P R E F A C E .

This volume of the Norfolk Series, like the last, contains the Marriage Registers of eleven parishes, though in the Flegg Hundreds instead of the Fakenham district. The abstracts have all been made by the Rev. G. H. Holley. Thanks are due to the Incumbents for kind permission to transcribe. Their names are mentioned under the respective parishes.

The large proportion of parishes in Norfolk which have lost one or more volumes of their Registers within recent times, as revealed in both this volume and the last (see the headnotes to the various parishes), emphasises the importance of getting these records into print before many more have disappeared.

It has not been thought needful to print the entries verbatim. They are reduced to a common form, and the following contractions have been freely used:—

w. = widower or widow.

co. = in the county of.

lic. = marriage licence.

p. = of the parish of.

dioc. = in the diocese of.

It must be borne in mind that the existing early Registers are themselves but transcripts, made, under the order of Elizabeth in 1597, from the original paper Registers.

It should be remembered that previous to 1752 the year was calculated as beginning on the 25th of March, instead of the 1st of January, so that a Marriage taking place on, say 20th February, 1625, would be on that date in 1626 according to our reckoning ; but as the civil and ecclesiastical year were both used, this is sometimes expressed by 20th February, 162⁵/₆.

In all cases where the marriage is stated to have taken place by licence, that fact is recorded, as the searcher thereby knows that further information as to age, parentage, and vocation of the parties is probably recoverable from the Allegations in the Archdeaconry or other office from which the licence issued.

The Editors will gladly welcome help in the work of transcribing the Registers. It is only by volunteer assistance that it becomes feasible to issue this series of Parish Registers, and subscribers will greatly aid if they will take every opportunity of making known the existence of this series. It should then be possible, as in other counties, to issue two volumes yearly.

Marriages at Ormesby St. Michael,

1591 to 1837.

NOTE.—Vol. I. measures $10\frac{3}{4}$ by 7 in., and consists of 35 paper leaves bound in a parchment cover. Pages 1 to 8 contain Marriages from 1591 to 1742; pages 9 to 47 Baptisms from 1568 to 1773; and pages 48 to 69 Burials from 1572 to 1773. The periods during which there are no Marriages are accounted for by their being entered in the Register of Ormesby St. Margaret. The early pages of each section are much faded, and the book has suffered considerably from the effect of wet on its outer edges. However, with great care, it has been possible to decipher almost every entry, and in those cases where any doubt remains, this has been indicated by the uncertain parts being inclosed by brackets.

Vol. II. contains Marriages, 1780-1812, entered in the volume of forms according to the Act of Parliament 26 George II., the greater part of the volume being blank. It is bound in leather.

Vol. III., bound in leather, measures 14 by $9\frac{3}{4}$ in., consists of 17 leaves ($1\frac{1}{2}$ being blank), and contains Baptisms 1786-1812, and Burials 1787-1812, but no Marriages. There appears to be no record of Baptisms and Burials 1773-1786.

Vol. IV. contains Marriages 1813-1836, and consists of the usual forms of the period, and is of the usual shape and size, and bound in parchment.

Except when otherwise stated, the parties are single persons, and of the parish of Ormesby St. Michael.

This transcript has been made by the Rev. G. H. Holley, by the kind permission of the Rev. W. T. Moore, Vicar of Ormesby.

[There are no Marriages in 1837 prior to July 1st, when Civil Registration began.]

Marriages at Filby,

1561 to 1837.

NOTE.—Vol. I. contains 80 parchment leaves, written on both sides, measuring $15\frac{1}{4}$ by $6\frac{1}{4}$ in., and bound in parchment. It includes Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials from 1561 to 1726. These are all entered, for the most part, as they occurred, though in a few cases there is an apparent attempt to separate them under their respective years. They appear to be most carefully kept till 1629, after which date, till 1662, the contents are of a most meagre description, and only occupy $5\frac{1}{2}$ pages during that period, and these are only partially used.

Vol. II. contains Baptisms and Burials from 1727 to 1812, and Marriages from 1727 to 1755. The Marriages are entered at the beginning of the book by themselves. These are followed by Baptisms, 1727-1771; after this come Baptisms and Burials, 1791-1812. Then come the Burials from 1727 to 1771. Then one page of Baptisms, 1811-12; next, one page of Burials for 1772. After this, a page of Baptisms for 1812. The following page contains 3 entries of Baptisms for 1810, while the rest of the book contains Baptisms and Burials, 1772-1790. The volume is bound in parchment covered boards, and contains 41 parchment sheets, written on both sides, measuring $13\frac{1}{2}$ by $9\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Vol. III. contains Marriages from 1755 to 1812.

Vol. IV. contains Marriages from 1813 to 1837.

