Preface

THE Church of "St Mary the Virgin and St Michael," Urswick (for it probably has a double dedication) is situate a little to the west of three miles due south of Ulverston, and the railway station nearest to it is Lindal on the Furness line. The Parish, as appears by a Terrier of 1778, consists of "Five 'Villages' viz. Great Urswick, Little Urswick, Bardsea, Stenton and Adgarley cum Beckside." The Church appears to have certainly existed when the Monks of Savigny were at Tulketh prior to their removal to Furness in 1127, and Pope Celestine specially confirms the Church to the Convent of Furness in 1195, and at a little earlier date the Church of Urswick was given to Daniel son of Michael-le-Fleming [see Furness Coucher Book, Chetham Society, pp. 74, 455, 643]. This is not the place to discuss the interesting antiquarian remains to be seen in and near Urswick, but a reference to the recent publication of the Cumberland and Westmorland Antiquarian Society will reveal much of great interest. The Register here printed is the earliest and was described in 1833 as "defaced and illegible." The transcriber has however experienced very little difficulty and his only disappointment has been inability to make any sense of the words printed on p. 62. The original Register consists (inclusive of the cover which is written on and forms the folding cover of the Volume) of 56 parchment leaves. Such Episcopal Transcripts as exist for the period of this Volume have been, through the courtesy of Mr W. H. Satterthwaite, examined, and any addition to or variation from the printed Text noted. And the Vicar of Urswick, Rev. T. N. Postlethwaite, has been most kind in help and encouragement in producing the Volume.

A Parochial Register

1. The book to be a wide Folio Vellum Leaves
2. That the Leaves be numbered and an Inch be left at top, bottom, and on each side of every page
3. Let all entries be within the margin to prevent the Inconveniency arriseing by turning over the leaves with wett or foul fingers
4. A General Index at the End of the book with reference to the names registered will at once lead to the name that is searchd for
5. The Entries to be made in a strong and legible hand
6. If through inadvertancy a wrong entry be made, a line is to be drawn through the entry and a note made in the margin of the mistake, and reference to the folio where such entry is to be found. This will prevent the suspicion of fraud in a Court of Justice to the full satisfaction of a Judge and Jury when necessary

Christian Names and Surnames.

Christenings	.	.	.	.	pp.	1—33	inclusive.
Weddings	.	.	.	.	"	34—40	"
Burials	.	.	.	.	"	41—58	"

Where a name has variants the Head-name has been selected which now exists or which most closely resembles the modern equivalent. All variants are separately Indexed with cross references to the Head-name.

Where a Surname has an alias each form of the Surname is Indexed under its initial letter.

The Christian names are, with some few exceptions, Indexed under their modern form—the first spelling of the name having generally been continued in connection with the same Surname.

Illegitimate children are Indexed under the Surnames of both Mother and putative Father.

"N.X.N." signifies "No Christian Name."

An Asterisk following a page number signifies that that combination of Christian and Surname occurs more than once on the page number asterisked.
