

DUBLIN HIGH SCHOOL EXERCISES HELD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DUBLIN, Ga., May 23.—The graduating exercises of the Dublin High School were held Friday night last in the court house in this city. A large audience greeted the young graduates, who were so inspiring to their hearers.

An address was made by the president of the city board of education, Rev. J. T. Smith. The program was interspersed by music from the Philharmonic orchestra, of this city. Miss Roberta Smith's essay on "Fame and Fashion" was admirably rendered, as also was the salutatory by Miss Maude Hightower. The class history was read by Miss Lennie Keen, followed by Miss Alice Harvard with an essay on "The Girl of Yesterday and the Girl of Today." Miss Ida Prescott read the class prophecy, it being filled with wit and received with great applause. Mr. William Warden was the only young man to graduate. He delivered the valedictory in a creditable manner. All the numbers were well rendered and showed much care and good taste in their papers. The several diplomas were delivered by Rev. J. T. Smith after an appropriate address to the class, its dearly beloved principal, Professor J. Coachman Wardlaw, and his able corps of assistants.

and Georgia Normal and Industrial college, the board of trustees of the sanitarium, the officers of that institution, the delegation from Atlanta and prominent citizens of Milledgeville.

The minister left on the early train this morning for Atlanta.

The Atlanta delegation, consisting of Hon. H. H. Cabaniss, Dr. Elkins and others, arrived in the city at 1:30 p. m. They escorted the minister from here to Atlanta.

Mr. L. P. Hillyer, secretary of the Georgia Bankers' association, came over from Macon and extended an invitation to Wu to attend the convention of Georgia, Virginia and North Carolina bankers, which meets in Savannah in June. The minister would give no definite answer to this invitation.

Wu seemed delighted with Milledgeville and the surroundings, especially the pretty women he saw and met. His visit was a fortunate one for the Georgia Military college and they are especially gratified at it. The graduating class of the college to whom diplomas were presented yesterday was as follows: Captain J. J. Hutson, Captain Conn Carr, Lieutenant and Adjutant I. C. Case, Lieutenant and Quartermaster R. L. Massengale, Lieutenant Frank Shealy, Miss Bertha Gilman, Miss Cassie Simpson, Miss Beatrice Johnson, Miss Willie Ennis, Miss Ida Armstrong and Miss Helen Skinner.

SCHOOLS OF JACKSON END THEIR TERM

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

JACKSON, Ga., May 23.—The graduating exercises of the city public schools last evening closed the commencement program, it being conceded that this year's program eclipsed any other similar event held in this city. Supt. C. H. Bruce and his splendid corps of assistants, Misses Daisy Smith, Jennie Gardner, Mable Hodges, Janie Duke, Lizzie McCord, Manda Williams, Ruth Dean and Daisy Gray, have within the past year surpassed all records in the history of Jackson schools. The enrollment has been larger, and the deportment and progress of the pupils better. Jackson has a splendid system of schools, handsome buildings, an auditorium with a seating capacity of over 1,600, and the citizens of the city are interested in making greater improvements in the public school system, and all working together in unity for the upbuilding of the pride of the city—her public schools.

A large number of visitors were in attendance at the commencement exercises, and were delighted with the program given the past three days. The exercises last evening were as follows:

Prayer—Dr. W. A. Nelson.
Salutatory—Susie Davis.
Class history—Winnie Maddox.
Entreaty (Bohm)—Rosa Newton.
Class poem—Lillian Harkness.
Giftoarian—Adelle Nutt.
Grigsby's Station (J. W. Riley)—Lucy Watkins.

Sonata No. 1, Adagio Prestissimo—Beethoven—Susie Davis.

Endowment—Lucy Watkins.
Class legacy—Adelle Nutt.

Valedictory—Mary Joe Carmichael.
Delivery of diplomas—By Supt. C. H. Bruce.

Supt. C. H. Bruce delivered the diplomas to the young ladies of the class in a very appropriate address, and the commencement exercises of 1902 passes into the history of Jackson public schools the most brilliant in its history.

HOSCHTON SCHOOLS HOLD EXERCISES

HOSCHTON, May 23.—Last evening the program occurred closing the year's exercises in a highly satisfactory manner. The speeches by Fred H. Thomas and Herman P. Delaperrre and recitations by Misses Estelle Cooper, Bertha Hosch, Ruth Hosch, Lillie Pirkil and Claudia Thomas were excellent and have excited genuine and deserved praise.

At the conclusion of the program Dr. W. P. Delaperrre in a graceful manner introduced the speakers of the evening—Senator Holder, of Jefferson, and Dr. G. R. Glenn, state school commissioner, of Atlanta.

Mr. Holder's remarks were timely. He can grasp the situation and impress one as a man who could look after the needs of the people in the halls of the state and be able to express himself intelligently to his constituents at home.

Dr. Glenn's address was, as usual, good. He held the attention of his audience by his literary eloquence and forcible presentations of great truths. As he spoke one could but recall those lines of Pope:

"This education forms the common mind,
Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined."

SECRET SOCIETIES MEET AT BALDWIN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

BALDWIN, Ga., May 23.—Last Thursday was a great day for Baldwin and vicinity, the greatest gathering in many respects that ever assembled in this section of the state. The order of I. O. O. F. has as their guests the Masons and W. O. W. of North Georgia and in honor of them gave a fine barbecue.

The Odd Fellows in a body met the distinguished speakers at the train and conducted them to the chapel where the children of the industrial school had assembled for short exercises. After the exercises the crowd marched to the lovely park where the following program was rendered.
