claughton, and probably lived at the hall. By will dated Sept. 10, 1686, Richard Blackburne, of Scorton Hall, bequeathed his estate to his wife Margaret Nelson, of Mawdesley, for life, with remainder to the Rev. John Blackburne, of Gorsuch Hall, and Christopher Gradell, of Barbles Moor, whose wife was a daughter of Thomas Nelson, of Fairhurst Hall, by his second wife, a Hesketh of Maynes (his first being a Molyneux of The Wood), in trust to pay one-third of the estate to the secular clergymen who shall assist the Catholics in Mawdesley and in the parish of Garstang, four Masses to be said monthly for the repose of the souls of Richard and Margaret Blackburne, with twenty shillings for the poor Catholics in Lower Wyresdale and Mawdesley respectively; and further to the priests in charge of "Our Blessed Ladies Chapel at Fernihalg" all the remainder of the estate. About this trust the Rev. John Blackburne and Christopher Gradell made a Declaration Jan. 15, 1691 (West Derby Hundred Records, MS., and original document directed to the Rev. Robert Banister, of Mowbreck Hall). Mr. John Blackburne died at Moor Hall, Aughton, the seat of Mrs. Wolfall, April 2, 1728, and was buried in the ruined chapel of St. Catherine at Lydiate, whilst Mr. Christopher Gradell lived well into the eighteenth century. The latter's father, William Gradell, of Barbles Moor, Esq., whose wife was Elizabeth, daughter of Capt. John Butler, of Kirkland Hall, in Garstang, by Mary, daughter of Thomas Stanley, of Great Eccleston Hall, Esq., was trustee for what was known amongst Catholics as the "Garstang Parish Trust" for the support of a priest in those parts, given by some member of the Molyneux family, and in 1680 he nominated in his place the Rev. Edward Blackburne, the priest at Claughton (Gradwell, Hist. of the Mission).

About 1700 Mr. Blackburne and his nephew, the Rev. Richard Taylor alias Sherburne, who had come to Claughton to assist in the mission, purchased from Mr. Charles Butler, eldest son of Henry Butler, of Great Eccleston, gent., second son of Henry Butler, of Rawcliffe Hall, Esq., the site of the present chapel and presbytery. Mr. Butler's eldest son, Lancelot Butler, Esq., who died June 6, 1754, married Alice, daughter and heiress of Nicholas Taylor, of Great Eccleston, gent., who died in 1712, a near relative of the Rev. Richard Taylor. Lancelot's son, Richard Butler, was the purchaser of the manor of Pleasington and the hall in 1777. It was upon this site that Mr. Taylor erected a house at his sole charge, with the exception of £1 rs. given him by his uncle. This house, however, was not erected for the benefit of the mission, though eventually it became the presbytery attached to the present chapel. Mr. Taylor left his whole interest in the property to his own family, though he bequeathed £70 for anniversary Masses for himself and relatives, with directions that they be said at his house in Claughton.

In 1673, when the Secular Clergy Fund was instituted, Mr. Blackburne's name appears in the list of the original members, and it should be noted that in 1675 he was Collector for the Hundred of Lonsdale (Bolton, Papists' Bloody Oath of Secrecy, 1680). In 1680 he subscribed £10 to the Lancashire and Westmorland Clergy Fund, as it was then called (Kirk, Biog. Collections). He was also rural dean of Amounderness Hundred, including the Fylde, Preston, and Garstang. He died at Claughton in September, 1709, aged 75, and his will was proved in that year at Richmond (Fishwick, Lanc. Record Soc., vol. xiii). He was succeeded by—

Rev. Richard Taylor alias Sherburne, son of Richard Taylor, of Great Eccleston, gent., and his wife, a daughter of John Blackburne, of Stockenbridge Hall, Esq. The Taylors of Great Eccleston were related to the Catons, one of whom, Mrs. Joan Caton, widow, resided on her own property at Claughton with her sister, Miss Alice Taylor, and both were considerable supporters of the missions at Scorton and Claughton. They were sisters to the Rev. Richard Taylor. The latter was sent to the English College at Lisbon, where he was admitted an alumnus Dec. 30, 1682. Having been ordained priest, he left the college for England May 19, 1685, and was placed with his uncle, the Rev. Edward Blackburne, at Claughton. On the mission he assumed the name of Sherburne, possibly through some kinship with the Sherburnes of Wolf House in Chipping. Upon the death of his uncle in 1709, he succeeded to the sole charge of the mission. During the troubles consequent on the Jacobite Rising of 1715, Mr. Taylor had to fly from Claughton, and for a time lived in an obscure house in Goosnargh, where he officiated in great privacy as frequently as it was considered safe. He was sought by the priest-catchers, but always eluded capture. As soon as things quietened down, Mr. Taylor returned to Claughton, and retained charge of the mission till his death June 3, 1726. There are many mementoes of him at the rectory—an oak desk, apparently having belonged to his father, as it is inscribed R.T., with the date 1680; some valuable works of divinity and ecclesiastical history; and an interesting relic in the shape of a flat stone, 13 × 12 × 1 inches, which possibly had been inserted over a fire-place. It bears the representation of a host, under which are the initials R.T. on either side of the Sacred Heart, and at foot the date 1714.

