Preface.

THE Church of Over Kellet is situate rather more than a mile slightly south-east of Carnforth. There is evidence that the Church existed in 1281, as on 30th April of that year the then Archbishop of York stayed all night at Over Kellet, probably in the house known as "the Kirkhouse" (still existing), in order to meet the holders of benefices in the Deanery of Amounderness. This is not conclusive evidence, but a strong suggestion that a Church did exist, as otherwise the Archbishop would not have met his Clergy there. [See Surtees Society Visitation of Archbishop William de Wickwane, p. 118.] The first actual entry naming the Church is in a survey of the land of the Archdeacon of Richmond in Bolton-le-Sands, made about 1320, which states inter alia "In the lesser Kellet [i.e., Over Kellet] there is a toft with a croft and land belonging to the Church in that town worth yearly 13s. 4d." [see Dr. Farrer's Lancashire Inquests, part ii., p. 39; vol. 54, Lancashire and Cheshire Record Society].

The Registers here printed are three in number; volume I. contains 53 leaves of parchment bound in boards, measuring 14 inches by 7 inches, and includes Baptisms, Burials, and Marriages. Volume II., bound in leather, has 26 leaves of parchment, 13 inches by 7 inches, and contains only Baptisms and Burials. Volume III. is the usual official Marriage Book, issued in pursuance of Lord Hardwicke's Act.

Not only has Dr. Farrer transcribed the Registers, but he has borne the entire cost of this volume; and in addition to the enormous obligation under which Lancashire, as a county, lies to him, the especial gratitude of our Society is due, for his generosity in the matter of this printed Register.

Our thanks are also due to the Rev. J. E. W. Johnston, M.A., Vicar of Over Kellet, for facilities afforded in the transcription and printing of the Registers. Unfortunately the Episcopal Transcripts cannot supply the gaps in the original.

INDEXES.

I.

CHRISTIAN NAMES AND SURNAMES.

C., pp. 1-45. B., pp. 46-73. M., pp. 74-91.

Where a name has variants the Head-name has been selected which now exists or which most closely resembles the modern equivalent. All variants are separately Indexed with cross references to the Head-name.

Where a Surname has an alias each form of the Surname is Indexed under its initial letter.

The Christian names are, with some few exceptions, Indexed under their modern form—the first spelling of the name having generally been continued in connection with the same Surname.

Illegitimate children are Indexed under the Surnames of both Mother and putative Father.

"N.X.N." signifies "No Christian Name."

An Asterisk following a page number signifies that that combination of Christian and Surname occurs more than once on the page number asterisked.
