THE FIRST BOOK
OF THE
PARISH REGISTERS
OF ANGMERING, SUSSEX.
1562—1687.

EDITED BY
EDWARD W. D. PENFOLD, M.A.

ISSUED TO SUBSCRIBERS OF THE SUSSEX RECORD SOCIETY
AS AN EXTRA VOLUME FOR THE YEAR 1913.

PREFACE.

THE Registers of the Parish of Angmering commence in 1562 and are contained in a dozen books which are in a fairly good state of preservation.

The earliest book, of which this volume is a copy, dates from 1562 to 1687. It is written on and bound in vellum and consists of 143 pages,  $12\frac{1}{2} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$ . The writing is good up to 1630, but after that date it varies considerably, and is often difficult to decipher. The first pages of this first Register Book—i.e., from 1562—159 $\frac{2}{3}$ , pages 1—10 of this volume, are a copy of the old paper book, referred to as “ye ould Booke,” about which the then Rector has some severe things to say. From 1593 “a Perfect Register” begins. This first book of Registers has been transcribed verbatim, except where space compels the substitution of s. for “sonne” and d. for “daughter.”

The whole of the first book has been carefully compared with the Bishop's Transcripts when they exist, and the most important variations have been noted. In a few cases the Transcript has varied so much from the Register that, in order to save a multiplicity of footnotes, it has been printed as an Appendix. The Transcripts are referred to in the footnotes as Bp. T.

The Editor desires to express his sincere thanks to the Rev. J. B. Orme, Rector of Angmering, for so kindly allowing him to copy and publish the Registers, also to Mr. W. B. B. Freeland, Diocesan Registrar, for his great kindness and courtesy in granting facilities for examining the Transcripts. His thanks are also due to Mr. Edward Sayers for his great assistance in deciphering difficult entries and in checking this copy with the original.