Squire Tyldesley, in his Diary, records several occasions on which he went to Claughton for Mass or otherwise, or met the Brockholes family—Sunday, Jan. 3, 1714, "Thence to Esq^{re} Brookholles; sate with y^e younge Esq^{re} an how^r; pray^d [heard Mass]; and thence to y^e ffell-end. Francis Kirk was the priest in charge of The Hough, Hollowforth in Newsham, the adjoining mission to Claughton, of whom some notice is given C.R.S., xv, 317;—Sunday, Sept. 19, 1714, "Went to Whithill [the seat of Gabriel Hesketh, of Whitehill in Goosnargh, Esq.]; found son Threlfall and lady there [Cuthbert Threlfall, Esq., of The Ashes in Goosnargh]; stay^d alday. After the unsuccessful raid of the Chevalier de St. George in 1715, George Greene, of Goosnargh, gent., the high-constable of Amounderness Hundred, forwarded to his majesty's commissioners for Forfeited Estates on Oct. 17, 1716, "True Copies" of the returns of the various constables of the townships, and under that of Claughton, dated Oct. 12 (P.R.O., Forfeited Estates Papers, L 2), John Goose, constable, reports as traitors : " John Brockholes and Wm. Brockholes (sons of John Brockholes, Esq.), James Dockady ; Priests or so reputed is Roger Brockholes and Richard Taylor." The eldest and youngest sons of the squire were John, a bachelor, who probably died through the effect of wounds received at the battle of Preston, Sept. 25, 1717, and William, who married but died s.p., when the Brockholes estates passed in succession to the three sons of his sister Mary, wife of William Hesketh, of Maynes Hall, Esq. James Dockeday (or Dogheda, as he is elsewhere called), the other traitor returned as of Claughton, was merely described as a Papist husbandman possessed of no estate in the township. John Brockholes, Esq., and his son William Brockholes, gent., with James Dockeday, husbandman, were all convicted of recusancy at the Lancaster Sessions on Jan. 15, 1716-7 (P.R.O., Forfeited Estates, 62 P.). The squire's other three sons were Thomas and Roger, secular priests, and Charles, a Jesuit (Gillow, Biog. Dict., i, 306-9). Roger assisted various missionary stations in the neighbourhood from Claughton Hall, and succeeded Mr. Taylor to the charge of the mission in 1726 (Kirk, Biographies MSS., and printed version ; Gillow, Lisbon Reg., pp. 257-8 ; Mgr. Robt. Gradwell, History of Claughton Mission, Liverpool Catholic Almanac, 1885, pp. 79-94. and correspondence with the writer ; Old Chapter Obit. MSS.).

Rev. Roger Brockholes, a brief memoir of whom appeared C.R.S., xv, 319, was born at Claughton in 1682, and, after studying some time at Ladywell, Fernyhalgh, went abroad and ultimately was admitted into the English College at Rome Oct. 17, 1703. He was ordained sub-deacon and deacon in March and April, priest June 2, 1708, and left the college for Paris April 25, 1710 (Foley, Records S.J., vi, 454). Thence he came to Lancashire, and served various districts around the place of his birth, eventually fixing his abode at one of his father's farms, now called Priestshome. He served The Hough as well as the chapel at Claughton Hall, and thus appears in Bishop Dicconson's list in 1741 (List of his Clergy, MS.). He died at Priestshome, which was eventually settled upon the secular clergy priest serving Claughton, Dec. 30, 1742, aged 60. He was succeeded by—

Rev. Richard Birtwistle alias Halliwell, a scion of the ancient Catholic family of Birtwistle of Huncote, co. Lancaster, which returned a pedigree at Dugdale's Visitation in 1664. He probably assumed his alias from his mother, a daughter of William Halliwell, of Liverpool, gent., whose family was allied to those of Nelson of Fairhurst Hall, Molyneux of The Wood, and other county families. He was admitted into the English College at Lisbon Aug. 17, 1727, on Dr. Thomas Godden's Fund, ordained priest Feb. 17, 1737, appointed prefect of studies March 31, 1738, vice-president Oct. 31, 1739, and left the college for the mission Jan. 31, 1741. For a brief period he was stationed at Bunbury, in the parish of Spurstow, co. Chester, but came in the same year to succeed Mr. Brockholes at Claughton, and appears in Bishop Dicconson's List as serving here and at Newhouse. He was probably in ill-health when he left Lisbon, and died at Claughton Jan. 26, 1742-3. His successor was—

Rev. James Parkinson alias Cotham, born Jan. 24, 1715-6, son of Richard Parkinson, of Broughton, gent., by Anne, daughter of Richard Cottam, of Banister Hey in Claughton, gent. He was a relative of the Brockholes family, his grandparents being Richard Perkinson (or Parkinson), of Leach Hall, gent., and his wife Anne, daughter of John Brockholes, of Claughton Hall, Esq., by his third wife Dorothy, daughter of Robert White, of Cross House, Great Eccleston, Esq. The subject of this memoir was sent from Dame Alice's school at Fernyhalgh to Douay College by the Lancashire agent, the Rev. Nicholas Skelton. There he arrived with his brother Thomas in September, 1729 (Nic. Skelton's Douay Account Book MS.). The elder brother, Thomas, assumed the name of Golden, after his aunt, the wife of Thomas Golden, of Hardshaw Hall, in the parish of Prescott, gent., and the younger James that of Cottam or Cotham, as the name about this time began to be spelt, after his mother, the two ladies being sisters. The manor of Hardshaw subsequently descended to John Penketh-Cotham (C.R.S., vi, 106, 179, 182), and latterly to the Walmesley-Cothams. James became an alumnus at Douay July 25, 1734, received the tonsure and four minor orders at Cambrai May 29, 1738, the subdiaconate June 9, 1739, the diaconate April 2, and the priesthood June 11, 1740, was appointed to teach grammar, left the college for the mission Sept. 27, 1741 (Douay Lists MS.), and came to Claughton to assist Mr. Birtwistle. Upon the latter's death he succeeded to the charge of Claughton and Newhouse.

During his pastorate the house built by the Rev. Richard Taylor was purchased in 1745 from Mr. Lancelot Butler, whose wife was a Taylor, in the names of the bishop of the vicariate, Edward Dicconson, the Rev. Thomas Hawarden, and the Rev. John Couban for the benefit of the Claughton mission. After Mr. Parkinson was duly installed in his new abode, the room subsequently occupied as a library was converted into a chapel. It was approached from the back by stone steps, in the usual style of Catholic chapels at that period, generally described as "up-steps."

