

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS GIVEN DIPLOMAS LAST NIGHT

GRADUATING EXERCISES AT THE
GRAND WERE GREATLY EN-JOYED—FIFTY-EIGHT
GRADUATES.

As pretty a spectacle as was ever seen upon the stage of the Grand was the graduation exercises of the young ladies of the Girls' High school, which took place last night. Fifty-eight young ladies received their diplomas and were graduated into the world, alumnae of the institution which they had attended for several years.

Miss Nettie Sargeant, principal of the school, deserves great credit for the manner in which she trained the young ladies in the drill which last night pleased thousands of people. The entire program was carried through without a hitch and few have been similar exercises at the Grand so enjoyable.

The class march was very pretty. The young ladies carried in their hands red fans decorated with red ribbons, and this color scheme was carried through with beautiful effect.

The members of the literary class were thirty-eight in number and were as follows:

Louise Allen, Janie Arnold, May Asbury, Emma Askew, Theo Bowle, Elise Boylston, Mabel Brown, Zoe Cannon, Caroline Clark, Regina Corrigan, Ray Dickert, Mae Dougherty, Ethel Foster, Mary Fraser, Florence Green, Beulah Haas, May Hardin, Eugenie Harper, Nellie Harris, Jessie Henderson, Mabel Hurt, Beatrice Liebman, Alice Mullings, Blanche Myer, Mary McDonald, Marie O'Neill, Ellen Pratt, Isabel Stephens, Harriette Talley, Hazel Thomas, Bernice Thomason, Mary Thompson, Minnie Van Epps, Grace Wallace, Burnsie Withers, Rose Wood, Irene Young and Cleveland Zahner.

"Vicit qui se vicit" was the motto chosen by this class.

The twenty members of the commercial course chose for their motto "Onward and onward." Their names are:

Misses Edna Allen, May Borling, Sarah Brady, Maude Browne, Lena Dickinson, Annie Forsyth, Lillie Garrow, Ruby Gibbs, Dora Hood, Pearl Holbrook, Annie Jordan, Ella Lyle, Sadie Lowenstein, Sallie Moore, Elizabeth Ryan, Dora Snyder, Daisy Slater, Bessie Stahl, Lillian Vining, Ethel Zacharias.

There was one medal and four scholarships awarded to different members of the two classes last night. The medal offered by the Thomas Jefferson chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution for the best examination in American History was won by Miss Emma Askew, whose average in this study was very high.

Miss Mary McDonald and Miss Isabel Stephens were awarded the alumnae scholarships. The commercial scholarship was awarded to Miss Dora Hood, and the scholarship to the Agnes Scott institute went to Miss Mary Thompson.

The program as it was rendered last night was as follows:

Prayer—Class.

Chorus, "Night" (A. Ergmann)—Class.

Greeting—Nellie Harris, president of Mallon society.

Chorus, "The Morning Ramble" (Veazie)

—Class.

Part Song, "Sing On, Sweet Bird" (Walter E. Owen)—Class.

Essay, "Reading; Its Use and Abuse"—

Cleveland Zahner.

Chorus, "Be Glad, Lass and Lad" (Gumbert)—Class.

Presentation of Diplomas—Hamilton

Douglas, president of board of education.

Class March—Leaders, Beatrice Liebman and Bessie Stahl.

The faculty of the Girls' High school is made up as follows:

Miss Nettie C. Sargeant, principal; Mrs.

A. T. Wise, assistant principal; Miss Jessie Muse, Miss Kate Culpepper, Miss

Maud Smith, Miss Lucy Bloodworth, Miss

Christine Romare, Miss Belle Kennedy,

Miss Charlotte Dunn, Miss Mary Moore,

Miss Mattie Burtchell, Miss Lillie

Guerard, Miss Susie Battle, Miss Alice

Dixon, Miss Nellie Dozier, Miss Katherine

Westbrook, Miss Luie M. Sargeant, librarian.

..

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETS

www.oaograduates.com