This transcript has been made by the Rev. G. H. Holley, under whose supervision it is now printed, by the kind permission of the Rev. A. Gray, Rector of Filby.

Marriages at Burgh St. Margaret

1813 to 1837.

NOTE.—In 1736 a fire destroyed the Parsonage House at Burgh, and, in it, the ancient Parish Registers, so that when the Parliamentary return of 1831 was made, the Burgh St. Margaret Registers did not begin till after that date, and are then described as two volumes, containing (Vol. I.) Baptisms, Burials, and Marriages from 1739 to 1786, and (Vol. II.) the years 1787 to 1812. Since 1831 even these two volumes have been lost, so that Burgh now possesses no registers earlier than 1813; the only record earlier than that date being a Book of Briefs, 1714-1765. Surely the double fate of the Burgh Registers shews the urgent necessity of printing these unique records, and so placing them beyond the risk of irrecoverable loss.

The Marriages in the volume beginning in 1813, and ending in 1837, have been transcribed by the Rev. G. H. Holley, by the kind permission of the Right Reverend Bishop G. C. Fisher, Rector of Burgh.

Marriages at Hemsby,

1556 to 1837.

NOTE.—These Marriages are contained in the following volumes:—

Vol. I.—The original cover is wanting, but the volume is carefully protected by stout cardboard sides, with a canvas back. It measures 14 by 6 inches, and contains 78 parchment leaves: leaves 2-38 contain Baptisms 1556-1729; leaves 39-50 contain Marriages 1556-1734, the second side of leaf 50 being blank; leaves 51 and 52 contain Baptisms 1729-1734; while leaves 53-78 contain Burials 1556-1734. The volume is, on the whole, in good condition, with the exception of the two outside pages, which are much worn. The writing is in several places bad and troublesome to decipher.

Vol. II. measures $12\frac{1}{2}$ by $7\frac{3}{4}$ inches, and consists of 80 parchment leaves bound in boards covered with leather. Leaves 1-29 contain Baptisms 1735-1812; the next 17 leaves are blank; then comes one leaf containing Marriages 1735-1752, with one entry for 1766; 5 blank leaves follow, after which there are $15\frac{1}{2}$ leaves containing Burials 1735-1812, succeeded by $9\frac{1}{2}$ blank leaves; the first side of the next leaf has two entries of burial of paupers not paying tax; the remaining $2\frac{1}{2}$ leaves are blank. The inside of the first outer cover has one Baptism recorded on it and some other writing, amongst other things this: "This Register had its first Birth in the Yere of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and thirty-five. Rich. Harbord, Sucklen House, Churchwardens."

Vol. III. measures $10\frac{1}{2}$ by $8\frac{3}{4}$ inches, and contains 55 paper leaves with the usual forms of the period for Marriages, three to a page, and 24 paper leaves with forms for Banns of Marriage. It is bound in parchment covered boards, and contains Marriages 1754-1812.

Vol. IV. measures 16 by $10\frac{1}{4}$ inches, and contains 100 paper pages bound in parchment covered boards, and has the record of Marriages 1813-1836.

The Marriages of these Registers have been extracted by the kind permission of the Rev. K. L. P. C. Bagnall-Oakley, Vicar of Hemsby.

[This volume ends here, and contains no entry for 1837.]

Marriages at Winterton with East Somerton, 1747 to 1837.

NOTE.—The old Registers were destroyed in a fire at the Rectory House in 1739. As much as could then be read was copied into a folio paper book, in which the entries of Baptisms and Burials were made from that year to the year 1783, and notes of Marriages until 1771. The present volumes ostensibly begin in 1717; there is no Marriage recorded till 1747, while there is a complete absence of Marriage evidences from 1772 to 1813, which can only be explained by the loss of some separate book, as the Baptisms and Burials for that period are complete. The Marriages for this period here given are taken from a transcript of the volume now lost made by Mr. Procter.

Vol. I., measuring 12½ by 8¼ inches, contains 54 leaves bound in parchment covered boards. Pages 3-27 contain Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials 1717-1754, pages 28-30 are blank, pages 31-67 contain Baptisms and Burials 1755-1783 and Marriages to 1771. In this latter portion of the volume the entries are written on one side of the leaf only, the other being blank. Pages 102-106 contain a copy of the parish Terrier. All the other leaves are blank.

Vol. II., measuring 10 by 8 inches, contains 28 parchment leaves and 9 paper leaves. Pages 1-43 contain Baptisms 1788-1812; pages 44-56 are blank; pages 57-70, Burials 1786-1812; and one page further on has the burials of paupers 1789-93.

Vol. III. contains Marriages 1813-37, and is the usual kind of book in use during that period.

These Marriages have been transcribed by kind permission of the Rev. W. A. Green, Rector of Winterton and East Somerton.
