

COMMENCEMENT HELD AT WINDER SCHOOL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

WINDER, Ga., May 30.—One of the most successful years in the history of Winder's school has just closed with a splendid commencement. The program of the graduating exercises was:

Salutatory—Lucius McClesky.

Speech—"Ad Astra per Aspera"—Edgar E. De La Perriere.

Essay—"What Is a Woman's Sphere?"—Nina Ware.

Class History and Prophecy—Tullie Lamar.

Speech—"What is it to be an American?"—Van Wilhite.

Valedictory—Earl Kimball.

After which the above six, four boys and two girls, received their diplomas. All the music for the occasion was well rendered by Miss Frances Furlow and her pupils. The board of trustees met today and re-elected Professor Henry R. Hunt as principal and also elected two other teachers, Professor Richard A. Black and Mrs. Dora Wilhite. The other teachers will be elected soon. The school will continue to grow even more rapidly than in the past.
