THE REGISTERS
OF
Bishops Cannings,
WILTSHIRE.

TRANSCRIBED BY
JOSEPH HENRY PARRY, B.A.,
Barrister-at-Law, and late Scholar of New College.

Devizes :
"GAZETTE" PRINTING WORKS.

1906.

THE parish of Bishops Cannings includes the tithings of Cote, Bourton, Easton, and Horton, and formerly contained the hamlet of Chittoe and the Chapelry of St. James, Southbroom, with its tithings of Roundway, Wick, Nursteed, and Bedborough. The Chapel of St. James has always had its separate register books ; the inhabitants of Chittoe, till the present church was built, were, as a rule, married at Cannings but baptized and buried at Bromham.

The memory of several places mentioned in these pages has been entirely lost ; of the others "Gallow's Ditch" was the Quakers' burying-place near Devizes, "Nick Mill" stood at the corner of Horton Street where the brook turns sharply to join the main stream, and "Snells", a house of some pretensions, now entirely demolished, adjoined Court Farm.

These transcripts are printed by the kind permission of the Vicar, the Rev. C. W. Hony.

A parchment book in modern binding entitled Bishop's Cannings Registers, 1651-1702—on the new fly-leaf is written, "I found this Register in a most miserable state on my succeeding to the living, and had it fresh bound, A.D. 1825, W. Macdonald." This note explains numerous omissions of names and dates rendered illegible by decay and damp.

Thomas Merret, the first parish Register, elected in the year of our Lord, 1653.

Thomas Cox de Eston, John Neate de Coate, churchwardens, who bought this book.

I did new-lay and point the tiles of my house and build the kitchen and chamber chimneys in the year 1663, Tho. Ettwall, vicar.
