

GRESHAM HIGH SCHOOL RENDERS GOOD PROGRAM

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

MACON, June 14.—The Gresham High school exercises last night filled the Academy of Music to overflowing, every seat in the house being occupied, and standing room being at a premium. Gresham is one of the most famous of the state's high schools, her graduates having taken first honors in large numbers of the higher institutions of the state and the United States. Miss Dolores Nottingham, daughter of Mr. Robert V. Nottingham, carried away the first honor last night, and delivered the salutatory. She is a charming young lady, and has won a great many friends.

Joe Riley delivered an original speech on the "Three Elements of Success." He is the second honor graduate from the boys' department of the school.

Miss Norma Ellis, second honor graduate, read an original essay on "The Nicaragua Canal."

Miss Hazel Foster, a graduate from the Elam Alexander Normal school, read an essay on the ideal school.

Miss Fannie Winn, a normal school graduate, also read an original essay on the importance of good primary teaching.

Roosevelt Walker, who won first honor in the boys' department of the high school, delivered the valedictory address.

Mr. Malcolm D. Jones awarded the medals.

Miss Louise Golden won the medal for excellence in the girls' department, and Mr. Richard Willingham won the medal in the boys' department.