Here he pursued the even course of his career until a fever contracted whilst attending his flock carried him away on Jan. 26, 1766, aged 50, and two days later he was buried at Broughton parish church, and entered in the register as "Mr. James Parkinson, a Romish Priest of Claughton" (Lanc. Par. Reg. Soc., xl, 131). It was not until the following July 13 that his successor arrived—

Rev. John Barrow, born May 13, 1735, son of Edward Barrow and his wife, Ann Hall, of Westby in the Fylde. He was grandnephew of Fr. John Barrow, S.J., who served the mission at Westby Hall in 1717. On Feb. 17, 1749, John Barrow was admitted into the English College at Rome, and after more than seven years left the college, June 15, 1756 (Foley, Records S.J., vi, 492), but on arrival at Portsmouth was seized by a press-gang, and compelled to serve for some years in one of his majesty's ships. On one occasion he was severely wounded in the hand, and tradition states that at length he escaped from his ship whilst stationed off Dunkirk by leaping through a porthole into the sea and swimming ashore. When retaken and tried by court-martial, he got off by pretending to speak no other language than Italian, and when told by the suspicious president that he was acquitted and might go, he had the presence of mind to appear not to understand, but asked the interpreter, "Che dici?" (what does he say?) (Gillow, Biog. Dict., i, 145-8). In November, 1761, he was again in London, acting as escort to two young ladies travelling to the continent to embrace a religious life. These he conducted to the convent of Poor Clares at Gravelines, where one of his sisters was a nun (C.R.S., xiv, 156), and the next day he started off for Douay College, there was admitted Dec. 13, 1761 (Douay Lists, MS.), and was placed in divinity. He became an alumnus May 24 (Douay Diaries, p. 73), entered his fourth year's theology

Oct. 1, 1764, was ordained shortly afterwards, and appears as a professor at the opening of the following scholastic year, but left the college June 27, 1766, for the English mission (Douay Lists, MS.), and arrived at Claughton as previously stated. His description of his journey to Lancashire is interesting, and displays something of the vigour of his character.

During his administration, in June, 1774, Bishop William Walton, V.A.-N.D., made his visitation at Claughton and confirmed 139 persons. On Feb. 3, 1783, the Rev. John Chadwick, of Weldbank, Chorley, V.G. for Lancashire, wrote to Bishop Matthew Gibson, V.A.-N.D., at Headlam, near Darlington, giving returns of all the missions in the county, Mr. Barrow being at Claughton with a congregation of 300 communicants (Ushaw Collections, MSS., ii, 491). Twice he effected great alterations in his chapel, the second time in 1794, when it was greatly enlarged, and to this day it remains substantially what he left it. As agent for the Secular Clergy Fund, of which he was appointed Collector for the Hundred of Amounderness in 1783, he rendered inestimable service in reorganising the investments; and when Douay College was seized by the French Revolutionists in 1793 he took a prominent part in its proposed re-establishment in the north of England, and Ushaw owes him a debt of gratitude for his exertions in this respect. In his declining years, for some short time in 1803-5, he had an assistant in the person of the Rev. Thomas Irving alias Sherburne (C.R.S., xv, 225), and for the last eighteen months of his life the Rev. Robert Gradwell, his eventual successor. His death took place at Claughton Feb. 12, 1811, aged 75, and he was buried at the neighbouring mission of Newhouse.

Rev. Robert Gradwell, born Jan. 26, 1777 (C.R.S., xv, 160), son of John Gradwell, of Clifton in the Fylde, yeoman, and his wife Margaret, daughter and heiress of John Gregson, of Green House, Balderston, co. Lancaster, gent., was descended from a younger son of the ancient family of Gradell of Barbles Moor in Ulnes Walton, and some brief account of the family appears in the writer's notice of Bishop Gradwell, Biog. Dict., ii, 547-57. After making his preliminary studies under the Rev. Robert Banister at Mowbreck Hall, young Gradwell was sent to Douay College, where he was admitted Sept. 30, 1791, but when the college was seized by the Revolutionists in August, 1793, he was confined with the remnant of the community in various places till they were liberated and permitted to return to England and land at Dover on March 2, 1795. The youth returned to his parents at Clifton, but eventually accompanied the Rev. George Leo Haydock and his brother Thomas to Crook Hall, Durham, where most of the Douay refugees had assembled, and was admitted Jan. 17, 1796. There he was ordained priest Dec. 4, 1802, and was retained by the president as professor of poetry and rhetoric until he left to be assistant to Mr. Barrow at Claughton on July 18, 1809 (Ushaw Diary, MS.; Gillow, Haydock Papers). Upon Mr. Barrow's decease he succeeded to the charge of the mission, and retained it till 1817, when, upon the restoration of the English College at Rome, he was appointed rector by the English vicars-apostolic. On Sept. 15 he left Claughton in charge of his brother Henry, and arrived at Rome on the following Nov. 2. He received the degree of D.D. in 1820. On May 19, 1828, Propaganda elected him to be co-adjutor to the vicar-apostolic of the London district, and he was consecrated bishop on the succeeding June 24th. Thus he resigned the rectorship of the English college, and departed for London, where he arrived in August. In his new sphere he won universal respect, but his health gave way under the strain, and he died of dropsy at Golden Square, London, March 15, 1833, aged 56 (Brady, Episcop. Succession, iii, 197-9). He was succeeded at Claughton by—

