

Commencement Exercises of Southern Female College At College Park

The commencement exercises of the Southern Female college at College Park closed last evening with a musical program and the conferring of diplomas and degrees by Dr. W. W. Landrum, president of the board of trustees.

The work of the college orchestra was especially good, and Mrs. Hutchinson received repeated encores on her solo work. The Philharmonic club proved to be a favorite during the evening and received much applause.

Dr. Landrum was very happy in his remarks, pungent and impressive.

There were 30 members of the senior class. The class is as follows:

AFTERNOON EXERCISES.

The exercises yesterday afternoon constituted the celebration of the various societies, musical and literary. The literary address was delivered by Mr. John R.
Straton, of Macon. His address was one of the best features of the commencement.
Mr. Straton took for his subject "The Potentialities of Southern Literature," and for nearly an hour he reviewed the literature contributed by southern talent in an interesting and instructive manner.
He was up to his usual standard in eloquence and style, and showed evidences of a much broader culture in literary lines.

The program on this occasion was as follows:

Processional March, by orchestra.
Song, "If I But Knew," Wilson Smith—
Miss Vernon Lewis, Columbus, Ga.

Remarks by President of the Clonian
Society—Miss Aetna Turner, Madisonville, Ky.

Remarks by President of the Philharmonic Society—Miss Haldee McKenzle, Montezuma, Ga.

"The Benefits of Travel"—Miss Janie
Swann, French Broad, Tenn.

Organ solo, March from Tannhauser, Wagner—Miss Lucile Doty, Middleton, O.

Remarks by President of the Baconian
Society—Miss Fossie Callaway, Cumming,
Ga.

Address from the Baconian Society on "The Work of Our Societies as a Preparation for Real Life"—Miss Miriam Acree, Clarksville, Tenn.

Remarks by President of Hawthorne
Society—Miss Ethel Taylor, Hawkinsville,
Ga.

Address from the Hawthorne Society on "Conversation as a Fine Art"—Miss Nora Wright, Roanoke, Ala.

Song, "My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose," Hastings—Miss Eoline West, Fort Gaines, Ga.

Introduction of the orator of the afternoon by Miss Anna Jelks, Hawkinsville, Ga.

Oration before the societies—John Roach Straton, Macon, Ga.

COMMENCEMENT A SUCCESS.

The entire commencement program has been a brilliant success. It began last Sunday morning, when Dr. John E. White preached the commencement sermon at the Second Baptist church here, and ended with the musical last night.

The last two trains yesterday evening were crowded with Atlanta people bound for College Park to hear the interesting exercises.
