

Graduating Exercises Grady Institute At Fort Valley, Ga.

FORT VALLEY, Ga., May 29.—The graduating exercises of Grady institute took place here Monday night before a large and delighted audience.

The following program was rendered:

Short literary address by Rev. Clarence King, of Atlanta.

Delivering of diplomas by Hon. O. M. Houser.

Overture—Barber of Seville (Rossini)—Jennie May Jones, Ruby Lilly and Miss Jones.

Class historian—Lilly Brown.

Essay—"Are Our School Days Ended?"—Ethel Prator.

Ellin waltzes—Labitzsky—Pearl Jones, Mamie Miller.

Essay—"Dewdrops"—Annie Snow.

Essay—"Phantoms"—Jennie May Jones.
LaCzarina, mazurka (Geme)—Nettie Green and Lilly Brown.

Essay—"Kindness"—Emile Bassett.

Essay—"The Banner Over Us Is Love"—Fanny McDonald.

Dance, ecorsaire (Baker)—Annie Lee

Snow, Susie Lee Carter and Nellie Carter.
Class poet—Cleone Duke.

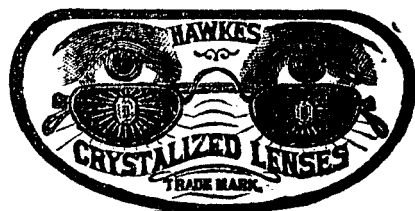

Essay—"Fashion"—Susie Lee Carter.
Airs from Lucretia Borgia (Blake)—Annie Lee Watson and Miss Jones.

Essay—"When My Ship Comes In"—Nettie Green.

Essay—"Time"—Nellie Carter.
Je Suis Pret Galop (Labuente)—Lilly Brown and Miss Jones.

Essay—"Standing Alone"—Ruby Lilly.
Class prophet—Mary Letford.

Delivery of special prizes by Hon. C. G. Gray.

A. K. Hawkes, the Atlanta Optician, removed to No. 103 Peachtree. Established in 1870.