Rev. Henry Odo Gradwell, born at Clifton Nov. 19, 1792 (C.R.S., xv, 172), arrived at the college at Crook Hall from Preston, where his father had settled, Oct. 3, 1803, was ordained priest at Ushaw, and left for Claughton, where he said his first Mass Sept. 14, 1817, and the next day was left in charge of the mission by his brother Robert. About 1832 he was chosen secretary of the Infirm Clergy Fund, and later became its treasurer, an office which he retained till his death. In 1835 he decided to enlarge the chapel by adding a sanctuary, and to improve its appearance by raising its height, and with the generous assistance of the squire, Thomas Fitzherbert-Brockholes, his brother Francis and his sister Mary Anne, then living at Leamington, the congregation, and Mr. Gradwell himself and his personal friends, the whole cost—about £1,400—was thus defrayed. Other improvements followed in course of time; the presbytery was greatly enlarged about 1836, and in 1852 the sanctuary was redecorated, a new organ provided, and requisites procured for Benediction, at a total cost of above £800. Hitherto there had been a primitive school conducted by Anthony Cardwell and his wife, Jane Penswick (C.R.S., xvi, 560), in the Lower Lane at Claughton, but this was found inadequate for the changed condition of the times. Help came from an unexpected quarter. Catherine Barton, of a respectable family residing in the neighbouring township of her name, had whilst a mere girl entered into the service of the family of the 10th Duke of Norfolk, who had married the daughter of John Brockholes by his second wife, and eventually became housekeeper at Arundel Castle. Upon retiring from that position through increasing age and infirmity, she returned to her native parts, and after a time married a Mr. Gill, who came to reside in Claughton. Before she died she found the money for the purchase of the little farm from the Corbishleys on which the school is now built, and bequeathed a sum sufficient to put the schoolmaster's house in thorough repair. She was buried with honour in the graveyard at Newhouse. Mr. Gradwell then erected commodious schools, which were rapidly completed in 1840, and became an ornament to the neighbourhood. He was rural dean of Amounderness for a time, and when the Lancashire vicariate was formed in 1840 and his cousin, George Brown, was appointed the bishop, Mr. Gradwell was made vicar-general for the hundreds of Amounderness and Lonsdale. Upon the restoration of the hierarchy in 1850, he was created canon of the diocese of Liverpool, but resigned that dignity in 1854. Two years later he obtained the assistance of his nephew, the Rev. Robert Gradwell, who eventually succeeded him. Thus he continued till his death May 22, 1860, aged 68, and, as there was then no cemetery at Claughton, his remains were conveyed to Preston for burial in the Gradwell family vault at St. Augustine's, at which the writer of these memoirs was present, and a brass on the epistle side of the church commemorates his memory and that of his nephew, the Rev. George Gradwell, ordained at Ushaw in 1853, and died in Preston Nov. 23, 1855.

The Right Rev. Mgr. Robert Gradwell, born at Preston Oct. 27, 1825, was the third son of Alderman George Gradwell, of Preston, J.P. (C.R.S., xv, 161), and his wife Mary, daughter of Richard Ashhurst, steward to Sir Thomas Massey-Stanley, of Puddington Hall and Hooton Hall, co. Chester, Bart., by Mary, daughter of John Blundell, of Preston, corn merchant. He was sent to Ushaw College, where he arrived Aug. 12, 1837, and was ordained priest Dec. 20, 1849. He was retained as a professor for nearly a year, but left on account of ill-health Dec. 7, 1850. From June, 1852, to June 10, 1856, he served at St. Augustine's, Preston, and then came to assist his uncle Henry in the mission at Claughton, to which he succeeded in 1860.

In 1869 increasing infirmities made an assistant necessary, and the Rev. George Dobson was appointed, and remained till 1871, when the Rev. Isaac Webster took his place. The latter was admitted into the English College at Lisbon March 23, 1860, ordained priest Dec. 18, 1869, and left June 11, 1870, for the mission. After a few weeks' experience at St. Patrick's, Liverpool, he was sent to St. Mary's, Wigan, whence he came to Claughton in 1871, and remained here till 1883. He was then transferred to St. Joseph's, Anderton, near Chorley, where he continued till his return to St. Mary's, Wigan, as head priest in February, 1899. There he remained till his death, May 10, 1904, aged 59 (Gillow, Reg. of Lisbon, p. 268; Memoir with portrait, Liverpool Cath. Fam. Almanac, 1905, p. 140).

Mr. Webster's place at Claughton was taken by the Rev. William Pinnington, another priest educated at Lisbon, who was there admitted Nov. 20, 1869, ordained Dec. 18, 1880, and retained in the college as a superior till he left for the mission May 1, 1883 (Gillow, Lisbon Reg., p. 241). He was at Claughton from 1883 to 1886, when he was transferred to Liverpool, became a canon in 1911, received the dignity of Monsignor in 1913, and was appointed vicar-general of the arch-diocese, a position which he still holds.

The next assistant at Claughton was the Rev. James Cross, a native of Preston, where he was born May 22, 1859. He was educated at St. Edward's College, afterwards, it is said, at the diocesan seminary at Upholland, and completed his philosophy and theology at the diocesan seminary of Leeds. On Aug. 12, 1883, he was ordained priest in St. Joseph's, Liverpool, and soon afterwards was appointed curate at that mission. After three years, in 1886, he came to Claughton, but in 1889, after a brief period at Seaforth, he was appointed assistant at Garston, near Liverpool, where he remained till 1895. He then left to take charge of the mission of the B. Sacrament at Walton-on-the-Hill, but after a short stay owing to ill-health was obliged to retire from missionary duty to Liverpool, where as soon as he seemed better he was appointed to the church of the Sacred Heart. Again his health failed him, and once more he sought rest in retirement. Finally, he returned to Garston, in 1889, where, after two short months, he died Feb. 9, 1900, aged 42 (Memoir, Liverpool Cath. An., 1901, p. 147).

