Preface.

WHEN I commenced this collection, now some eight years ago, my original intention was to make use of it in illustrating and extending the "Visitations of Bedfordshire" edited by me for the Harleian Society in 1884, but in the course of correspondence with several genealogical friends I found many who, like myself, were interested in Bedfordshire families, so, in order that the material which I had collected might be available for such, I resolved to print a limited edition for subscribers.

The greater part of the contents of this volume has never, till now, been printed, and I cannot but think they will prove useful to the genealogist. The principal sources I have drawn upon are PARISH REGISTERS, the BISHOP'S TRANSCRIPTS, EARLY WILLS, MONUMENTAL INSCRIPTIONS, and, in the Notes, I have incorporated a few references to, and extracts from, printed genealogical works.

It will be seen that I have not gone beyond the year 1700; I was intending to edit another volume carrying the work on another century, but I fear I must abandon that idea for lack of support, and print the rest of my collections in "Bedfordshire Notes and Queries," a slower but a less expensive medium.

The PARISH REGISTERS of this county are, generally speaking, in a fairly good condition; I have, with the kind consent of their custodians, examined and searched some forty-seven, and the conclusion I have arrived at is, that those well cared for and kept in the more equable temperature of the parsonage study are likely to last for all time, whereas those kept in the damp stagnant atmosphere of our too often alas! barred and bolted churches are gradually but surely decaying. In one instance I have seen the original paper register book still extant, viz., at St. Mary's, Bedford, which is preserved together with the parchment copy made in accordance with a constitution passed in the Convocation of 1597.

I have not been able, in all cases, to verify the date when each Register commences, but the dates prefixed in the following pages are, I believe, in the main, correct ; the following table gives an approximate idea of the date of commencement :

1538—1558	.	.	.	.	.	.	21
1558—1603	.	.	.	.	.	.	58
1603—1650	.	.	.	.	.	.	12
1650—1700	.	.	.	.	.	.	27
1700—1750	.	.	.	.	.	.	6
1750—1800	.	.	.	.	.	.	1
							Total 125

Of these, ten commence in 1538, while one, that of Biggleswade, dates only from 1760 !

The Parish Registers of Stanbridge are remarkable for the great variety of signatures of Justices, facsimiles of which are given on the opposite page with the dates when they were appended. These Registers appear to have been exhibited for some purpose at the Courts of ? Quarter Sessions held at Leighton-Bussard.

From the earlier Registers may often be gleaned many out of the way scraps of information bearing on the habits and manners, etc., of our forefathers. Thus, on p. 96 is recorded a case of rabies ; and on p. 299 is a case of burial by night ; in the P. R. of Campton I have noted a case of excommunication so late as 1729, as follows :

“ 1729. Mem. that Catherine Kitchener and Thos. Sheffield of Sheffield, Barber, were excommunicated for the crime of fornication, 26th Oct.”

Remarkable, again, for their quaint brevity, are the following :

“ Litell Isabell was Beried the 29 Aperill 1692.”—P. R. Husborne Crawley.

Some years ago, when searching the P. R. of Shottesbrooke, co. Berks, I came across the renunciations, in full, of the Roman Religion, made by Gilbert Buchet, and by Thomas, s. of Anthony Thorold, of Berwick-upon-Tweed, dated respectively 1699 and 1707.

It frequently happens that blank spaces for christian and surnames occur which have never been filled up ; the reason for this is, I think, to be found in the instructions of the 70th Canon of 1604, which requires the entries to be made, by the Minister and Churchwardens, only once a week, viz., on Sunday. This was all very well to secure the safe custody of the Register, but too long a period to ensure an accurate memory.

The BISHOP'S TRANSCRIPTS for the Archdeaconry (which includes the whole county) of Bedford, made in pursuance of the last quoted Canon, are preserved in bundles in the Archdeacon's Muniment Room at St. Paul's, Bedford, and are in the custody of Mr. Fitzhugh the Apparitor. They date chiefly from 1604, but several parishes have made returns from 1601, which is the earliest date of these records. Having regard to the fact that so many Registers are deficient as to their earlier years, and, in some cases, incomplete at later periods, the great value of these records is apparent; from them alone is it possible to obtain the data necessary to complete the links of evidence wanting in many a pedigree, and in some cases they have been produced in law-courts to prove claims to estates and titles. They do not appear, however, to have been much used by the old county historians, but now that they are becoming better known they are being freely used by the local historian and the genealogist.

FACSIMILES OF SIGNATURES OF BEDFORDSHIRE JUSTICES
FROM THE PARISH REGISTERS OF STANBRIDGE.

