Butler M. and F. College Closes Successful Year

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

BUTLER, Ga., May 30.—Butler M. and F. college has just closed a very successful year of school work.

The past week has been a round of entertainments.

The initial feature was the brilliant music recital of Miss Nettie Warde Frierson and Mr. Montfort, assisted by Mrs. James Robert Frierson, reader, and Mr. Hicks Fort, vocalist.

Miss Carrie Lumpkin, as director, scored a triumph in the interesting program presented.

Sunday Dr. M. B. Wharton, of Alabama, preached an eloquent sermon upon the theme, "Redeeming the Time."

Monday evening the pupils of the primary and intermediate grades entertained a large audience.

Tuesday morning Hon. Byron Bower, of Bainbridge, delivered the annual address upon "The American Soldier."

Wednesday evening the pupils of Miss Carrie Lumpkin's music school gave a grand concert, a musical feast which was greatly enjoyed. Miss Lumpkin is a gifted musician and imparts knowledge easily and naturally.

It was with universal regret the resignation of Mr. G. B. Toole was accepted. He goes to Bainbridge to enter the mercantile business.

Miss Lumpkin, of Athens; Miss Mattie Bateman, of Butler, and Miss Lynda Lee, of Talbotton, will return.

A new principal will be elected as early as possible.