Mr. Gradwell added greatly to the beauty of the chapel. Mr. Thomas Fitzherbert-Brockholes co-operated with him in giving the highly-finished statues of St. Thomas the Apostle, the patron of the chapel, and St. Robert, Mr. Gradwell's patron, with the two angels, whilst Mr. Brockholes gave the Lady Altar and Mr. Gradwell that of St. Joseph at a cost of more than £1,000 from each. The old squire shortly before his death in 1873 conveyed to the mission a plot of land adjacent to the chapel for a cemetery, and undertook to lay it out. A baptistry was added in 1883, and a belfry was erected in 1897 in memory of Queen Victoria's jubilee.

In 1882, in recognition of his generosity to the cause of ecclesiastical education and of his literary attainments, Leo XIII conferred upon Mr. Gradwell the title of Monsignor, and later he was appointed a domestic prelate. More than twenty years before his death the Monsignor himself told the present writer, whilst staying with him at Claughton, that it was by mere chance he became aware that he possessed a facile pen, much to his surprise, and from that time, though his sight had become greatly impaired, he poured forth a continuous stream of literature, through the channels of the Preston journals, the Dublin Review, the Liverpool Catholic Almanac, the Catholic Fireside, the Transactions of the Lancashire and Cheshire Antiquarian Society, and other publications. They were mostly local historical sketches, or claims connected with Catholic interests, such as the John Parkinson Charity. Two of his separate publications were: "Christianity in Lancashire in Roman and Celtic Times. By the Very Rev. Mgr. R. Gradwell. Reprinted from the Dublin Review for October, 1884"; and "Succat; or the Story of Sixty Years of the Life of St. Patrick."

Thus he passed the remainder of his quiet and peaceful career till his death May 16, 1906, aged 81, and was interred in a vault in his own cemetery, which he had prepared some twenty years before (Hewitson, Our Country Churches and Chapels, pp. 286-297; Liverpool Cath. Annals, 1885, pp. 79-84, 1907, pp. 118-124; Mgr. Gradwell's correspondence with the writer).

Rev. Henry Holden succeeded as rector of the mission, practically having done all the work after his appointment as curate in 1889, and he is still in charge.

A mediæval chalice brought from the chapel at Maynes Hall is preserved and in use at Claughton. The vestment chest and a small oak tabernacle that belonged to the Ven. Thomas Whitaker, brought from somewhere in Goosnargh, are also shown at the presbytery.

uncle, Henry Duckett, born July 15, 1729, was admitted into the English College at Rome on Oct. 23, 1745, and having been ordained priest there March 9, 1754, was sent to the English mission on the 29th of the following month (Foley, Records S.J., vi, 490). He died in Lancashire Oct. 17, 1755 (Old Chapter Records, MS.). Another uncle was Dom George Edmund Duckett, O.S.B., born at Claughton, professed at St. Edmund's, Paris, in 1760, who came to the mission in 1773, and was at Strangeways, near Wigan, till he removed the mission to Hindley in 1789, and remained there till shortly before his death March 24, 1792. Their father was Bartholomew Duckworth alias Ducket (the local pronunciation), of Alston-cum-Hothersall, who subsequently settled in Claughton; and their mother was Anne, daughter of Henry Comaleach, of Elston, tanner, and his wife Elizabeth, daughter of John Walmsley, of Elston, tanner. Previous to her marriage she had been nurse to Mrs. Leckonby, wife of William Leckonby, of Leckonby House, in Great Eccleston, and Hothersall Hall, the heiress of the ancient family of Hothersall of Hothersall, and appears in the family group reproduced in Smith's Longridge. Bartholomew Duckett's father, John Duckworth or Ducket, of Alston, yeoman, was a Catholic non-juror in 1717, and his wife was Anne Dewhurst. The Rev. James Duckett, born at Claughton in 1791, went to Sedgley Park School in 1813, thence was transferred to Oscott College Aug. 12, 1816, where he was ordained priest March 17, 1820, at Wolverhampton, and shortly afterwards was sent to Brailes, co. Warwick. There he died May 30, 1864, aged 72. His nephew, Canon George Duckett, son of Richard Duckett, auctioneer, of Preston, died at Wolverhampton May 5, 1898, aged 75; and his grandnephew, Canon Richard Duckett, D.D., born at Kendal May 19, 1833, died at Norwich July 7, 1910, aged 77. The latter was the son of Thomas Duckett, of Preston, sculptor, who had lived for some years at Kendal, where he had designed and built the Catholic church. Another relative, Canon Thomas Duckett, who died at Rugeley March 5, 1906, was son of James Duckett, of Preston, corn merchant, son of Thomas, and grandson of James and Jane named in the text.

* Died in infancy.

† Thomas Hornyold, junior, was the eldest son and heir of Thomas Hornyold, of Blackmore Park, co. Worcester, Esq., and his wife, Mary Catherine, daughter of Richard Towneley, of Towneley Hall, co. Lancaster, Esq., by Mary, daughter and heiress of William, Lord Widdrington. The father died in 1799, and was seized by his son Thomas, who married Teresa, daughter of Thomas Fitzherbert, of Swynnerton, Esq.

‡ Mrs. Mary Tunstall was one of the daughters and coheiresses of George Markham, of Ollerton Hall, co. Notts., Esq., by Mary, daughter of Brian Salvin, of Croxdale Hall, co. Durham, Esq. She married Marmaduke Constable-Tunstall, Esq., of Burton Constable Hall, Scargill Castle, and Wycliffe Hall, all in Yorkshire. After his death s.p. in 1790, his widow went to reside for nine years at Spetisbury Convent, where she was most kind to the nuns, and gave £400 towards their chapel. It was she who introduced the Visitation nuns into England in 1792.

* John Dalton, of Thurnham Hall, Esq., died March 10, 1837, aged 90. He married Mary, daughter of Sir Thomas Gage, of Hengrave Hall, co. Suffolk, Bart.

