THE earliest Register of Horsington is contained in a parchment book 13 inches by 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ , of 37 leaves, all carefully ruled to display the six columns represented on the first page of this volume, each one headed "The names and surnames of the Christned," in 34 pages; "the Buryed," in 26 pages; "the Marayed," in 14 pages, as the case may be, except that the last five pages of what was meant for the Marriage Register are occupied with Baptisms.

The initial of each section begins with a quaintly devised capital, of which two are here reproduced from photographs taken by MR. PHILLIPS of Wells.

To the close of the year 1598 the entries are made in one hand, being as declared on page 1 a transcript of the old book. The writer gives us his name under date 20 Sept. 1576, on the occasion of his Baptism. He was ROBERT ROCHE, son of George Roche, gentleman, and Maria daughter of Sir William Carew, who lived at Wilkinthroop in Horsington. His brother George was Rector of Abbas Combe 1588-1614. He also copied out fair the Register at Templecombe, and at Maperton, as is proved by the handwriting, beautifully regular, and the fantastic capitals introduced. After 1598 the entries are apparently in the hand of the Rector.

About 1645 a good deal of irregularity is observable, which probably accounts for the total absence of Marriages, which extends from 1643 to near the end of 1650. The appointment of EDWARD SHEPPARD to be "Register" is duly recorded in 1653, and certified by the magistrate JOHN CAREY; and the first entry afterwards is in a very illiterate hand. "Joane dafuhter of Willum Antll was borne" is probably how it should have been printed, but the writer's efforts at daughter are exceedingly confused. After this one entry the writing is that of an educated man. The same penman enters "Ambros Snok" in the Burials, against which has been written "Ed. Shepherd" in the margin. The marriages of "John Semor n (and) Elesebeth Andrus" (so it should have been printed) and John Haden and Luce Felltem in 1655 are in the same hand. It appears that the Registrar showed at once his incompetence, and the Rector resumed the care of the book.

The volume was bound under the superintendence of a former Rector, the Rev. HILL DAWE WICKHAM.

The next Volume (page 67 of this book) is a tall Paper Volume, which does not call for any description. It extends from 1694 to 1804 for Baptisms and Burials, to 1753 for Marriages.

A Paper Volume (page 157 of this book), ruled, contains Banns and Marriages 1754 to 1800.

There is a parchment book (page 147 of this book), with printed forms, containing Births and Christenings and Burials from 1804 to 1812 and 1813.

Next follow (page 162), in a printed form, the Marriages from 1801 to 1812.

With the year 1813 (on page 167) begin the modern forms of entry. These are printed as far as the year 1836, which marks the introduction of the Civil Registration.

I am responsible for the copying of these books throughout, including the two errata noted above. The first page exhibits the original as it stands; after that the date is for convenience placed first, and the words "was baptized," etc., are omitted.

W. E. DANIEL.
