THE PRETTIEST CLASS EVER GRADUATED FROM BRENAU

TWENTY-SIX YOUNG WOMEN RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

HE Brenzu faculty, the college community and the visitors to the commencement just closed concur in the statement that the class of

The first honor girl. Pauline Smith, of and as poisses a expression of the control of the c

Miss Daisy Wilson, of Atlanta, who wrote the works and music of the class spore, is one of the boat remarkable among the class. Neither voice nor eyes are strong, yet all delightfully a wreet, mappid soprano, and her graduating rectal, when she had the entire program, was one of the most enjoyable among the neither program. Class history is more illuminating than some of the most enjoyable among the property of the property is more illuminating than sense of the most strong and the property is more illuminating than sense and the property is property of the property of the property is more in the property in the property in the property is not better than a rebeared of discussion rather than a rebeared of the property is not property in the property of the honors.

Miss Mabel Prown is one of the bright-est members among the literary gradu-ates. Her seary in defense of Pos. Theo. Coming the Commission of the Commission of Commission of the Spatials. He howeve criptant thought and great research. Her points were all well taken, her deductions soon-toning, and the taken, her demotions convincing, and the construction showed literary style. Rath Baken, a pretty Kentucky girl, would have shared first honor except for the fact that she had been at Brenau amly a year, and the marks are given on general average. She is bright, and was a great favorite in her class. She gave an great invortes in act cases. One gave an original poem on class day, which was one of the most enjoyable numbers on the program. Written in pastoral style, after Million's "Lycidas," it showed originality Una Webb and Miss Haidee Mc Kenzie are both young women of excep-tional style, and are brilliant musicians. Miss Webb's pretty voice was heard in several programs, and Miss McKenzie's performance in the grand concert was the most brilliant, work ever done by a Branau graduate, and that is saying great deal.

Ractiel Tomlinson is an interesting persomality, and was popular slike with fac-ulty and students. Her ability as an impersonator ranks high, and her perform-ances were the joy of her teacher and

N the occasion of the brilliant ban-

Monday evaning, some excellent toosate were given over the coffee some excellent toosate were given over the coffee, some excellent the morning. Down the long line of tables stretching the length of the dining woman with a beautiful speaking value with the strength of tables stretching the length of the dining woman with a beautiful speaking with no district woman with a beautiful speaking with no district woman with a beautiful speaking with no district within the length of the dining woman with a beautiful speaking with no district woman with district woman with a beautiful speaking with no district woman with no di again enjoy the del a midnight feast."

SOME TOASTS GIVEN AT THE ALUMNAE BANQUET

Miss Marion Riley Chambers' Personal to the tourt, "Branan's Future," of the best siven:

BRENAU'S FUTURE

Patrick Henry once said: "There is no way of judging the future save by the past." This may be good oratory, but in some instances it is untrue. Let us see wharsh lies its attength, and weakness. If the future as printed on the toat lies and to which I am responding, means the inture of Bream College, but in theorem; it according to Mr. Henry's pickenson; and judge from its past success, that the returns will be brilliantly gloribes. Ethnich.

buture will be brilleantly gorffore. Sinad-ing as she does for all that is best in only lege education for welmon, Schmein and fear no wil from the future. Schmein is the leve of per alumnas; job filling immi-ories sind associations of formets sindents; materials in the feaf to de-graduates and teared "life species in the feaf of through for help sind that is expanded from the large carrier fail. There is but only future for help sind that is expan as not per-ture that of good to all who county is help the and and unfitting a fature for of hear-ters as all whom this describes "Will go nature full-of good to all who come is here or and any countries, as braves do is il haseings to all whom the feet for its in a motely.

It is an old figure, but it is a type out, that whome of the south their breakings out that whome of the south their breakings out the waters of the south their breakings out the waters of outputs and high thinking the breaking of the south their in deficient waters of outputs and high thinking the breakings of the south their in the south their the south their in the south their interest of time. May we dip for south their interest of the south their formation of the south their interest of the graduates of Britains these of us who are been conight-theirs, due to the south these of us who are been conight-theirs, due to the south the south their interest of the graduates of Britains these of us who are been conight-theirs, due to the south the so

First some of us an act referminated Universitiently would in judge the future by our past. Again, some of us may never have allowed ourselves to be counted. Ministen is he who would accept this past as ferriture. And yet, again, some of us, septically the recent grounders to tall me and the counter of th

Oh, there's nothing like layons time!

I am almost to my close arms. The laid, you any thing with the laid, you any thing with the laid, you are the nakes to have laid, you are the substant of the laid. The laid of the lai car was killed.

er was amen.
"Faith," replied the old man,

"Faith," replied the old man, "seeing they have so many accidents in that said it don't see why the rallread don't large it out is the way? I feet about this last number on the program haybe it said way you feel, so to save us all from further misfortune I'll do what that rallwad should have done.