† Mrs. Maria Anne Fitzherbert, wife of the then Prince of Wales, afterwards George IV (vide Gillow, Biog. Dict., ii, 279–283), born July 26, 1756, was daughter of Walter Smythe, of Brambridge, co. Hants, Esq., second son of Sir John Smythe, of Esh Hall, co. Durham, and Acton Burnell Hall, co. Shropshire, Bart. In July, 1775, she married Edward Weld, of Lulworth Castle, co. Dorset, Esq., who died in the course of the same year. She married secondly in 1778 Thomas Fitzherbert, of Swynnerton Park, who only survived the union three years. Four years after Mr. Fitzherbert's death, whilst residing at Richmond Hill, the youthful heir to the throne became enamoured of her, and ultimately they were secretly married, a fact which within recent years has been absolutely proved by evidence. On this occasion the Prince with Mrs. Fitzherbert were at Claughton. They were also said to have visited Maynes Hall. She died at Brighton March 29, 1837, aged 80.

* Presumably the second name of Leconby derived from the Chorley family, but no connection or relationship is shown in the Leconby pedigree. Richard Leconby Chorley, probably brother to Mrs. Ratcliffe, emigrated to Australia in 1840, with his wife and four children. She was Grace, daughter of James Park, the farmer at Thurnham Hall, and was born there in 1801. She died at Bathurst, Australia, Sept. 19, 1896, aged 95 (Freeman's Journal, Sydney, Oct. 3, 1896).

* Edward Pyke, of Claughton, was father of Joseph Pyke, of Preston, Esq., J.P., who married Margaret, daughter of Dionysius Howarth, of Preston. The latter had two sons, Edward, and the Very Rev. Joseph Canon Pyke, who died in Preston in 1902, and several daughters, nuns. Edward, who resided in Southport, a magistrate of the borough of Preston and the county of Lancaster, died in 1911, aged 77, leaving several sons and daughters, of whom the Rev. Edward Pyke succeeded his uncle to the English Martyrs at Preston, and Mary Anne became a nun.

Book II.

The Register of Baptisms at St. Thomas's Church, Claughton.

A small book, 7×5 in., with limp leather back. There are 138 pages in the book proper, and there is a loose sheet of four pages, which is given first.

[On the loose sheet of paper.]

[The Rev. Henry Gradwell started to keep his registers on a sheet of paper 7×5 inches, making four pages. The right-hand top corner is tattered or gone, much is illegible, and no year is given. These were afterwards inserted in a book; but as some discrepancies occur between the two, both are printed, different type being used.]

THE TWELFTH REPORT OF THE
Catholic Record Society

PRESENTED TO THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING AT ARCHBISHOP'S HOUSE, WESTMINSTER,

on

WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1916

Together with the Roll of Members, the Constitutions, &c.

Constitutions

1. Name. The name of the Society is "THE CATHOLIC RECORD SOCIETY."

2. Objects. The objects are the transcribing, printing, indexing, and distributing to its members the Catholic Registers of Baptisms, Marriages and Deaths, and other old Records of the Faith, chiefly personal and genealogical, since the Reformation in England and Wales.

3. Management. The affairs of the Society are managed by a Council consisting of twelve members and four honorary officers, viz., The Recorder, Bursar, Legal Adviser and Secretary—four forming a quorum. It has power to appoint a President and Vice-Presidents, its Chairman and Officers, and to fill vacancies on its own body, and has power to refuse or take away membership. One-third of the twelve members and all the honorary officers retire each year, but are eligible for re-election. Nominations of New Members of the Council must be sent to the Secretary fourteen days before the Annual Meeting. The representation and management are reserved to Catholic Members.

4. Subscription. The subscription is one guinea per annum, which entitles members to the publications for the year, but the names of any members whose subscription shall be two years in arrears will thereupon be removed from the Society, and not be readmitted until all arrears are paid.

Subscriptions are due on June 1 in each year, and no work is issued to any member whose subscription is unpaid. A member wishing to retire from the Society must intimate his intention to the Bursar or Secretary before the 1st day of June, or be held liable for his subscription for the ensuing year.

5. Privileges. The members are entitled to the Volume or Volumes printed for the year of subscription, no Volume being issued to any member whose subscription is unpaid. They may also, on prepayment, obtain back numbers (if in stock) on such terms as the Council may direct.

6. Meetings. An Annual Meeting is held in the month of June or July, of which at least seven days' notice is sent to all the members. At this meeting a report of the work of the Society, with a statement of the income and expenditure, is presented. This is issued together with the list of members and the Constitutions of the Society.

7. Audit. The Bursar's accounts are audited by a member of the Society appointed by the Council, at the close of the financial year, which expires on May 31.

N.B.—The Bursar deals with Membership and Subscriptions.

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

OUR twelfth year dominated, even more than the last, by the war, has not proved as fruitful as had been hoped. Not that the work in hand will eventually be less, but that it has been delayed much beyond reasonable expectation, even for such times. The labour difficulties of the period are to some extent valid justification ; but may be unduly given in extenuation.

Printing delays are not the only causes, however ; for some of our contributors have been engaged on patriotic and charitable work, whilst others have been severely tried by illness and anxieties, all these causes having resultant effects on the executive arrangements. When steps had been initiated to start certain papers, it was not easy to substitute others in the midst of so much work.

Only Volume xvii has been issued to subscribers since the last annual meeting. Part of Volume xviii was sent to the printers in January, 1914, and the text could, without much exertion, have been finished by the time the war started, and the index have been begun. It was not, however, until April, 1915, that the final pages of the text could be passed for press. Only then could the index be concluded and the alphabetical sorting be commenced by Mrs Martin, to whom our thanks are due for undertaking this arduous work under trying and difficult circumstances. This volume, the "Exchequer Roll of Recusants, 1592-93," is one of national importance, requiring that knowledge of public records which few could have compassed like Miss M. M. C. Calthrop, who generously contributed the transcript and the introduction, seeing the final proofs before going to assist in Red Cross work in Serbia. The delays have been very trying, and although final promises were made to deliver the sheets to our binders about 21st June, the printers wired on 1st July that they were short of paper !

