Ohio Township

Ohio Township was formed from territory belonging to Wayne Township (upon the petition of her citizens) by the Board of County Commissioners, on June 6, 1843. This township, at its organization, embraced the territory now comprising Jackson Township.

There are three cemeteries in this township: St. Paul, Ohio Chapel, and Zion. St. Paul was recorded by Mrs. W.H.Conner. It was a Lutheran cemetery. It is in the S W 1/4 of Sec. 19, on the line between Sections 19 and 24.

Ohio Chapel is in the N E 1/4 of Section 23. Zion is in the N E corner of the N E 1/4 of Section 18.

St. Paul Cemetery

St. Paul Cemetery, in the central part of Ohio Township, is on State Road 58. St. Paul Lutheran Church was torn down many years ago. This is now a community burial ground and is cared for by an inter-denominational Board of Trustees.

The bodies of some of the pioneer residents were moved here from the Baptist Cemetery after that church burned. Among these was Marcus Clark, who was the founder of the Baptist church and preached for that congregation several years. He and his wife, Electa Sherman Clark, came here in covered wagons. Marcus Clark was related to George Rogers Clark.

This cemetery was recorded by Mrs. W.H.Conner and Mrs. Corinne Noblitt Taylor.

Jackson Township

On the first Monday of July 1828, Salt Creek Township was formed. The name was changed to Jackson January 5, 1829. There are about twenty square miles in this township.

There are six cemeteries in Jackson township:-

Mt. Mt. Healthy Methodist in the S W 1/4 of Section 36, on Road 58, 1 1/2 miles north of Waymansville; White Creek Methodist, in Section 8, about three miles east of Waymansville, on the Waymansville - Jonesville Road; Sutherland Cemetery, just off Road 58, about 2 1/2 miles southwest of Waymansville, in S W 1/4 of Section 15; Waymansville Lutheran Cemetery in Waymansville, N W 1/4 of Section 11; McLaughlin Cemetery on a high hill west of Waymansville; a Family plot on Rotert Farm 1/2 mile south of Waymansville on the Seymour Road.

The McLaughlin Cemetery was recorded by Mrs. Frank Aldenhagen; Sutherland by Mrs. Clarence Graffa; and the Family plot by Frederic Rotert Jr.

FLATROCK TOWNSHIP

Flatrock township was organized May 11, 1824. This township comprises about twenty-nine square miles.

Six cemeteries have been listed. Mt. Sidney is northwest of St. Louis Crossing, in Section 9. Flatrock Baptist Cemetery is west of Clifford on Flatrock River. This is in the SW 1/4 of Section 30. Liberty Cemetery is southwest of Clifford in the NE corner of the NE 1/4 of Section 31. The Cox Family Cemetery is on the farm owned by Mrs. Anna Spaugh in 1940. The Conner Family plot is northeast of St. Louis Crossing on the Bartholomew-Shelby County line. The farm was owned by Ed Riefer in 1940. The Thayer Family burial ground is southeast of St. Louis Crossing on the farm of William Rogers.

There are graves of some west bound travelers near Ed Marr's farm. There are some Indian burials in this township, according to Leonard Thayer, County Auditor.

Mt. Sidney was recorded by Mrs. Grace Poland Dodd; the Cox family plot by Mrs. Anna Spaugh; and the Flatrock Baptist Cemetery by Mrs. Laura Fix.