Going through these bundles one by one and reading each slip (some 12,000 to 15,000 slips were perused by me) was the heaviest, and, I may say, the dirtiest part of my work, for being arranged by years and not by parishes rendered it harder to follow up the sequence of names; but as I proceeded I became more interested, and I felt that my labours were amply repaid when I took stock of the mass of material I had, as it were, dug out. Some bundles had suffered from damp, and some had afforded many a meal to hungry church mice, but, on the whole, the series is fairly complete. I was unable to find the transcripts of more than thirty-five parishes for the year 1633, and during the Rebellion and the Commonwealth periods the returns are very intermittent. The only exceptions to the parishes making returns are—Leighton, with its chapelries of Billington, Eggington, Heath Reach, and Stanbridge; and Biggleswade; Leighton and Biggleswade, being peculiars, were probably exempt, or if they made any returns I have been unable to trace them. There is a large package of Bedfordshire Transcripts in the Episcopal Muniment Room at Lincoln, which were removed there from the old Palace at Buckden along with a vast store of other valuable records, but I apprehend they are merely duplicates. Mr. A. Gibbons, of Lincoln, is engaged in arranging the Lincolnshire part of these records, which appear never to have been touched since they left Buckden, and as soon as opportunity offers I intend examining them. Some of the bundles of Transcripts preserved at Bedford are in duplicate, but I am unable to say for what purpose they were returned in duplicate. In three cases, at least, I observed that they had been tampered with, ex. gr., on p. 297 post is recorded the baptism of Richard, s. of Wm. Brett, gen., the 10th of Sept., 1606, this record does not appear in the P. R., but in its place, over an erasure, has been interpolated the baptism of William, s. of Francis Cobb. Immediately preceding it is the baptism of Edward Brett in 1605, this, in the P. R., is also written over an erasure; in the B. T., where this record should appear, is recorded the baptism of William, s. of Thos. Cobbe al's Hobkins, 29 Sept. Sometimes the B. T. contain information, generally descriptive of the social standing of the parties referred to, not to be found in the P. R., but usually the latter contains the fullest information.

The EARLY WILLS relating to this county are now preserved in the Registry Office of the District Court of Probate at Northampton. From 1496, the earliest date, to 1654, the copies only exist, in small folio paper volumes, of which there are thirty-four; from 1654 to 1857 they are mostly the original wills tied up in bundles ; after that they are copied into large folio volumes similar to those at Somerset House. The registered copies date from 1704 and the Calendar commences in 1536. Between the years 1622-1638 and 1640-1653 the wills are missing. Mr. Gibbons informs me that there are some bundles of old wills in the Episcopal Muniment Room at Lincoln ; these are probably the originals of the earlier ones at Northampton.

Biggleswade and Leighton being, as I said before, Peculiars, must have registered their wills elsewhere, for they are not at Northampton, and, though I have made many enquiries, I have been unable to trace them ; nor could I find many Luton wills. It was not my intention at first to have included any wills in this volume, but seeing that these extracts would be rendered far more useful by having the wills to refer to, I eventually decided to make the addition, the result being that I have incorporated in the Notes abstracts of, and references to, some 800 wills.

In making the selection, consisting of over 13,000 extracts, comprised in this volume, my aim has been as it were "to skim the cream," to gather together every scrap of evidence relating to the families whose pedigrees are entered in the "Visitations of Bedfordshire," and, so far as my researches extend, I have carefully noted all that I came across, excepting in cases of names of common occurrence, ex. gr. "Brown," "Jones," "Smith," etc. To have extracted all the "Smith" evidences would probably have filled a volume as large as the present one, but from the Register of the Parish in which resided any family with a recorded pedigree I have extracted all that I could find relating to that family ; whereas, in cases of uncommon names, such as "St. John," "Conquest," "Mordaunt," I have extracted every entry that I could find, no matter where. Also, I have extracted evidences relating to well-known families of other counties, to Citizens of London, and also to the Clergy of this and other counties ; anything in fact likely to prove useful to the genealogist.

After much consideration I finally adopted the plan of placing the date first and then the surname, as being more easy for reference ; and in most cases I have, to save room, contented myself with condensed extracts, and with using the ordinary contractions, but without omitting anything of importance.

I am aware that there are many who condemn the system of making extracts, urging the greater utility and satisfaction of transcribing Registers in their entirety. Whilst fully recognizing the reasonableness of this view, I venture to think that extracts are of use, beyond their intrinsic value, as indicating the localities or sources where we may expect to find genealogical data concerning any particular family we are interested in, thus saving the genealogist much preliminary trouble ; and as it is hopeless to look for the general printing of Parish Registers unless Government takes the matter up, surely, to use a homely proverb, "half a loaf is better than no bread."

In a work of this kind it will be almost impossible to ensure entire freedom from error, and though I have exercised every care, yet I find that several have escaped my notice in time for correction ; such as I have noted will be found on p. xii. In conclusion I cannot but express the deep sense of obligation I am under to the Ven. the Archdeacon of Bedford for his kind permission to make use of the Bishop's Transcripts ; to the Clergy of the Archdeaconry for their unvarying kindness in affording me every facility for searching their Registers, and in many cases extending towards me their hospitality, the pleasant recollection of which still lingers in my memory ; to Mr. Fitzhugh, the custodian of the Transcripts, and the Officials of the District Registry at Northampton, for their cordial assistance and uniform courtesy.

Note.

THE date after the name of the parish indicates the period when the P. R. commences, and the surnames in capitals are those of the families who entered their pedigrees in the Heralds Visitations.

Words in [] are additions derived from the Parish Registers or the Bishop's Transcripts, mutatis mutandis.

The Editor is responsible for words added in ().

Throughout this work I have adhered to the "Old Style" of reckoning, by which the year is computed to commence on March 25th.

Where not otherwise indicated the Extracts are from the Bishop's Transcripts.

Extracts from the Parish Registers of Bedfordshire have also appeared in the following works :—