The construction of the index was very laborious, owing to the difficulty of understanding the reading of place-names, for the "Recusant Roll" gives no punctuation, and there is a mixed use or misuse of capital letters. Many places are of small importance or obsolete manors ; but the best endeavour has been made to add the parishes in which they are situated. The recusants have been distinguished by the letters "rec." Some martyrs of the period are also marked, and other interesting particulars supplied, including maiden names of some of the women, etc. These had to be done in brief form, however, to avoid too great enlargement of the index.

Volume xix is partly printed, and the remainder, with the exception of some notes, is in type ; so it may be soon ready for the index to be resumed by Mrs Martin, who has kindly started this also. The annals of the English Benedictine nuns of Ghent, contributed by the Lady Abbess of Oulton, and the Diary of S. Gregory's College at Paris, are followed by the Registers of three Franciscan Friars, seemingly kept in London, kindly lent by the Bishop of Clifton, and transcribed by Monsignor Claud Lindsay, who also contributes a substantial instalment of the Registers of Lincoln's Inn Fields Chapel.

Volume xx, six North Lancashire Registers, is in a more forward state, the text being printed, and the index being now in the printers' hands. Special thanks are due to Mr Joseph Edward Smith for correcting proofs of these registers, before proceeding to Italy to resume his ecclesiastical studies. Generally we have to thank all contributors and editors of papers, whose names will appear in those capacities.

The late Mr William Smith, of Newsham House, near Preston, promised £50 towards printing these Lancashire registers. His son, Mr William B. S. Smith, has paid this, adding £5 on his own account. This sum is a valuable help towards printing Volume xx.

The Council regrets the delays and disappointments; but hopes that the above three books will follow one another at moderate intervals, and that they will be found of the usual interest.

It was intended to print Downside Abbey archives for Volume xxi, but when Dom H. Norbert Birt volunteered as Chaplain to the Forces the idea had to be deferred. The illness of the Rev. Edwin Burton, D.D., also prevented our proceeding with the "Douay Diaries." So we turned to a third alternative, a volume of "Miscellanea." This will contain a contribution of "Old Chapter" letters by the Very Rev. Canon Stanfield, and an episcopal return of recusants in 1576 by the Rev. Patrick Ryan, S.J., concluding with some registers, etc.

The Holy See having created a fourth Province within the area of our work, by the constitution of the new Archbishopric of Cardiff, His Grace the Archbishop-Elect was requested to accord his patronage to the Society, which his Grace cordially gave, and further promised his best support. The Society has not hitherto been able to do as much as could be wished for the Welsh principality, but more success may be anticipated in the future.

The following deaths of members have to be recorded during the past year: Mr Carlisle James Scott Spedding, the 57th Founder, who had been a member of the Council from the commencement of the Society's work, and was a contributor of two papers; Mrs Vincent Acton; Major Henry William Berkeley; and Mr John Byrmand Trappes-Lomax.

There have been nine resignations. It has also been felt useless to retain some names of those in arrear, four names being retired under Constitution 4.

Against these seventeen losses we are happy to say that twelve new members can be set, including three in succession to deceased members, and one rejoined after having resigned in a late year. Two others, having acquired by purchase deceased members' books, joined as new members.

Mr Basil Fitzherbert has handed over his membership to his son, the Rt Hon. the Lord Stafford; and Colonel Leese his to Ealing Priory. These do not affect numbers.

The net result is a loss of five, reducing the membership to three hundred and seventy-two; which, looking at the times, may be considered even satisfactory.

The usual four vacancies occurring on the Council are those of the Rev. J. H. Pollen, S.J.; Mr Engelbach; Mr Smith; and the late Mr Spedding. The Council has, with the greatest regret, received the resignation of Mr Langton, who has been on it for twelve years, during which he has always been a regular attendant. His seat would not otherwise have been vacant until next year. The first three are eligible for re-election. Inquiries have been made for two laymen to fill the other vacant seats, who would be useful to the Society and its work, in increasing the membership, lending business abilities to deliberations, and securing material for printing; and it is hoped to submit some eligible names at the annual meeting.

PROGRESS

THE position of our Society as compared with other Record-printing Societies and the dates of foundation will be of interest. These Societies, even with a smaller membership, have done and are doing valuable work. They deserve more support.

TRANSACTIONS OF THE TWELFTH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

By permission of his Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop, the twelfth Annual General Meeting of the members of the Catholic Record Society was held at Archbishop's House, Westminster, on Wednesday, 12th July, 1916. Mass for deceased members was said on the same day at the Church of SS. Peter and Edward, Palace Street, Westminster.

At the meeting the Very Rev. Canon W. O. Sutcliffe, M.A., took the chair, and there were present Father John Pollen, S.J., Lieut.-Col. Raleigh Chichester-Constable, Mr V. Hussey-Walsh, Mr J. W. Trotman, Mr C. J. Roskell, Mr Leonard C. Lindsay, F.S.A. (Hon. Bursar), and Mr Joseph S. Hansom (Hon. Secretary).

Letters expressing regret at inability to attend were read from his Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop, his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, Admiral of the Fleet Lord Walter Kerr, the Rev. W. A. Phillipson, the Hon. Mrs Codrington, Mrs Humble, Miss Harting, Mr H. Brierley (Hon. Secretary of the Lancashire Parish Register Society), Mr R. D. Radcliffe, Mr J. E. Radcliffe Jarrett, Mr Wainewright, Mr G. F. Engelbach, and Major Skeet.