HAVENHILL TOWNSHIP

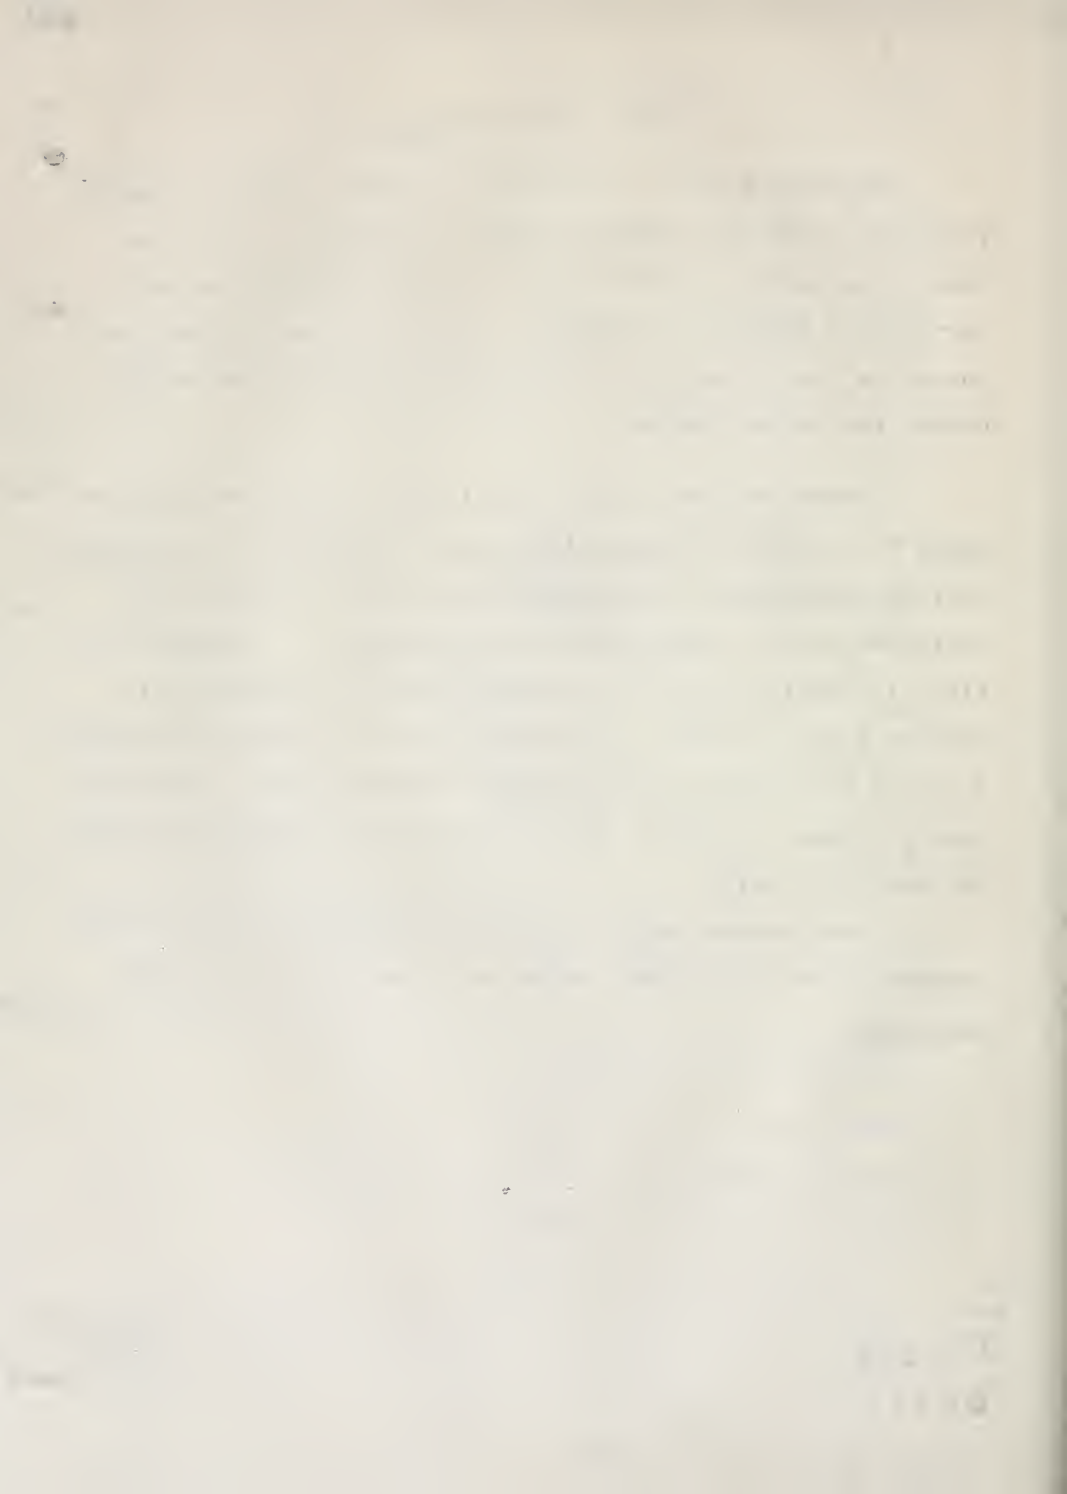

On March 2, 1860, the Board of Justices founded Havenhill Township. This township was early recognized as one of the best in the county. It is third in size, only Columbus and Tazewell being larger. It contains thirty-six square miles, and coincides with a Congressional township, the only one in the County that is so located.

Seven cemeteries have been listed: - Hope Moravian, in Hope, in Section 20; Hartsville College Cemetery in the southeast part of Hartsville, in Section 33; Hartsville Baptist, in the northwest part of Hartsville, also in Section 33; Havenhill Cemetery in Section 20; Old St. Louis Cemetery in Section 19; Simmons Family Cemetery - northwest of Old St. Louis, in Section 3; and a Family Plot on the Charles Ross farm about 1 1/2 miles north of Hope on Road 9. This is on the west side of the road, far back on a hill.

