Preface.

WHITTINGTON—not to be confused with Withington, near Manchester, nor Whittingham, near Preston—is a pretty village situate in extreme North-East Lancashire, about one-and-a-half miles from Kirkby Lonsdale. Its Church, dedicated to S. Michael, is known to have been in existence in the fourteenth century. The Parish of Whittington comprises 4,327 acres, including the townships of Newton, Docker, and Whittington, and contains a population of 339. The adjoining parishes on the Westmoreland side are Burton and Kirkby Lonsdale, and on the Lancashire side Tunstall, Melling, and Warton. The Parish Registers share, with Whalley and Farnworth (near Widnes), the honour of commencing in 1538—the year appointed by Vicar-General Cromwell.

The two earliest volumes have been wholly transcribed and a small part of the earliest Marriage Register kept under Lord Hardwicke's Act. The first volume comprises Christenings, Burials, and Weddings, 1538-1665, and the second volume contains Christenings and Burials 1665-1764, and Weddings up to 1753. The two earlier volumes measure twelve inches by eight inches each; the elder volume contains 148 paper leaves, very much worn at the edges, the later volume 69 parchment leaves, in good preservation: both are bound in vellum. The first "Lord Hardwicke" Marriage Register is also in excellent preservation. There are no Chapelries in the Parish.

We have to express our grateful thanks to the Rector of the Parish and his kind-hearted household for their great hospitality and for the numerous facilities they have afforded during the transcription of the Registers.

To Mrs. Henry Brierley we are wholly indebted for our excellent indexes, and to the Secretary of the Society for several useful suggestions.

We cannot trace any Episcopal transcripts.

The commencement of each Civil year has been inserted here though it is seldom given in the Original.

² The words “Sepult” and “A^o p^ddict” attached to each Entry in the Original are not repeated in this Volume.

[Volume II. of Original Register.]

It will be noted that the Burials from 1661 to 1665 inclusive are now repeated. They are found so repeated in the second Volume of the Original Registers, but as many different items of interesting information are found in each set of entries it has been thought well to print both.

The word "sep" or "sepult" is repeated in the original, but has been omitted in the transcript.