In proposing the adoption of the Report and Balance Sheet, Mr Hussey-Walsh said he was sure that every member would be extremely pleased at the progress the Society was making. There were now more members than in any such society in England. He was glad to see so much attention being paid to parish registers, of which there were many, although some of them were inaccessible. He remembered coming years ago to consult some old registers at Archbishop's House. The priest in charge at the time had no notion that there were such registers; but he, fortunately, was able to point them out to him. He would be very glad if something could be done to publish those registers, because many of them gave the completion of the records of London parishes, such, for example, as Moorfields parish. No doubt they had to take great care of what seemed quite ordinary documents. They should be published as soon as possible. This was illustrated in the recent riots in Dublin, many original wills having been used to stop up apertures in the Four Courts. Fortunately, many had been copied, but the loss of others was irreparable. This fact, and what was now going on in France, ought to bring home to people the dangers to which in these matters we were all exposed. He knew that a very considerable number of parish registers, kept in the mairies and local tribunals of France, had been absolutely destroyed by the invaders. Still, this preservation of registers was not the only duty of the Society. They were grateful to those who saved old parchments which would be otherwise destroyed, especially in these days of Zeppelins. It was well known that one of the objectives in a certain Zeppelin raid was the Rolls Court. And when it was borne in mind that it would cost £1,000,000 to obtain an adequate catalogue of the documents there, one could form some idea of what destruction would have taken place had the raid been successful.

Colonel Chichester-Constable seconded the motion, and the Report was adopted.

Mr Trotman proposed that the Rev. John Pollen, S.J., Mr G. F. Engelbach, Mr J. P. Smith, and Sir Henry Stafford Jerningham, Bt., should be elected to the Council for the next three years. Major Chichester-Constable seconded the motion, which was carried. Mr Hansom remarked that there was another vacancy on the Council at the present time, but as all the candidates could not be elected, it was proposed to leave the matter over for the Council to select the member with the best credentials.

Mr Hussey-Walsh proposed that the thanks of the Society be given to the Council, contributors, and workers ; and in doing so drew attention to the archives at the English College at Valladolid, where, among other objects of interest, they had the signature of no less a person than Titus Oates. His name and signature, and the fact that he was expelled from the College, were all in the record. This was seconded by Mr Trotman, and carried.

The Secretary said one such paper was in readiness, but was held back, to be printed with others promised from Valladolid.

Father Pollen said that he had been to Valladolid. The archives contained much that was of great interest and variety, including information about the nuns of Syon, who came to England in the reign of Henry IV, and whose House was one of the oldest convents we had. The Fathers at Valladolid became their agents at the Spanish Court, which accounts for the papers dealing with their affairs still remaining there. Close by was the Castle of Simancas, where there was a great deal more and of still greater interest. Working there was laborious, because one could not get copyists, and had to do all the work oneself. The young men from Valladolid College had done excellent work in copying out papers from Simancas. There had been changes recently among the Fathers, and he was not so well acquainted with the present staff. He wanted to get the papers of Cardinal Allen, as to his family, the date of his death, and so forth. With regard to other work of the Society, he would like to say a word or two. He reminded members of the great difficulties of the time. The war had hit all printers extremely hard. Although there had been some restriction on the Society's work, the output on the whole had been satisfactory. The price of paper had gone up a great deal, and there were restrictions in the labour market. With regard to Volume XVIII, he wanted to point out that it would be interesting. It was one of the oldest lists of Recusants in England, and was pursuant to Elizabeth's Act of 1586. It was not a complete survey, but merely a list of those who could pay the Recusant fine, and from its hostile source was not open to suspicion. The papers on English establishments at Louvain had been preserved at the Hotel de Ville, and he thought they had probably survived the recent destruction. At the time of the French Revolution all such papers had been gathered there. Baptisms, marriages, deaths were all on record, and it was possible to trace the entrance of two young ladies into a convent duly registered at the Bishop's office. An early document, though not a long one, contained records of the Cliftons of Lancashire, a family that made a stubborn stand for their Faith. A certain Mrs Clifton, who had been an Anderton of Anderton, had mention as one of the great upholders of popery.

Mr Leonard Lindsay moved a vote of thanks to the Cardinal, who was always anxious to help them when he could. They were very sorry he could not be with them that day.

Mr Trotman, in seconding, drew attention to an early and possibly contemporary English translation, in his possession, of Dr Nicholas Sander's "History of the rise and growth of the Anglican Schism." His examination of the manuscript and style of the translation led him to the impression that it was in Robert Persons' own handwriting.

Father Pollen asked Mr Trotman to communicate on the subject with Mr Wainewright, who was much interested in Father Persons.

Mr Hansom thanked the Chairman for presiding. Last year and this the war had made their meetings small, as all meetings were at the present time.

NOTICES.

The following volumes have been issued to members entitled to them since the Annual Meeting in 1915 :—

Vol. XVII, the second for 1913-14, on 16 Aug. 1915.

„ XVIII, for 1914-15, on 29 July 1916.

Volume XIX has the text in type, and XX has the index in type.

Members are requested to call the attention of their friends to the Society and its work. A copy of the current subscription form is enclosed to members this year, in case they desire to introduce a friend. It shows also how back numbers are procurable by members desiring to complete a set ; but it must be clearly understood that it is liable to alteration without notice.

Transcripts of interesting unpublished documents ready for the press, together with the loan of the originals for the purpose of collation, are invited. It is desired always to have material for half a dozen volumes ready for printing, as special donations for printing may enable the output of work to be increased.

Offers of help in transcribing documents, especially in the Public Offices in London, where the greater part of the documents relating to the country are stored, are invited. Parish priests are especially invited to provide exact copies of old registers in their custody, or give facilities for this being done.

Serious loss of time and expense have been incurred in some cases by manuscript being sent incomplete or modified. It is desired to impress on transcribers that papers should be complete, without excisions, verbatim et literatim, although they may not agree with modern ideas. Merit is in their absolute integrity and identity, as far as modern printing will allow.

Members desirous of paying through their bankers can be supplied with a " Banker's Order," on application to the Bursar or Secretary.