The Simmons Family Cemetery was recorded by Mrs. Floyd Simmons. Mrs. Sarah Dodd Thayer has recorded Old St. Louis Cemetery.

CHAMBERSHIP

This township was established March 8, 1849. It embraces twenty-two and one-half acres.

There are five cemeteries:- Sandhill, on State Road 48, three miles east of Columbus, in the SW 1/4 of Section 15; Gaddis Family Cemetery on State Road 48 on Mrs. Bill's farm, in Section 14; Sharon, in the NW 1/4 of Section 3, in the eastern part of the township; non Moravian Cemetery in the SW 1/4 of Section 3; and a small cemetery just south of the Harve Coffman farm, in Section 12. I have heard this referred to as the Campbellite Cemetery; as it was possibly used by the followers of Alexander Campbell who restored the Disciples of Christ, now called the Christian Church.

Mrs. Margaret Talley, who inherited her mother's, Mrs. Bill's land, said that no stones were left in this Gaddis Family burial plot.

COLUMBUS TOWNSHIP

Columbus Township was organized and established by the order of the Board of County Commissioners May 11, 1824. Several changes were made in the boundary lines, the last on June 13, 1859.

The sixteen cemeteries listed are as follows; Garland Brook, just east of Columbus; City Cemetery in Columbus, just north of 16th Street; Thompson Cemetery, one mile southwest of Columbus on the Brownstown or Mineral Springs Road, in the northwest corner of N W 1/4 of Section 32; St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran (or Clifty) on State Road 7, in the S E 1/4 of Section 33; a small Baptist cemetery east of Road 7, on the Bick farm; a family plot east of Road 7 on the Orval Thompson farm in Section 29; Carter's 6th Chapel, northwest of Columbus; the Christian Union, west of Columbus in Section 28; the Crump Family Cemetery on J.S. Crump's land, in Section 7; two family plots, the Olmstead, on the C.F. Berry farm, west of the County Farm, on the north side of the Heagy road; and the Lewellen Family, south of this road on Jesse Heagy's farm; one on Fisher's farm at Garden City; one on the Marr Farm on Road 31 W; the Irwin-Glant Family Cemetery also on Road 31 W in Garden City; and Mt. Pleasant, west of Columbus.

Ross Crump listed the Crump Family plot; Rev. Nau, the St. Paul's Lutheran, Mrs. Annie Newson (McEwen) the Thompson Cemetery; and Mrs. Laura Fix started the City Cemetery. The two last named are now deceased. Mrs. Fix worked with the D.A.R.; and Mrs. Newson was President of the Historical Society.

GARLAND BROOK

In 1939 Thomas Brockman, Sexton at Garland Brook, talked before the Rotary Club. From the article in the news paper, the following facts were taken.

The first burial was June 25, 1836. At this time there were 6,843 graves. In 1938 there were <sup>212</sup>233 burials. In the peak year, 1936, there were 235.

The only income of the cemetery is derived from opening and closing graves, fees for flower watering service, and from sale of lots. The revenue from all sources except sale of lots almost pays the labor bill at the cemetery, which last year amounted to $3,900. Modern equipment must be purchased from time to time.

Every lot is numbered, and the exact location of every burial is on file in the sexton's office.

Will Marsh, of Oklahoma City, formerly a newspaper man in Columbus, told me that when Garland Brook was opened in 1836, the bodies buried in the old Catholic Cemetery at Tenth and Wilson Streets in Columbus, were moved to Garland Brook. They are clustered about the Chapel that stands farther east in the Cemetery. His grandparents, the Goodins, are in this plot.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records for the company's operations. It highlights the need for regular audits and the implementation of strict protocols to ensure data integrity. The text emphasizes that these measures are essential for the long-term success and stability of the organization.

In the second section, the author details the various challenges faced by the department during the reporting period. These include fluctuations in market demand, supply chain disruptions, and internal resource constraints. Despite these obstacles, the team managed to maintain a high level of performance through effective communication and collaborative problem-solving.

The third part of the document provides a comprehensive overview of the financial performance. It includes a detailed analysis of revenue streams, cost structures, and profit margins. The data indicates a steady growth in sales, which has been a significant factor in the company's overall success. However, the author also notes areas where costs have increased and suggests strategies for optimization.

Finally, the document concludes with a series of recommendations for future actions. These include investing in new technologies to improve efficiency, expanding into new markets, and strengthening relationships with key stakeholders. The author expresses confidence in the company's ability to overcome future challenges and achieve its strategic goals.
