

First Graduating Class To Get Diplomas At Albany Academy

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

ALBANY, Ga., June 1.—The closing exercises of the Albany academy will be held at the chautauqua auditorium next Monday night. The program for the closing exercises has been completed and the occasion promises to be a very interesting one.

For the first time in the history of the Albany academy a class will be graduated. Never before has a student finished the full course of study prescribed by the catalogue and been formally graduated from the institution. A class of ten bright young ladies and gentlemen compose the first class that the institution will graduate. They are: Misses Darien Pinkston, Rosie Geiger, Madeline Robinson, Madelyn Gilbert, Minnie Pate, Gertrude and Pauline Plonsky; Messrs. Jesse D. Weston, Max Reich and Worth Yankee.

Both the trustees and the patrons of the institution have been pleased with the work of Professor deJarnette and his corps of able assistants.

The program announced for the closing exercises on next Monday night is as follows:

Chorus by class.

Instrumental solo by class member.

Salutatory—Miss Rosie Geiger.

Vocal Solo—Miss Gertrude Plonsky.

Violin Solo—Mr. Max Reich.

Class Prophecy—Miss Madeline Robinson.

Class History—Master Jesse D. Weston.

Instrumental Solo—Miss Rosie Geiger.

Valedictory—Miss Darien Pinkston.

Address to class and delivery of the deJarnette medals by Prof. E. A. Pound, superintendent of the public schools of Waycross.

Delivery of diplomas by County School Commissioner L. E. Welch or some member of the board of academy trustees.

Chorus by class.

It was found impossible to decide between Misses Darien Pinkston and Rosie Geiger to whom the handsome deJarnette scholarship medal should be awarded, so the medal has been duplicated and one will be presented to each of these young ladies.
